National Australia Bank Applies to De-list from Tokyo Stock Exchange

The National Australia Bank Limited (NAB) today lodged an application to de-list its shares from the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE).

National Australia Bank Group Chief Executive Officer John Stewart said de-listing from the TSE is part of the Group s ongoing streamlining of operations and cost reductions and would have no impact on the bank s business in Japan.

Japan offers an attractive source of funding but listing on the TSE is no longer a requirement for raising funds in Japan, he said.
