(Excerpt from press release of Ashland Inc.'s April 25, 2005 press release announcing its second quarter earnings)

UPDATE ON THE PROPOSED TRANSFER OF INTEREST IN MAP

On March 19, 2004, Ashland announced the signing of an agreement under which it would transfer its 38-percent interest in Marathon Ashland Petroleum LLC and two wholly-owned businesses to Marathon Oil Corporation in a transaction structured to be generally tax free and valued at approximately $3 billion. The two businesses are Ashland's maleic anhydride business and 61 Valvoline Instant Oil Change centers. The transaction is subject to several previously disclosed conditions, including receipt of a private letter ruling from the IRS with respect to the tax treatment of the transaction. The IRS has indicated that it will not provide all the rulings requested by Ashland and Marathon, and discussions are continuing with the IRS on modifications to the proposed transaction. In addition, as disclosed on April 13, 2005, Ashland and Marathon are discussing possible alternatives with respect to the proposed transaction. There can be no assurance that an agreement on an alternative transaction will be reached.

Cash distributions from MAP have been suspended pending the transfer of the company's interest in the joint venture to Marathon. If the proposed transaction closes, Ashland would receive proceeds equal to 38 percent of MAP's distributable cash at the time of closing. If the transaction does not close, Ashland would receive its share of these funds as part of its normal distributions. Ashland's share on March 31, 2005, was $560 million.
