This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to our shareholders on or about April 27, 2004. A copy of the Annual Report on Form 10-K, which includes financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, which are hereby incorporated by reference herein, is enclosed with this Proxy Statement.

For your information, our subsidiaries are Senior Financial Consultants Company (the "Agency"), Penn Treaty Network America Insurance Company ("PTNA"), American Network Insurance Company ("ANIC"), American Independent Network Insurance Company of New York ("AINIC"), United Insurance Group Agency, Inc. ("UIG") and Network Insurance Senior Health Division, Inc. ("NISHD").

ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

What is the purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will act upon the following matters: the election of three directors of Penn Treaty, each to serve for a three-year term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2007; the ratification of our selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent public auditors for Penn Treaty and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2004; and any other business that may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting.

Who is entitled to vote?

Only shareholders of record on the record date, which was the close of business on Monday, April 12, 2004, will be entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote.

How do I vote?

To vote your shares, you can use the Internet or call the toll-free telephone number as described in the instructions on your proxy card, or properly complete, sign, date and return your proxy card to us. If you are a registered shareholder and attend the Annual Meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

What constitutes a quorum?

The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum, permitting business to be conducted at the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, 35,785,667 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding, held by 445 shareholders of record.

How does discretionary voting authority apply?

If you sign and return your proxy card, but do not make any selections, you give discretionary authority to the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card, Francis R. Grebe, Peter M. Ross and Domenic P. Stangherlin, to vote on the proposals and any other matters that may arise at the Annual Meeting.

What are the Board's recommendations?

Unless you give other instructions on your proxy card, the proxy holders will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. The Board recommends a vote:

- o FOR election of the three nominees for director of Penn Treaty, Alexander M. Clark, Patrick E. Falconio and Matthew W. Kaplan; and
- o FOR the ratification of our selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent public auditors for Penn Treaty and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2004.

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote as recommended by the Board or, if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

What vote is required to elect the Directors?

The three nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote for directors (there being no cumulative voting) will be elected to serve on the Board. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of a quorum but will have no effect on the result of the vote.

What vote is required to ratify the selection of the independent public auditors?

A majority of the votes cast is required to ratify the selection of the independent public auditors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of a quorum but will have no effect on the result of the vote. If the shareholders do not ratify the selection of the independent public auditors, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors may, but is not required to, reconsider the appointment.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes. Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by filing with the Secretary of Penn Treaty either a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a date later than the date on the proxy you submitted. The powers of the proxy holders to vote your proxy will be suspended if you attend the Annual Meeting in person and request to change your vote or vote in person, although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

Who bears the cost of solicitation of proxies?

We bear the cost of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing this proxy statement and other material furnished to shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting. We have retained the services of Georgeson Shareholder at a cost of approximately $6,000 to perform proxy solicitation activities on our behalf.

When are shareholder proposals due for the Year 2005 Annual Meeting?

To be included in next year's proxy statement, shareholder proposals must be submitted in writing by December 27, 2004 to: Secretary, Penn Treaty American Corporation, 3440 Lehigh Street, Allentown, PA 18103. Shareholder proposals submitted after December 27, 2004 will not be included in the proxy statement but may be raised at the 2005 annual meeting. However, the persons named in the proxy card for the 2005 annual meeting will be allowed to use their discretionary voting authority with respect to shareholder proposals submitted after March 14, 2005 when the proposal is raised at the 2005 annual meeting, without any discussion of the matter in the proxy statement for that meeting.

Can shareholders and interested parties communicate with the Board of Directors?

The Board of Directors provides a process for shareholders and interested parties to send communications to the Board. Shareholders and interested parties may communicate with any of the Company's directors, any committee chairperson, the non-management directors as a group or the Board by writing to the director, committee chairperson or the Board in care of Penn Treaty American Corporation, 3440 Lehigh Street, Allentown, PA 18103. Communications received by the Corporate Secretary for any director are forwarded directly to the director. If the communication is addressed to the Board and no particular director is named, the communication will be forwarded, depending on the subject matter, to the Chairman, the appropriate Committee chairperson, all non-management directors or all directors.

Can shareholders submit recommendations for Directors?

The Audit, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "Governance Committee") recommends nominees to the Board based upon their integrity and character, sound and independent judgment, breadth of experience, insight and knowledge, business acumen and the projected contributions they can make to the Company, the Board and management. Leadership skills, industry expertise, familiarity with issues affecting businesses in diverse industries, prior government service and diversity are among the relevant criteria, which criteria will vary over time depending on the needs of the Company and of the Board. The Governance Committee considers candidates for potential nomination to recommend for approval by the full Board. This assessment includes a candidate's qualification as independent, as well as consideration of other applicable factors.

In addition, under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, the members of the Governance Committee must be financially literate or become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the Governance Committee. As a result, the Governance Committee may consider the financial literacy of candidates for potential nomination where such candidates, if elected to the Board, may be considered for future service on the Governance Committee.

The Governance Committee will consider shareholder recommendations for candidates to serve on the Board. In order to provide the Governance Committee time to evaluate candidates prior to submission to the shareholders for vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting, shareholders desiring to recommend a candidate must submit a recommendation to the Chair of the Governance Committee of the Company at the Company's corporate office at least 120 days prior to the date that the Company's proxy statement with respect to the previous year's annual meeting was released to shareholders. The recommendation must contain the following:

- o the name, residence and business address of the nominating shareholder;
- o a representation that the shareholder is a record holder of

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Company stock or holds Company stock through a broker and the number of shares held;

- o information regarding each nominee which would be required to be included in a proxy statement, including their telephone number, full educational and employment history;
- o a description of any arrangements or understandings between and among the shareholder and each nominee; and
- o the written consent of each nominee to serve as a director, if elected.

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

How often did the Board meet during 2003?

During 2003, the Board of Directors held nine meetings. Each director attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and the Committees of the Board on which he served. The average attendance of directors at Board and Committee meetings held during 2003 was 98%.

In 2003, all nine directors attended the Annual Meeting. Directors are expected to regularly attend Board, Committee and Annual Meetings and to spend the time needed to properly discharge their responsibilities.

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

The non-management directors intend to meet regularly during the year. The presiding director will be Gary E. Hindes.

Independence of Directors

The Board of Directors has determined that all directors are independent from the Company and management in accordance with the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") except Mr. Hunt, who is a Company employee, and Mr. Baum and Mr. Levit, who were employees of the Company during 2003. Mr. Baum's term as a director expires at the upcoming 2004 Annual Meeting and he will not be standing for re-election.

What committees has the Board established?

To assist in the discharge of its responsibilities, the Board of Directors has three committees - the Audit, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee ("Governance Committee") (formerly the "Audit Committee"), the Compensation Committee and the Executive Committee. The Board has determined that the Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee are composed entirely of independent directors, as independence is defined in the New York Stock Exchange listing standards and the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The total combined attendance for all Committee meetings during 2003 was 100%.

Audit, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee ("Governance Committee"). The Governance Committee is comprised of independent directors. The members of the Governance Committee are Mr. Clark, Mr. Grebe, Mr. Hindes, Mr. Kaplan, Mr. Ross and Mr. Stangherlin. Based on the Board's qualitative assessment of Mr. Hindes' level of knowledge and experience, the Board has determined that Mr. Hindes, who currently serves as Managing Director of a professional investment management firm, will be the Financial Expert. The Governance Committee met two times in 2003.

The principal functions of the Governance Committee are to (i) assist Board oversight of the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, and the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors; (ii) prepare an audit committee report as required by the Securities and Exchange Commission to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement; (iii) identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with the standards for director nominees approved by the Board, and to select, or to recommend that the Board select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders; (iv) to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company; and (v) to oversee the evaluation of the Board and management. The Governance Committee's Charter is attached as an appendix to this Proxy Statement and will be posted on Penn Treaty's website.

Mr. Stangherlin previously served as the Secretary to Penn Treaty and its subsidiaries from 1971 to 2000. The Board of Directors has determined in its business judgment that Mr. Stangherlin's membership on the Governance Committee is in the best interests of Penn Treaty and its shareholders based upon his substantial experience as a member of Penn Treaty's Board of Directors and private industry management tenure.

Compensation Committee. The members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Clark, Mr. Grebe, Mr. Hindes, Mr. Kaplan, Mr. Ross and Mr. Stangherlin. The

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Compensation Committee met 15 times in 2003.

The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and, either as a committee or together with the other independent directors (as directed by the Board), determine and approve the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation; make recommendations to the Board with respect to non-CEO compensation, incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans; and produce a compensation committee report on executive compensation as required by the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC. The Compensation Committee's Charter will be posted on Penn Treaty's website.

Executive Committee. During the periods between Board meetings, the Executive Committee exercises all of the powers of the Board of Directors, except that the Executive Committee may not elect directors, change the membership of or fill vacancies in the Executive Committee, fix the compensation of the directors, change the Bylaws, or take any action restricted by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law or the Bylaws (including actions delegated to another Board Committee). The members of the Executive Committee during 2003 were Mr. Clark, Mr. Hindes and Mr. Hunt. The Executive Committee did not meet in 2003.

How are Directors compensated?

Each director who is not a Company employee receives as compensation for services as a director an annual retainer of $5,000, a meeting fee of $1,000 for each Board Meeting attended and $500 for each Governance Committee meeting attended, and option grants to purchase shares of Penn Treaty common stock. Directors who are Company employees receive no separate compensation for service on the Board of Directors or Committees of the Board of Directors. These compensation policies were adopted by the Board in July 2002 and May 2003.

Information with respect to the share ownership of the directors and the nominees is set forth below. See "Principal Shareholders."

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

IMC, an insurance agency which is owned by Irving Levit, produced approximately $13,000 of renewal premiums for PTNA for the year ended December 31, 2003, for which it received commissions of approximately $3,000. While IMC has only been minimally involved in the sale of insurance products since 1979 and IMC'S operations since that time have not been significant, IMC continues to receive overriding commissions from Penn Treaty of 5% on business written for PTNA by any IMC general agents who were appointed prior to 1979 and any of their sub-agents hired prior and subsequent to January 1979 and one agent appointed in 1981. For the year ended December 31, 2003, these override commissions totaled approximately $433,000.

The terms on which commissions have been paid to IMC are consistent with (i) the terms on which commissions have been paid by Penn Treaty to comparable unaffiliated agencies in the past and are currently paid by Penn Treaty to an unaffiliated agency performing similar services, and (ii) the terms on which commissions are paid in the industry in general, and were no more favorable than would have been obtained from unrelated third parties.

Until February 2004, Francis R. Grebe was a partner at the investment counseling firm of Davidson Investment Counselors, an affiliate of Davidson

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Capital Management. Davidson Capital Management manages a portion of our investment portfolio for which it received fees of $20,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Mr. Grebe was not directly involved with any of Penn Treaty's investment matters. Mr. Grebe serves as a financial advisor to Irving Levit on some of Mr. Levit's personal matters for which he is compensated by Mr. Levit.

Alexander M. Clark is a Managing Director with Advest, Inc. To the best of Penn Treaty's knowledge, all Form 3, Form 4 and Form 5 reports were timely filed, except for the Form 4 reports for Mr. Clark, Mr. Grebe, Mr. Hindes, Mr. Kaplan, Mr. Levit and Mr. Stangherlin for transactions dated May 23, 2003, all of which were reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 13, 2004 on their respective Form 5 reports.

PROPOSAL II - RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC AUDITORS

The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, has selected the firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent public auditors of Penn Treaty for the year ending December 31, 2004. In taking this action, the members of the Board and the Audit Committee considered carefully PricewaterhouseCoopers' performance for the Company in that capacity since 1986, its independence with respect to the services to be performed and its general reputation for adherence to professional auditing standards. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of making a statement if he so desires and to respond to appropriate questions. If the shareholders do not approve this proposal, the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors will reconsider the matter of the appointment of independent public auditors.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for 2002 and 2003 and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for those fiscal years were approximately $844,071 and $670,460, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for audit-related services in 2002 and 2003 were $14,000 and $0, respectively. The services included the 2001 Employee Benefit Plan audit.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for tax services in 2002 and 2003 were $215,662 and $144,750, respectively. Such services included a premium tax review, Internal Revenue Code Section 382 assistance, tax compliance services, preparation of corporate tax returns and human resource consulting services.

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for additional professional services rendered during the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, other than for the services described above, were $56,255 and $0, respectively. Prior to engaging PricewaterhouseCoopers for these additional services, the Audit Committee considered whether the provision of these services was compatible with maintaining PricewaterhouseCoopers' independence. These additional services included an executive compensation review.

Audit Committee's Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

Prior to 2003, the Audit Committee was not required to pre-approve services to be provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers, but as a matter of course the Audit Committee generally pre-approved of such services subject to materiality and management discretion. The Governance Committee will approve all services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers prior to its rendering of such services. The Governance Committee may delegate its pre-approval authority to one or more of its members and has authorized the chairman of the Governance Committee, Alexander M. Clark, to pre-approve services to be rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers at a cost of $25,000 or less. Penn Treaty estimates that in 2002 and 2003, the Audit Committee pre-approved approximately 90% of the services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers as described above.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT PUBLIC AUDITORS FOR PENN TREATY AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2004.

Aggregated Option Exercises and Year-End Option Values

The following table sets forth the number of shares acquired on exercise of stock options and the aggregate gains realized on exercise of stock options in 2003 by the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. The table also sets forth the number of shares covered by exercisable and unexercisable options held by such executive officers on December 31, 2003 and the aggregate gains that would have been realized had these options been exercised on December 31, 2003, even though these options were not exercised, and the unexercisable options could not have been exercised, on December 31, 2003.

401(k) Plan

On August 1, 1996, Penn Treaty adopted a 401(k) retirement plan, covering substantially all employees with one year of service. Under the plan, participating employees may contribute up to 15% of their annual salary on a pre-tax basis, and Penn Treaty equally matches employee contributions up to the first 3% of the employee's salary. The Penn Treaty and employee portions of the plan vest immediately. Penn Treaty's expense in 2003 under the plan was $240,000. Penn Treaty may elect to make a discretionary contribution to the plan, which will be contributed proportionately to each eligible employee. Penn Treaty did not make a discretionary contribution in 2003.

Incentive Stock Option Plans

The shareholders of Penn Treaty adopted an Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") in March 1987. The Plan, as amended by shareholder action on May 25, 1990, May 28, 1993, and May 23, 1997, provided for the granting of options to purchase up to 1,200,000 shares of our common stock. The Plan was replaced by the 1998 Employee Non-Qualified Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "1998 Plan") and all options under the Plan were forfeited and replaced under the 1998 Plan in 2001. No new options may be granted under the Plan. The shareholders of Penn Treaty adopted the 2002 Employee Incentive Stock Option Plan in May 2002 (the "2002 Plan"). The 2002 Plan does not replace the 1998 Plan, which continues in effect.

The 2002 Plan authorizes Penn Treaty to grant "incentive stock options" under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, and non-qualified stock options, covering up to an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of our common stock. The purpose of the 2002 Plan is to enable Penn Treaty to offer officers, directors and employees of Penn Treaty and its subsidiaries options to acquire equity interests in Penn Treaty, thereby attracting, retaining and rewarding such persons, and strengthening the mutuality of interests between such persons and our shareholders. The maximum allowable term of each option granted under the 2002 Plan is ten years (five years in the case of holders of more than 10% of the combined voting power of all classes of outstanding stock), and the options become exercisable one year from the option grant date.

As of April 22, 2004, 757,542 stock options under the 2002 Plan have been granted and are outstanding with exercise prices ranging from $1.52 to $4.40. No stock options under the 2002 Plan have been canceled and no stock options have been exercised. Under the 1998 plan, 590,363 options are outstanding with exercise prices ranging from $3.40 to $19.25.

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Agent Stock Option Plan

In October 1994, the Board of Directors of Penn Treaty authorized a stock option plan for its agents (the "Agent Plan"). The Agent Plan, adopted by the Board of Directors in May 1995, provides for the grant of options to purchase up to 300,000 shares of common stock and is designed to reward Penn Treaty's agents by providing for the grant of options to purchase common stock to agents who attain certain sales objectives determined by the Board of Directors. The exercise price of all options granted under the Agent Plan may not be less than the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant. The maximum allowable term of each option is ten years, and the options become exercisable in four equal annual installments commencing one year from the option grant date. Under the Agent Plan, stock options have been granted and are outstanding to date with respect to 47,900 shares. Exercise prices of these options range from $12.63 to $32.25 per share. No options were granted under the Agent Plan during 2001, 2002 or 2003.

Change in Control, Employment and Consulting Agreements

Penn Treaty has entered into Change in Control Agreements with each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. Under these agreements, if Penn Treaty merges into another entity or ownership of the voting control of Penn Treaty otherwise changes and, as a result of such change in control, any of the named executive officers are terminated or their positions or work locations are materially changed at any time during the three-year period after the change in control, they will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of their base salary through the end of the three-year period and they shall be entitled to continue to receive certain other insurance and retirement benefits for the remainder of the three-year period.

The Company and William W. Hunt, Jr. entered into an Employment Agreement on June 1, 2001 under which it was agreed that Mr. Hunt will serve in an executive capacity for the Company on an at-will basis for an unspecified term. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Hunt's salary is determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors and Mr. Hunt is eligible to participate in the various employee benefit plans that cover Penn Treaty's salaried employees and executives, including insurance benefits, stock option grants, and bonus programs. The Agreement provided for an initial grant to Mr. Hunt of 30,000 stock options at an exercise price of $3.40 with 10,000 options vesting on the initial grant date and the remaining options vesting on July 31, 2002. If Penn Treaty terminates the Agreement for a reason other than cause, or if Mr. Hunt terminates the Agreement for good reason as defined in the Agreement, Penn Treaty shall pay Mr. Hunt a severance payment in an amount equal to twelve months of Mr. Hunt's most current base salary rate.

On April 28, 2003, the Company executed a Consulting Agreement with its former Chief Executive Officer, Irving Levit. Mr. Levit's Consulting Agreement provides that he is to serve as the Founding Chairman of the Company for up to two years. Under the terms of the Consulting Agreement, beginning on May 24, 2003 and continuing until the end of the consulting arrangement, Mr. Levit will provide certain services to the Company, in exchange for which the Company will pay him an annual retainer of $100,000 and provide him with other standard Company benefits. Additionally, the Company has agreed to pay Mr. Levit or his spouse, beginning on May 23, 2003 and continuing until the later of Mr. Levit's death or the death of his spouse, a retirement benefit of $100,000 per year. If Penn Treaty merges into another entity or ownership of the voting control of Penn Treaty otherwise changes, the consulting arrangement between Penn Treaty and Mr. Levit will terminate automatically. Upon such termination, Mr. Levit will receive what he would have received under his Change of Control Agreement if he had been employed by Penn Treaty at the time of a change of control with a base salary equal to the amount of his annual retainer under the Consulting Agreement. Penn Treaty also will make a single lump sum payment to Mr. Levit equal to the actuarial present value of the remaining retirement annual payments. Penn Treaty has also agreed to provide Mr. Levit with health and welfare benefits comparable to those the Company offers to its executives from time to time until the later of Mr. Levit's death or the death of his spouse.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors during 2003 were Mr. Clark, Mr. Grebe, Mr. Hindes, Mr. Kaplan and Mr. Stangherlin, who are non-employee directors. Mr. Ross joined the Compensation Committee in December 2003.

Edgar Filing: PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Until February 2004, Francis R. Grebe was a partner at the investment counseling firm of Davidson Investment Counselors, an affiliate of Davidson Capital Management. Davidson Capital Management manages a portion of our investment portfolio, for which it received fees of $20,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Mr. Grebe was not directly involved with any of Penn Treaty's investment matters. Mr. Grebe serves as a financial advisor to Irving Levit on some of Mr. Levit's personal matters for which he is compensated by Mr. Levit.

Alexander M. Clark is a Managing Director with Advest, Inc. Advest, Inc. has engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings in the ordinary course of business with Penn Treaty. Advest, Inc. has received and will receive customary fees for these transactions. In 2003, Advest, Inc. received fees of $581,000 for financial advisory services provided to Penn Treaty in connection with the sale of convertible subordinated notes.

Audit Committee Report

With respect to the audited financial statements of Penn Treaty and its subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2003, the Audit Committee:

- o has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management of Penn Treaty;
- o has discussed with Penn Treaty's independent auditors matters such as the quality (in addition to acceptability), clarity, consistency and completeness of Penn Treaty's financial reporting, as required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committee; and
- o has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors concerning the independent auditors' independence from Penn Treaty, as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with Penn Treaty's independent auditors the independent auditors' independence.

Based on the review and discussions described above, the Audit Committee has recommended the inclusion by the Board of Directors of the audited financial statements in Penn Treaty's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the SEC.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Securities and Exchange Commission promulgated rules requiring public companies to disclose whether they have an audit committee financial expert. These rules are effective for Penn Treaty, and Gary E. Hinds has been determined by the Board to be independent under the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and to qualify as the Audit Committee Financial Expert.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Penn Treaty's Executive Compensation Program is administered by the Compensation Committee (the "Committee"), a committee of the Board of Directors consisting of independent non-employee directors. The primary functions of the Committee are to review and evaluate the performance and leadership of the Chief Executive Officer and all other executive officers and to recommend compensation amounts to the Board of Directors. In 2002, the Committee compared all executive compensation with industry and regional executive compensation levels and determined that Penn Treaty's compensation levels compare conservatively to those of comparable companies and, as a result, the Committee increased certain executive salary levels to the 25th percentile of comparable industry data provided by an independent consultant. The Board of Directors accepted and adopted all of the Committee's recommendations concerning executive compensation amounts during 2003.

The Committee seeks to:

- o provide compensation that is closely linked to Company and individual performance;
- o align the interests of Penn Treaty's executives with those of its shareholders through award opportunities that can result in ownership of common stock; and
- o ensure that compensation is sufficiently competitive to attract and retain high quality executive talent.

Consistent with these objectives, the Committee employs a system of quantitative measures and qualitative assessments in evaluating and measuring executive officer performance. Quantitative measures include earnings performance, return on assets and growth of revenues. Qualitative assessments include the quality and measured progress of the operations of Penn Treaty and the success of strategic actions taken.

In addition to company-wide measures of performance, the Committee considers performance factors particular to each executive officer, such as the performance of the departments for which such officer had management responsibility, individual managerial accomplishments and contribution to the achievement of corporate goals.

CEO Compensation

In accordance with the Committee's general practice and Penn Treaty's compensation policies, Mr. Levit and Mr. Hunt's compensation during the 2003 fiscal year were based principally upon Penn Treaty's performance and Mr. Levit and Mr. Hunt's contribution to that performance. Mr. Levit and Mr. Hunt's salaries were determined in the Committee's sole discretion after its consideration of competitive data, the Board's assessment and recognition of Mr. Levit and Mr. Hunt's performance during the respective portions of 2003 for which they each served as Chief Executive Officer.
