COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

There are no compensation committee interlocks between the members of our Compensation Committee and any other entity. Jack L. Peckham and Thomas J. Cooper are the members of the Compensation Committee. Neither of the current members of the Compensation Committee is an officer or employee of ours, nor of any of our subsidiaries. Mr. Cooper served as our Chief Executive Officer from June to December, 2002.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee sets compensation policy and administers Rim Semiconductor's cash and equity incentive programs for the purpose of attracting and retaining skilled executives who will promote Rim Semiconductor's business goals and build shareholder value. The Committee is also responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding all forms of compensation to be provided to the Company's named executive officers, including stock compensation and bonuses.

The policy of the Compensation Committee is to attract and retain key personnel through the payment of competitive base salaries and to encourage and reward performance through bonuses and stock ownership. The Committee's objectives are to ensure that:

- o there is an appropriate relationship between executive compensation and the creation of shareholder value;
- o the total compensation program will motivate, retain and attract quality executives; and
- o current cash and equity incentives are competitive with comparable companies.

ELEMENTS OF COMPENSATION

Compensation for officers and key executives includes:

- o Annual cash compensation in the form of base salary;
- o Discretionary or contractual bonuses;
- o Equity elements through the issuance of stock and stock options; and
- o Employee benefits, such as health insurance.

SALARY AND BONUS

Cash compensation consists of base salary, which is determined based upon the level of responsibility, expertise and experience of the executive and the competitive conditions of the industry.

EQUITY ELEMENTS

Ownership of Rim Semiconductor's common stock is a key element of executive compensation. The Committee believes that a significant portion of executive compensation should be dependent upon the value created for the shareholders. Officers and other employees of Rim Semiconductor are eligible to participate in the Company's 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan and the 2001 Stock Incentive Plan. These plans allow the Board or the Committee to grant stock options to employees on such terms as the Board or the Committee may determine. In addition, employees may be granted stock awards or stock options outside of these plans.

BENEFITS

Executive officers also receive benefits generally available to all employees of the Company (such as health insurance). Our executive officers receive only the benefits that are available to all of Rim Semiconductor's employees.

2005 COMPENSATION FOR THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

During the 2005 fiscal year, the Company's Chief Executive Officer was Brad Ketch, a position he has held since 2002. On December 2, 2002, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Ketch. Mr. Ketch receives a base salary of $250,000, with an annual bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of Directors in either cash or stock. During fiscal 2005, Mr. Ketch received a $70,000 bonus. He also was issued 1,000,000 shares of our common stock (valued at $170,000 when granted) in exchange for the cancellation of 1,955,000 options that had previously been issued to him. Finally, Mr. Ketch received options to purchase 7,000,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.17 per

Edgar Filing: Rim Semiconductor CO - Form 10KSB/A

Of these options, 1,000,000 vested upon the closing of the Company's $3.5 million financing in May 2005 and the remainder vested in December 2005 upon the Company's release of the Embarq™ E30 digital signal processor (Release 1.3). These options were canceled by agreement effective January 1, 2006.
