2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Edgar Filing: FOCUS AFFILIATES INC - Form 10QSB

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Because a precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events the preparation of financial statements for a period necessarily involves the use of estimates which have been made using careful judgement.

The financial statements have, in management's opinion, been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality within the framework of the accounting policies summarized below :

(a) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, cash accounts, interest bearing saving accounts and time certificates of deposit with a maturity of three months or less when purchased.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under Statement 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under Statement 109, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. There were no current or deferred income tax expense or benefits due to Focus Affiliates not having any material operations for the period ended December 31, 2007.

(d) Loss Per Common Share

Edgar Filing: FOCUS AFFILIATES INC - Form 10QSB

Basic loss per common share has been calculated based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period after giving retroactive effect to stock splits. There are no dilutive securities at December 31, 2007 for purpose of computing fully diluted earnings per share.

(e) Impact Of New Accounting Standards

The Company does not expect the adoption of recently issued accounting pronouncements to have a significant impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flow.

(f) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company uses the current method of foreign currency translation. The Company's reporting currency is the US dollar. Assets and liabilities recorded in functional currencies other than US dollars are translated in US dollars at the year-end rate of exchange. Revenue and expenses are translated at the weighted-average exchange rates for the year. The resulting translation adjustments are charged as an expense. Gains or losses from foreign currency transactions are included in the earnings of the current period.
