PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
MAY 26, 2004

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed Proxy are first being sent or given to shareholders of Penn National Gaming, Inc. (the "Company") on or about April 21, 2004, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held on Wednesday, May 26, 2004 at 9:00 a.m., local time, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Four Seasons Hotel, 57 East 57th Street, New York, NY 10022. This solicitation is being made on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Record Date and Shares Outstanding

The Board of Directors has set the close of business on April 2, 2004 as the record date ("Record Date") for the determination of shareholders of the Company entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, 39,989,950 shares of the Company's Common Stock were issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its use by delivering to the Secretary of the Company written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Voting and Solicitation

The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes, which all shareholders are entitled to cast, is necessary for a quorum to be present at the Annual Meeting. Each share of the Company's Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the Annual Meeting.

The shares represented by all valid proxies received by phone, by Internet or by mail, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions contained therein, and if no choice is specified, will be voted for each of the nominees for director set forth in this Proxy Statement and in favor of the ratification of BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent public accountant for the year ending December 31, 2004, which is set forth in the notice of meeting. Assuming a quorum is present, (a) the two nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote for directors will be elected to serve on the Company's Board of Directors; and (b) the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for the ratification of BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2004. The Board knows of no other matters that are likely to be brought before the meeting other than the matters specifically referred to in the notice of the meeting. If any other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy or their duly appointed substitutes acting at the meeting will be authorized to vote or otherwise act with their judgment on those matters. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast, only those cast "for" or "against" are counted. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered "cast" but are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting. Under Pennsylvania law, a quorum is required to conduct business at the Annual Meeting.

It is expected that the solicitation of proxies will be conducted primarily by mail. Proxies also may be solicited personally or by telephone, telegraph, teletype or via the internet. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Proxies also may be solicited by certain directors, officers and employees of the Company, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, telegram, teletype or via the internet.

GOVERNANCE OF THE COMPANY

The Company's Board of Directors believes that the purpose of corporate governance is to ensure that shareholder value is maximized in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. The Board adheres to corporate governance practices which the Board and senior management believe promote this purpose and are sound. The Company continually reviews these governance practices, Pennsylvania law (the state in which the Company is incorporated), the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "Marketplace Rules"), and U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of six (6) members: Peter M. Carlino, Harold Cramer, David A. Handler, John M. Jacquemin, Robert P. Levy and Barbara Z. Shattuck. On January 29, 2004, the Board, as authorized by the Company's By-Laws, elected Barbara Z. Shattuck to fill the vacancy resulting from William J. Bork's resignation from the Board effective May 31, 2002. Ms. Shattuck is a Class II director whose term expires at the 2004 Annual Meeting. The Board has determined that all of the directors, other than Mr. Carlino, are independent under the current Marketplace Rules.

The Board of Directors held nine meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. Except for Ms. Shattuck, who was elected to the Board in January 2004, each of the Company's directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of all meetings of the Board during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. In addition, each of the Company's directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of all meetings of all committees of the Board of which he or she was a member held during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

The Company has four standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Compliance Committee and the Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee. John M. Jacquemin (Chairman), Harold Cramer and Robert P. Levy are the members of the Audit Committee. The Board has determined that Messrs. Jacquemin, Cramer and Levy are independent for the purposes of the current Marketplace Rules and for the purposes of the SEC regulations. The Board has determined that Mr. Jacquemin, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, meets the SEC criteria of a "financial expert" and is "financially sophisticated" for the purposes of Marketplace Rules. Because of his position as one of five trustees for the Carlino Family

Trust, a revocable trust (see "Security Ownership of Principal Shareholders and Management" beginning on page 10 of this Proxy Statement), Harold Cramer falls outside the SEC safe harbor providing that a person will not be deemed an affiliate for purposes of determining audit committee member independence if he or she beneficially owns 10% or less of an issuer's voting stock. Mr. Cramer's voting and investment power in connection with the shares of the Company's common stock held by the Carlino Family Trust power is restricted to limited matters and is shared with the other trustees. Peter M. Carlino has the sole power to vote the shares held by the Carlino Family Trust, except in the case of a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, a merger where the Company will not be the surviving entity or a liquidation where the manner in which the trust's shares are voted is determined by a vote of all five trustees. As a result of Mr. Cramer's limited voting and investment power, the Board has determined that Mr. Cramer is independent for the purpose of the SEC regulations and the Marketplace Rules.

The principal functions of the Audit Committee are to serve as an independent and objective party to monitor the integrity of the Company's financial reporting process and internal control system; appoint, compensate and retain the independent auditor; oversee, review and appraise the audit efforts of the Company's independent accountants; and maintain free and open communication with and among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, and the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors that complies with the current Marketplace Rules. A copy of the written charter is included as Appendix A to the this Proxy Statement. The Audit Committee met twelve times in 2003.

Compensation Committee. Harold Cramer (Chairman), David A. Handler and Barbara Z. Shattuck are members of the Compensation Committee. Ms. Shattuck was appointed to Compensation Committee on January 29, 2004. The Board has determined that Messrs. Cramer and Handler and Ms. Shattuck are independent for the purposes of the Marketplace Rules. The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to evaluate the annual performance of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and other executive officers and set their annual compensation; review the Company's executive compensation programs; assess the Company's management succession planning; recommend the structure and amount of compensation for non-employee directors; review and approve management recommendations regarding option grants to employees other than executive officers; and administer and interpret the Company's Amended and Restated 1994 Stock Option Plan, as amended, or 1994 Stock Option Plan, and 2003 Long Term Incentive Compensation Plan, or 2003 Equity Compensation Plan. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors and met four times in 2003.

Compliance Committee. The Compliance Committee has three members. David A. Handler and John M. Jacquemin are the current Board members of the Compliance Committee. Steve Ducharme, a consultant to the Company, is the Chairman of the Compliance Committee. The Compliance Committee was established to ensure, through self-regulatory procedures, compliance with applicable laws relating to the Company's gaming and racing businesses and to prevent, to the fullest extent possible, any involvement by the Company in any activities that would pose a threat to the reputation and integrity of the Company's gaming and racing operations. The Compliance Committee met eleven times in 2003.

Nominating Committee. Harold Cramer (Chairman), David A. Handler and Barbara Z. Shattuck are the members of the Nominating Committee. The Board has determined that Messrs. Cramer and Handler and Ms. Shattuck are independent under the Marketplace Rules. The Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and recommending, for the Board's selection, nominees for election to the Board and advising the Board with respect to Board structure, composition and size of the Board and its committees. The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors that complies with the current Marketplace Rules. A copy of the written charter is included as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement. The Nominating Committee was formed in January 2004 and, therefore, did not meet during the last fiscal year.

The Nominating Committee considers candidates for Board membership suggested by its members, other Board members and management. The Nominating Committee has authority to retain a search firm to assist in the identification of director candidates. In selecting nominees for director, the Nominating Committee considers a number of factors, including, but not limited to:

whether a candidate has demonstrated business and industry experience that is relevant to the Company, including recent experience at the senior management level (preferably as chief executive officer or in a similar position) of a company as large or larger than the Company;

the candidate's ability to meet the suitability requirements of all relevant regulatory agencies;

the candidate's ability to represent interests of the shareholders;

the candidate's independence from management and freedom from potential conflicts of interest with the Company;

the candidate's financial literacy, including whether the candidate will meet the audit committee membership standards set forth in the Marketplace Rules;

whether a candidate is widely recognized for his or her reputation, integrity, judgment, skill, leadership ability, honesty and moral values;

the candidate's ability to work constructively with the Company's management and other directors; and the candidate's availability, including the number of other boards on which the candidate serves, and his or her ability to dedicate sufficient time and energy to his or her board duties.

During the process of considering a potential nominee, the Committee may request additional information about, or an interview with, the potential nominee.

The Nominating Committee will also consider recommendations by shareholders of nominees for director to be elected at the Company's 2005 annual meeting of shareholders if they are received on or before December 22, 2004. In evaluating nominations received from shareholders, the Committee will apply the criteria and follow the process described above. Shareholders wishing to recommend a nominee for director should submit such nomination in writing, along with any other supporting materials the shareholder deems appropriate, to the Secretary of the Company.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays director's fees to each director who is not an employee of the Company. During the year ending December 31, 2003, each outside director received an annual fee of $18,000, plus $1,500 for each Board meeting attended in person and reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses in connection with their attendance at such meetings. In addition, in 2003, the Compensation Committee approved a grant to each non-employee director of options to purchase 30,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. Upon joining the Board, Ms. Shattuck received a grant of options to purchase 30,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. The exercise price of the options granted to non-employee directors is equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the grant. Effective August 2003, each member of the Audit Committee receives $1,000 for each audit committee meeting in which they participate.

Shareholder Access Policy

Shareholders who wish to communicate with directors should do so by writing to the Secretary, Penn National Gaming, Inc., P.O. Box 7054, Wyomissing, PA 19610. The Secretary of the Company reviews all such correspondence and regularly forwards to the Board a summary of all such correspondence and copies of all correspondence that, in the opinion of the Secretary, deals with the functions of the Board or committees thereof or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by the Company that is addressed to members of the Board and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters will be brought to the attention of the Company's Audit Committee.

Director Attendance at Annual Meetings

The Company encourages all of its directors to attend the Company's annual meeting of shareholders. Last year, all of the individuals then serving as directors of the Company attended the Company's 2003 annual meeting of shareholders.

Employee Code of Conduct

The Company has a Code of Conduct, which is applicable to all employees of the Company, including the Company's principal executive officer, the principal financial officer and the principal accounting officer. The Code of Conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and promote ethical conduct, full and accurate reporting in the Company's SEC filings, compliance with applicable law, as well as other matters. A copy of the Code of Conduct has been filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. The Corporate Director of Regulatory Affairs has been named the Chief Compliance Officer under the Company's Code of Conduct. Compliance personnel at the Company's properties report to the Corporate Director of Regulatory Affairs.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF CLASS II DIRECTORSInformation about Nominees and Other Directors

The Company's Board of Directors consists of six (6) members: Peter M. Carlino, Harold Cramer, David A. Handler, John M. Jacquemin, Robert P. Levy and Barbara Z. Shattuck. On January 29, 2004, the Board, as authorized by the Company's By-Laws, elected Barbara Z. Shattuck to fill the vacancy resulting from William J. Bork's resignation from the Board effective May 31, 2002. Ms. Shattuck is a Class II director whose term will expire at the 2004 Annual Meeting. PROPOSAL 2: RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, which is composed entirely of non-employee directors who are independent under the current Marketplace Rules, has appointed BDO Seidman, LLP as certified public accountants to audit the books, records and accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2004. This appointment is being presented to the shareholders for ratification.

BDO Seidman audited the books, records and accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries for the years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003. BDO Seidman has advised the Audit Committee that it has no direct or material indirect interest in the company or its affiliates.

The Audit Committee's Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy provides for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services performed by the Company's independent auditor. Under the policy, the Audit Committee may pre-approve specific services, including fee levels, by the independent auditor in a designated category (audit, audit-related, tax services and all other services). The Audit Committee may delegate, in writing, this authority to one or more of its members, provided that the member or members to whom such authority is delegated must report their decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. Option Grant to the Company's Chairman

On February 6, 2003, the Compensation Committee granted Peter M. Carlino a stock option to purchase 47,500 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $15.90 per share, which was the closing price of the Company's common stock on the day before the option was granted. This stock option, which was granted prior to the adoption of the Company's 2003 Equity Compensation Plan, was not granted under the 1994 Stock Option Plan because sufficient shares did not remain available for grant under such plan. The stock option vests 25% on each of February 6 of 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 and expires on February 6, 2013. The terms of the stock option may only be amended by a written agreement between Peter M. Carlino and the Company that is approved by Compensation Committee.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock as of April 2, 2004, by each person known to the Company to own beneficially more than five percent of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, each director, the chief executive officer and each of the four other most highly compensated executive officers of the Company and all of the executive officers and directors of the Company as a group. The persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of Common Stock shown as beneficially owned by them except as otherwise shown in the footnotes to the table. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to the table, the address of each such person is c/o the Company, 825 Berkshire Boulevard, Suite 200, Wyomissing, Pennsylvania 19610.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Shares of Common Stock subject to options currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 2, 2004, are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage beneficially owned by such holder, but are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage beneficially owned by any other person. Except as otherwise indicated, the Company believes that the beneficial owners of the Common Stock listed below, based on information furnished by such owners, have sole investment and voting power with respect to such shares, subject to community property laws where applicable, and that there are no other affiliations among the shareholders listed in the table. The percentage for each beneficial owner is calculated based on (i) the aggregate number of shares reported to be owned by such group or individual and (ii) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock outstanding as of April 2, 2004 (39,989,950 shares).

Employment Agreements

On April 12, 1994, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Peter M. Carlino, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer that was amended on June 1, 1999. The agreement is from year to year and may be terminated at the election of the Company, if Mr. Carlino becomes disabled, loses certain regulatory licensure, is convicted of a felony and upon a material breach of the agreement not cured within 30 days of written notice of breach. The agreement sets a minimum base salary, subject to adjustment, and provides for additional compensation and bonuses as may be awarded from time to time by the Board of Directors. For 2003, Mr. Carlino earned an annual salary of $785,016. The agreement also prohibits Mr. Carlino from competing with the Company during its term and for one year thereafter, prohibits the disclosure of confidential information of the Company and requires a death benefit payment by the Company based on Mr. Carlino's annual salary in effect at the time of his death.

On February 15, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Kevin DeSanctis, its President and Chief Operating Officer. The agreement expired on February 14, 2003 and has been extended by agreement among the parties pending completion of a new employment agreement. The agreement sets a minimum base salary, subject to adjustment. For 2003, Mr. DeSanctis earned an annual salary of $695,865. Pursuant to the agreement, while employed by the Company and for two years thereafter, Mr. DeSanctis agreed not to reveal the confidential information of the Company or solicit the services of any employee of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliated companies.

On July 30, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement with William J. Clifford, its Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President, Finance. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary, subject to adjustment, and the payment of bonuses based on Mr. Clifford's and the Company's performance. Mr. Clifford earned a salary of $343,558 in 2003. The initial term of the agreement was from July 30, 2001 to July 30, 2003 and automatically renewed for a one-year period. If the Company, without cause, elects not to continue the agreement beyond its term or elects not to offer an "at will" employment relationship to Mr. Clifford, Mr. Clifford is entitled to receive a severance allowance equal to the full amount of Mr. Clifford's annual base salary and six months' health insurance benefits. The agreement may be terminated by the Company for "Cause" (as defined in the agreement), for performance-related reasons or because of death or total disability. Mr. Clifford is subject to a non-solicitation provision during the term of his employment agreement and for one year after he ceases to be an employee of the Company. The agreement prohibits Mr. Clifford from competing with the Company during its term and for any period thereafter for which Mr. Clifford is receiving severance payments from the Company. The agreement prohibits disclosure of trade secrets of the Company.

On June 10, 2003, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Leonard DeAngelo, its Executive Vice President of Operations. The agreement is for a three-year term after which Mr. DeAngelo shall be an "at-will" employee unless the agreement is renewed. The agreement set an initial base salary of $450,000, subject to adjustment. Mr. DeAngelo received a cash bonus of $150,000 upon the commencement of his employment and is eligible for an annual cash bonus. Mr. DeAngelo also received equity compensation of 150,000 options to purchase common stock of the Company, which vest at a rate of 25% per year over four years. If Mr. DeAngelo's employment is terminated without "Cause" (as defined in the agreement), he will receive the product of his monthly base salary multiplied by the greater of twelve months or the number of months remaining in the initial term of the agreement. In the event of Mr. DeAngelo's death or total disability, he shall be entitled to a cash payment equal to the product of 175% of his monthly base salary multiplied by the number of months in the severance term. Whether terminated without Cause or as a result of total disability, Mr. DeAngelo will continue to receive health benefits coverage during the severance term. In the event that a Change of Control (as defined in the agreement) occurs, Mr. DeAngelo will be entitled to the payments and/or benefits that may become payable on substantially the same terms and conditions as any payments and/or benefits provided to his peer executives, taking into account his position and performance. Mr. DeAngelo is prohibited from disclosing confidential information. Mr. DeAngelo is subject to a non-competition provision during the term of his employment and, after the termination of his employment, for the remainder of the term of his employment agreement. In addition, Mr. DeAngelo is subject to a non-solicitation provision during his employment and, after the termination of his employment, for a period equal to the greater of the remainder of the term of his employment agreement or one year.

On September 3, 2002, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Jordan Savitch, its Senior Vice President and General Counsel. The agreement is for a two-year term and shall automatically renew for successive one-year terms. The agreement set an initial base salary of $275,000, subject to adjustment, and provides that Mr. Savitch is eligible for an annual cash bonus, provided that the maximum bonus percentage may, in the discretion of the Board, be limited to 50% of Mr. Savitch's base salary, as well as additional bonuses as may be awarded from time to time by the Board of Directors. Mr. Savitch also received an initial grant of 115,000 options to purchase common stock of the Company, which vest quarterly over four years, and is entitled to receive subsequent equity compensation grants on substantially the same terms and conditions as grants provided to his peer executives, taking into account his position and performance. If Mr. Savitch's employment is terminated for "Cause" or if he terminates for "Good Reason" (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Savitch shall receive one year of full salary and benefits. In the event that a change of control of the Company occurs, Mr. Savitch will be entitled to the payments and/or benefits that may become payable on substantially the same terms and conditions as any payments and/or benefits provided to his peer executives, taking into account his position and performance. Mr. Savitch is prohibited from disclosing confidential information and is subject to a non-competition and non-solicitation provisions for a period of one year following the termination of his employment.

Certain Transactions

In August 1994, the Company signed a consulting agreement with Peter D. Carlino, former Chairman of the Company. Pursuant to the consulting agreement, as amended, Peter D. Carlino receives an annual fee of $135,000. Peter D. Carlino is the father of Peter M. Carlino, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The Company paid premiums on life insurance policies (the "Policies") on behalf of certain irrevocable trusts (the "Trusts") created by the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). The policies cover the CEO's life and that of his spouse. The Trusts are the owners and beneficiaries of the policies and are obligated to reimburse the Company for all premiums paid when the insurance matures or upon death. As of December 31, 2003, the Company has recorded receivables from such trusts in the amount of $1,670,000. The Company paid premiums of $238,000, $227,000 and $249,000 in 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

The Company currently leases 11,045 square feet of office space in two office buildings in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania for our executive offices. The office buildings are owned by an affiliate of Peter M. Carlino, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. These leases expire in March 2005 and June 2012. In 2003, payments totaling $326,000 were made in connection with the leases. The Company believes that the lease terms are not less favorable than lease terms that could have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party.

During 2003, Bear Stearns and Co., Inc. performed certain financial advisory and investment banking services for the Company. David A. Handler, a director of the Company, is a Senior Managing Director of Bear Stearns and Co., Inc. The Company anticipates that Bear Stearns and Co. will continue to be retained to perform services in 2004. The services performed during 2003 were provided to the Company on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties, and Bear Stearns and Co.'s compensation in connection with such services did not exceed five percent (5%) of Bear Stearns and Co.'s consolidated gross revenues for its last full fiscal year.

Prior to March 6, 2003, the Company leased an aircraft from a company owned by Mr. Jacquemin, an outside director of the Company. The lease provided for monthly payments of $27,775. The Company believes that the lease terms were not less favorable than lease terms that could have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party. On March 6, 2003, this lease was refinanced and a new lease was entered into between the Company and General Electric Capital Corporation.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The current members of the Company's Compensation Committee are Messrs. Cramer and Handler and Ms. Shattuck. No executive officer of the Company has served as a director or member of the compensation committee (or other committee serving an equivalent function) of any other entity whose executive officers served as a director or member of the Compensation Committee of the Company.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the following reports of the Compensation Committee and the Audit Committee and the performance graph on page 20 shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's executive officer compensation program is administered and reviewed by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee currently consists of three non-employee directors of the Company who are independent under the current Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

Policies and Mission

The Compensation Committee has determined that compensation of executive officers should include a mixture of short and long range compensation plans that attract, motivate and retain competent executive personnel and encourage increases in the Company's productivity and profitability. As such, the Company's policy is that executive compensation should be directly and materially related to the short-term and long-term operating performance and objectives of the Company. To achieve these ends, executive compensation, including base salary, bonus and stock option grants, is to a significant extent dependent upon the Company's financial performance and the return on its Common Stock. However, to ensure that the Company is strategically and competitively positioned for the future, the Compensation Committee also attributes significant weight to other factors in determining executive compensation, such as maintaining competitiveness, implementing capital improvements, expanding markets and achieving other long-range business and operating objectives. Key factors considered by the Compensation Committee during the year 2003 were: achieving budgeted operating results, the integration of the Hollywood Casino Corporation properties, achieving year over year earnings growth that exceeded budgeted expectations, the continued development of the organization of the Company, the continued expansion and strong operating results of the properties, and the Company's efforts to mitigate the ramifications of the tax increase imposed by the state of Illinois at Hollywood Casino Aurora.

Compensation Program

To determine appropriate levels of executive compensation, the Compensation Committee periodically reviews the executive compensation programs and policies of the Company's competitors, in addition to a broader group of companies in its marketplace, to ensure that the Company's plans and practices are competitive and appropriately based on the Company's performance and compensation philosophy. The key components of the Company's compensation program are base salary, equity participation in the form of stock options and annual incentive bonus awards.

Base Salary. The Compensation Committee seeks to structure executive base salaries competitive with those of similarly situated companies and reviews each executive officer's salary on an annual basis. The base salaries for Peter M. Carlino and the other executive officers are set by employment agreements and adjusted by the Compensation Committee. In setting and adjusting base salary levels for individual executives, the Compensation Committee considers factors such as the executive's scope of responsibility, the executive's performance, the performance of the Company, future potential and overall competitive positioning relative to comparable positions at other companies. In making salary decisions, the Compensation Committee exercises subjective judgment using no specific weights for the previously discussed factors.

Stock Options. Stock options are granted under the provisions of the Company's 1994 Stock Option Plan or 2003 Equity Compensation Plan. Stock options are granted to reinforce the importance of improving shareholder value over the long-term and to encourage and facilitate executive stock ownership. Stock options are granted at not less than 100% of the fair market value of the stock to ensure that executives can be rewarded only for appreciation in the price of the Common Stock where the Company's shareholders are similarly benefited. The Compensation Committee determines and designates the executive officers who receive stock options. In making grants to executive officers, the Compensation Committee establishes levels of participation for the stock option program based upon each executive officer's position in the Company, performance, tenure and future potential, without giving particular weight to one factor.

Annual Bonus. The Compensation Committee awarded bonuses to the executive officers and certain other officers. The bonuses were based upon the executives' and the Company's accomplishments during 2003, including achieving budgeted operating results, the integration of the Hollywood Casino Corporation properties, achieving year over year earnings growth that exceeded budgeted expectations, the continued development of the organization of the Company, the continued expansion and strong operating results of the properties, and the Company's efforts to mitigate the ramifications of the tax increase imposed by the state of Illinois at Hollywood Casino Aurora.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The compensation of Peter M. Carlino, the Chief Executive Officer, is made up of base salary, bonus and stock options. Mr. Carlino received a salary of $785,016 and a bonus of $800,000 in 2003. In addition, in 2003, Mr. Carlino was granted options to purchase 150,000 shares of Common Stock. Mr. Carlino's current base salary and his total compensation opportunity are each in line with those of CEOs of comparable companies.

In establishing Mr. Carlino's compensation package, the Compensation Committee assessed the Company's and Mr. Carlino's performance in 2003. The Compensation Committee considered Mr. Carlino's demonstrated management skills, his expertise in the gaming and racing industries, his success in implementing the Company's strategic plans and his development of the organization of the Company. The Compensation Committee also considered the Company's accomplishments during 2003, including achieving budgeted operating results, the integration of the Hollywood Casino Corporation properties, achieving year over year earnings growth that exceeded budgeted expectations, the continued development of the organization of the Company, the continued expansion and strong operating results of the properties, and the Company's efforts to mitigate the ramifications of the tax increase imposed by the state of Illinois at Hollywood Casino Aurora.

Mr. Carlino received a bonus for 2003 based upon his role in the Company's numerous achievements during 2003, including achieving budgeted operating results, the integration of the Hollywood Casino Corporation properties, achieving year over year earnings growth that exceeded budgeted expectations, the continued development of the organization of the Company, the continued expansion and strong operating results of the properties, and the Company's efforts to mitigate the ramifications of the tax increase imposed by the state of Illinois at Hollywood Casino Aurora. The stock options awarded to Mr. Carlino reflect the total shareholder return achieved through the date of grant and were intended to link Mr. Carlino's future compensation opportunity to the creation of additional shareholder value.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors consists of John M. Jacquemin (Chairman), Harold Cramer and Robert P. Levy, all of whom are independent directors under the current Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors that complies with the rules adopted by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and the SEC. A copy of the written charter is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws and regulations. The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, compensating, retaining and overseeing the Company's independent public accountants. The Company's independent public accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

The Audit Committee members are not professional accountants, and their functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent auditor, nor can the Audit Committee certify that the independent auditor is "independent" under applicable rules. The Audit Committee serves a board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the auditors on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with management and the auditors and the experience of the Audit Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

In this context, in 2003, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

The Company's independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants the firm's independence.

The Board of Directors does not know of any other business that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise permit, only the business set forth and discussed in the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement may be acted on at the Annual Meeting. If any other business does properly come before the Annual Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof, the proxy holders will vote in regard thereto according to their discretion.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers and directors and persons who own more than ten percent (10%) of the Company's Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's Common Stock and any other equity securities of the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
