Item 5.02

Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On January 27, 2014, Rare Element Resources, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Rare Element Resources Ltd. (the Company), entered into (i) a Change in Control Agreement (the COC Agreement) with Paul H. Zink, the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective as of December 12, 2013 as referenced in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 13, 2013, and (ii) a Severance Compensation Agreement (the Severance Agreement, and together with the COC Agreement, the Agreements) with Kelli C. Kast-Brown, the Vice President, General Counsel and Chief Administrative Officer (together with Mr. Zink, the Officers, and each an Officer) of the Company. The Company believes that the Agreements are fair and appropriate steps to ensure the Officers' continued employment, attention and dedication.

Under the COC Agreement, Mr. Zink is entitled to separation benefits in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Zink for good reason due to certain reasons, including a material change in title or duties, a material reduction in compensation or a material geographic relocation, in each case which the Company has failed to cure and such termination occurs after a change in control. In this event, the separation benefits to be received by Mr. Zink will be equal to two times the sum of (a) base salary plus (b) the greater of (i) the annual bonus amount with respect to the past two fiscal years (the Average Bonus Amount) or (ii) the target bonus amount established for the fiscal year in which the date of termination occurs, or, if none, an amount equal to 20% of base salary for such fiscal year (the Change in Control Benefits). Change in control is defined as, subject to certain exceptions, the accumulation in any consecutive 12-month period, by any individual, entity or group of 50.1% or more of the outstanding common shares of the Company; a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or the failure, during any period of 12 consecutive months, of the incumbent Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) to maintain at least a majority membership on the Board.

Under the Severance Agreement, Ms. Kast-Brown receives, in addition to the Change in Control Benefits, separation benefits if a termination occurs prior to a change in control of the Company equal to her base salary plus the Average Bonus Amount.

Any separation benefits paid under the Agreements will be paid in a lump sum 60 days after the date of termination. Equity incentive awards will vest automatically upon such termination, and the Officers shall remain entitled to the election of continuation of certain benefits under COBRA. As consideration for the separation benefits under the Agreements, the Officers agreed to certain confidentiality obligations with respect to proprietary information of the Company gained as a result of their employment. In addition, the Officers are subject to non-compete provisions under the Agreements, which prohibit them from engaging in any competitive business, as defined in the Agreements, during the term of the Agreements or for a period of one year following termination within certain geographical boundaries based on the locations where the Company does business. The Officers are also prohibited during the term of the Agreements and for one year following termination from soliciting the services of any employee of the Company or the business of any customer of the Company.

This description of the Agreements above is merely a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the COC Agreement and Severance Agreements attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, which are incorporated by reference herein.
