Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 28, 2005, John Lambert terminated his employment with Chiron Corporation. Mr. Lambert, who had been serving as Vice President, Chiron Corporation and President, Chiron Vaccines, entered into a Compromise Agreement with Chiron on February 18, 2005. The terms of the Compromise Agreement include provisions intended to meet Chiron's contractual obligations to Mr. Lambert under the original terms of his February 2001 agreement with Chiron, in the event his employment was terminated for reason other than cause, as well as statutory obligations under United Kingdom law. The terms of the Compromise Agreement include a lump sum severance payment of 900,000 United Kingdom pounds sterling that consists of the following: a payment of 802,000 United Kingdom pounds sterling, equal to two years' base salary plus bonus (calculated using the average of the prior two years' bonus payments), as required by his February 2001 agreement, a payment in the amount of 50,000 United Kingdom pounds sterling for one year's health benefits, under United Kingdom law, a payment of 30,000 United Kingdom pounds sterling in lieu of the annual pension contribution amount otherwise owed to Mr. Lambert under the terms of his original February 2001 agreement with Chiron, and a payment of 18,000 United Kingdom pounds sterling in return for Mr. Lambert's agreement not to compete with Chiron or an affiliate company of Chiron for twelve (12) months following the termination of his employment. In return for the above-described payments, under the terms of the Compromise Agreement, Mr. Lambert agreed to the release of claims he may have had against Chiron or any Chiron affiliate company.
