Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc. Announces Update on Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation

Wednesday, June 17, 2009

Irvine, California. Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc. (Pink Sheets: IMPM), a Maryland corporation, or the Company, today announced, in connection with its Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation for its 9.375% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (Pink Sheets: IMPHP) and 9.125% Series C Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (Pink Sheets: IMPHO), that as of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 16, 2009;

- Approximately 49% of the Preferred Stock have been tendered.

OFFER TO PURCHASE PREFERRED STOCK

We are offering to purchase all of the outstanding Preferred Stock as follows:

- $0.29297 per share of Series B Preferred Stock, and
- $0.28516 per share of Series C Preferred Stock.

These amounts equal one-half of a quarterly dividend for each series. If we successfully complete the tender offer and obtain all the requisite preferred and common stockholder approvals, we will also contemporaneously pay to all preferred stockholders (whether the shares are tendered or not) the accumulated and unpaid dividends from the past two quarters, which are $1.17 per share for the Series B Preferred Stock and $1.14 per share for the Series C Preferred Stock. The per share total received for tendered shares will be:

Series B: $1.46297

Series C: $1.42516

TO OUR COMMON STOCKHOLDERS

In order to complete the tender offer of the Preferred Stock successfully, we need approval from a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock on proposed amendments to the terms of each series of Preferred Stock.

We have delivered a proxy statement for a special meeting of common stockholders to be held on June 23 seeking approval from the common stockholders on proposed amendments to the Preferred Stock terms. OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS TO OUR COMMON STOCKHOLDERS THAT THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE PREFERRED STOCK TERMS BE APPROVED SO THAT WE WILL BE ABLE TO USE OR PRESERVE CASH FOR OTHER PURPOSES IN CONNECTION WITH REBUILDING OUR BUSINESS. The proposed amendments include the following:

- make future dividends, if any, non-cumulative;

  - eliminate the restrictions on paying stock dividends on, or repurchasing, stock until preferred stock dividends are paid;

  - eliminate the right of preferred stockholders to elect two directors if the Company does not pay dividends for six or more quarters;

  - eliminate preferred stockholders' right to approve senior preferred stock; and

  - eliminate the prohibition of redeeming less than all shares of preferred stock if preferred dividends are not paid.

The $25.00 liquidation preference for each series of Preferred Stock is not being modified and will remain whether the tender offer is successfully completed or not. If the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock do not approve the amendments to the Preferred Stock terms, then the tender offer will be terminated, even if 66 2/3% of the Preferred Stock is tendered. You should review the proxy statement for further information about the proposed amendments to the Preferred Stock terms. The special meeting is scheduled for June 23.

TO OUR PREFERRED STOCKHOLDERS

Concurrently with the Offer to Purchase, we are asking our preferred stockholders to approve the following amendments to the terms of each series of Preferred Stock:

- make future dividends, if any, non-cumulative;
- eliminate the restrictions on paying stock dividends on, or repurchasing, stock until preferred stock dividends are paid;
- eliminate the right of preferred stockholders to elect two directors if the Company does not pay dividends for six or more quarters;
- eliminate preferred stockholders' right to approve senior preferred stock; and
- eliminate the prohibition of redeeming less than all shares of preferred stock if preferred dividends are not paid.

The $25.00 liquidation preference for each series of Preferred Stock is not being modified and will remain whether the tender offer is successfully completed or not. Plus, although we are also proposing to eliminate any liquidation premiums and the prohibition to redeem preferred stock prior to the fifth year from its original issuance, these preferred rights currently only apply to the Series C Preferred Stock, which has a $0.50 liquidation premium until, and can be redeemed beginning on, November 23, 2009. You should review the Offering Circular for further information about the proposed amendments.

If the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Is NOT successful

If we do not receive the requisite approval from either the preferred stockholders (that is, not enough shares are tendered) or the common stockholders, then the tender offer will be terminated, the current terms for each series of Preferred Stock will remain, AND WE WILL NOT MAKE ANY PAYMENTS TO THE PREFERRED STOCKHOLDERS, INCLUDING THE ACCUMULATED AND UNPAID PREFERRED DIVIDENDS. Although quarterly dividends on the preferred stock will continue to accrue, given our current financial circumstances, WE DO NOT INTEND TO PAY PREFERRED STOCK DIVIDENDS for the foreseeable future. Among other things, we continue to have significant outstanding balances from our reverse repurchase financing and our trust preferred securities liabilities. If we don't pay preferred stock dividends for six or more quarters, the preferred stockholders have the right to elect two directors.

Edgar Filing: IMPAC MORTGAGE HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFA14A

If the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Is successful

If the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation is successful and we obtain the requisite approvals from the preferred and common stockholders, then each preferred stockholder that tenders shares will receive the applicable tender offer cash purchase price plus the accumulated dividends on their shares for a total of $1.46297 for Series B and $1.42516 for Series C. Those who do not tender their shares will only receive the accumulated dividends and will be subject to the amended terms of the Preferred Stock.

In order to approve the amendments, preferred stockholders must tender their shares. A holder can not approve the amendments without tendering shares. Plus, holders must tender all shares; they can not make a partial tender of shares. 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock must approve the proposed amendments. This means that 66 2/3% of the Preferred Stock must be tendered.

The Conditions

There are a number of conditions to the Company's obligation to accept the shares of Preferred Stock tendered and consents delivered and to pay the consideration offered. These conditions include (1) receiving valid tenders from at least 66 2/3% of the aggregate liquidation preference of each series of the Company's outstanding Series B and C Preferred Stock, (2) obtaining approval from a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock on the proposed amendments, and (3) satisfying the distribution requirements under Maryland law at the time of closing.

The Expiration Date

The Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation will expire at 9 a.m., Eastern time, on June 26, 2009, unless extended or terminated by the Company.

BACKGROUND AND RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

These past few years have been very challenging. We discontinued our mortgage operations, there have been significant increases in delinquencies and foreclosures, significant increases in credit-related losses and the tightening of the credit markets. We have strived to decrease our payment obligations to align the costs of our operations with our cash flows. We have not paid our two most recent preferred dividends. We have repurchased or restructured most of our trust preferred securities. We believe that the significant reduction of our preferred stock obligations and the elimination of the required dividends will give us flexibility to operate and grow our business and that we will be able to use or preserve cash for other purposes in connection with rebuilding our business.

As a result of the adoption of the most recent fair value accounting standards in FSP 157-4, we currently expect that our GAAP financial statements at June 30, 2009 may (i) show profitability primarily associated with a non-cash income item from a change in fair value of trust assets and liabilities, and (ii) reflect an increase in the balance amounts of our trust assets and liabilities.
