Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 13, 2010, Protective Life Insurance Company ( Protective Life ), a wholly owned subsidiary of Protective Life Corporation ( Protective ), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Agreement ) with Torchmark Corporation ( Torchmark ) and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Liberty National Life Insurance Company ( Liberty National ) and United Investors Life Insurance Company ( United Investors ). Pursuant to the Agreement, Protective Life has agreed to acquire the stock of United Investors from Liberty National.

The aggregate purchase price for United Investors is expected to be approximately $316 million, including approximately $130 million of adjusted statutory capital and surplus. The purchase price is subject to the receipt by United Investors of the required consents and regulatory approvals for, and the payment by, United Investors to Liberty National of a pre-closing extraordinary dividend as well as certain post-closing adjustments. Protective Life estimates that its initial capital invested will be approximately $260 million, excluding excess capital of approximately $56 million held by United Investors at closing.

The closing of the acquisition is conditioned on, among other things, the termination or expiration of any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, receipt of approvals from certain regulatory authorities, final negotiation of related agreements, including certain reinsurance agreements, and that United Investors shall not have experienced a material adverse effect between the date of the Agreement and closing. Protective Life and Liberty National will enter into a transition services agreement at closing pursuant to which Liberty National will provide certain administrative services and assistance to Protective Life for a period of time thereafter. The closing of the acquisition is expected to occur on and be effective December 31, 2010.

The Agreement contains representations and warranties made by Liberty National with regard to the contemplated transactions and the business and properties of United Investors as well as representations and warranties made by Protective Life with regard to the contemplated transactions. The representations and warranties concerning United Investors include, among others, representations with respect to financial statements, taxes, and compliance with applicable laws, including insurance regulatory requirements, properties and litigation. The Agreement also contains customary covenants concerning the operation of United Investors in the ordinary course of business pending closing and provides for mutual rights of access to information and cooperation among the parties.

Currently, Protective Life intends to merge United Investors into Protective Life upon completion of the transition of the administration of the acquired business to Protective Life. However, the Agreement provides that Protective Life will not merge, consolidate, dissolve or otherwise dispose of substantially all the assets of United Investors for a period of eighteen months following closing. Protective Life can give no assurance as to when or if such a merger will occur.

The Agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties made to and solely for the benefit of each other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified in information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Agreement. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they are modified by the underlying disclosure schedules. These disclosure schedules contain information that may constitute material non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Protective 's public disclosures.

Edgar Filing: PROTECTIVE LIFE CORP - Form 8-K

The foregoing description of the Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.01 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

*This report includes forward-looking statements that may express expectations of future events and results regarding the proposed transactions, including but not limited to statements regarding the expected benefits and costs of the proposed transactions, the ability to complete the proposed transactions, and the expected timing of the completion of the proposed transactions. Protective cannot give assurance that such statements will prove to be correct. The factors that could affect the future events include, but are not limited to, general economic conditions and the following known trends and uncertainties: Protective Life may not be able to complete the transactions due to, among other things, the inability of the parties to satisfy the various closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals; completion of the transactions may be more costly or may take longer than expected; the financing structure of the transactions may be different than currently contemplated; the actual financial results of the transactions could differ materially from Protective's expectations and may be impacted by items not taken into account in its forecasts and/or its earnings per share calculations; and Protective Life's expectations regarding its ability to successfully integrate and transition the acquired operations and satisfy its legal and compliance obligations in relation to the transactions may prove to be incorrect.
