Merger Integration Update

December 21, 2012

All -

As we informed you at the time, on December 6, SuperMedia and Dex One announced that the companies had reached agreement with a steering committee of representatives of both companies' senior lenders on amendments to our credit agreements that would facilitate the merger of the companies, and that all of the lenders were being asked to vote to approve the amendments. We noted that a 100 percent vote of the lenders would be required to approve the amendments, and that in the event the companies obtained sufficient, but not unanimous, support from the lenders, either or both companies might seek to finalize credit agreement amendments and complete the merger by means of a pre-packaged bankruptcy.

Voting has been taking place over the past two weeks. This morning, we announced that the companies now have received sufficient support from their lenders to approve a voluntary pre-packaged reorganization plan under Chapter 11 of the U.S. bankruptcy code, should it be necessary to proceed with this path in order to accomplish the merger. While neither the SuperMedia nor Dex One boards have voted to authorize a pre-packaged bankruptcy filing and it would not be our first choice, if that path is chosen it would simply be a tool to implement the merger, and day-to-day operations would continue without interruption with little to no effect on our employees, customers and other stakeholders.

Edgar Filing: SUPERMEDIA INC. - Form 425

We will continue to solicit lender votes in hope that we can obtain 100 percent approval of the amended credit agreements and will also be soliciting approval of the companies' reorganization plans, if necessary, and the merger from the stockholders of each company. We expect these solicitations to continue through (or, in the case of the solicitation of stockholders, commence during) the first quarter of 2013.

We will continue to keep you informed of our progress. If the updates we send and post on inSite do not answer all your questions, feel free to ask members of the leadership team or contact us through Direct Line.

Today's news may lead to increased inquiries from external parties. Consistent with company policy, please forward all investor calls to Cliff Wilson at 972-453-6188 and media calls to Andy Shane at 972-453-6473.

Thank you for your continued patience and focus on serving our clients as we move closer to combining our companies.

On behalf of all the EC members, best wishes for the Holidays!
