Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 18, 2015, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hillenbrand, Inc. (Hillenbrand) entered into an agreement to acquire Red Valve Company, Inc. (Red Valve) from its shareholders, as well as an agreement to acquire certain real estate used by Red Valve from Corinthian Realty, L.L.C. (Corinthian) (the Transaction). The aggregate purchase price for the Transaction is $131,864,000 in cash, subject to certain post-closing adjustments, with $3,300,000 of the purchase price being paid to Corinthian for the real estate. The Transaction is expected to close within approximately thirty days, subject to regulatory approval and customary closing conditions.

Based in Carnegie, Pennsylvania, Red Valve is a global leader in highly-engineered valves designed for municipal and industrial wastewater applications.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto is a copy of the press release issued by Hillenbrand regarding the Transaction.

The information furnished pursuant to Exhibit 99.1 shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities under that Section and shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any Hillenbrand filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Throughout the press release we make a number of forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. As the words imply, these are forward-looking statements about future plans, objectives, beliefs, and expectations that might or might not happen in the future. As contrasted with historical information, forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that we believe are reasonable, but by their very nature are subject to a wide range of risks.

Words that could indicate we are making forward-looking statements include the following:

Edgar Filing: Hillenbrand, Inc. - Form 8-K

intend	believe	plan	expect	may	goal	would become	pursue	estimate	will	forecast	continue	could targeted	encourage	promise	improve	progress	potential	should

This is not an exhaustive list, but is intended to give you an idea of how we try to identify forward-looking statements. The absence of any of these words, however, does not mean that the statement is not forward-looking.

Here is the key point: forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and our actual results could differ materially from those set forth in any forward-looking statements.

Any number of factors, many of which are beyond our control, could cause our performance to differ significantly from what is described in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could prevent or delay the closing of the Transaction; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Hillenbrand, its affiliates, Red Valve, Corinthian or others following announcement of the Transaction; the inability to satisfy the conditions to complete the Transaction (or to complete the Transaction on a timely basis), including the receipt of required regulatory approvals; risks that the proposed Transaction disrupts current operations or poses potential difficulties in employee retention or otherwise affects financial or operating results; the ability to recognize the benefits of the Transaction, including potential accretion to Hillenbrand's earnings, potential synergies and cost savings or the failure of Red Valve to achieve its plans and objectives generally; and legislative, regulatory and economic developments.

For a discussion of factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in forward-looking statements, see the discussions under the heading "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of Part I of our Form 10-K for the period ended September 30, 2015, located on our website and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information.
