The Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the quarter ended December 31, 2007, could not be filed within the prescribed period because the Company was unable to compile certain information required in order to permit the Company to file a timely and accurate report on the Company's financial condition. This inability could not have been eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes X No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes X No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

During the quarter ended December 31, 2007, the Board of Directors of the Company determined to implement a plan to shut down the Company's business operations in a manner that would preserve the value of the Company's assets and share value. On December 13, 2007, the Board of Directors determined the specifics of the implementation of the plan, which included terminating most of the employees. The financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2007 reflect the shut down of the Company's wholly owned subsidiary Broadcaster Interactive, Inc.; therefore, comparisons between the results of operations for the quarter ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006 will differ significantly because the December 31, 2007 financial statements only include results from continuing operations. As a result, there was a significant increase in the net loss for the quarter ended December 31, 2007 as compared to the prior year period, which is attributable primarily to an increase in impairment expenses for the quarter (which was offset slightly by a decrease in sales and marketing expenses), an increase in general and administrative expenses and, to a lesser extent, a decrease in net revenues.
