FRED GREEN APPOINTED CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER OF CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

Rob Ritchie, President and Chief Executive Officer of Canadian Pacific Railway, is pleased to announce that the Company's Board of Directors has approved the appointment of Fred Green to the position of Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer. The appointment is effective immediately.

Mr. Green, who began his career with CPR in 1978, has held senior management positions in both operations and marketing across the railway's network. He was most recently Executive Vice-President, Operations and Marketing.

In his new position, Mr. Green is responsible for the railway's operations, including the company's Integrated Operating Plan, overall train productivity and safety, track network and rail equipment, as well as marketing and sales activities for CPR's bulk, merchandise, intermodal and logistics groups.

Fred is an outstanding innovator who has developed products and services that differentiate CPR in the marketplace, while relentlessly pursuing improved productivity, efficiency and safety across our system, Mr. Ritchie said. Under his leadership, CPR has developed high-performance, results-oriented teams in marketing and operations. Fred's appointment demonstrates the depth of proven experience that CPR has in its management team.

Canadian Pacific Railway is a transcontinental carrier operating in Canada and the U.S. Its 14,000-mile rail network serves the principal centres of Canada, from Montreal to Vancouver, and the U.S. Northeast and Midwest regions. CPR feeds directly into America's heartland from the East and West coasts. Alliances with other carriers extend its market reach throughout the U.S. and into Mexico. Canadian Pacific Logistics Solutions provides logistics and supply chain expertise worldwide. For more information, visit CPR's website at www.cpr.ca.
