Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 7, 2007, the Board of Directors of Sterling Construction Company, Inc. (the "Company") voted to propose for approval by stockholders certain amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation. The articles proposed for amendment were originally adopted in 1991 when the Company was formed in order to protect the use of the Company's tax loss carry forwards. All of those tax losses will have been used or will have expired by the end of 2007. The following is a brief description of the proposed amendments:

Eliminating the restriction on a stockholder acquiring more than 4.5% of the Company's common stock.

Eliminating the requirement that amendments to certain of the articles of the Certificate of Incorporation require the affirmative vote of the holders of 75% of the outstanding capital stock of the Company.

Eliminating the requirement that certain actions by the Board of Directors require a vote of a majority of the authorized number of directors (whether or not there are vacancies) including the calling of a special meeting of stockholders, fixing the number of directors, and amending the by-laws,

All proposed amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation will be described in detail in the Company's proxy statement relating to its 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders scheduled for May 8, 2008.

As reported earlier, the Company has amended its by-laws to provide for the election of directors by a majority rather than a plurality vote of stockholders.

The Board has also decided not to renew the existing Stockholders' Rights Plan, commonly known as a "poison pill," which expires by its terms on December 29, 2008.
