ITEM 8.01

OTHER EVENTS

On November 17, 2008 the Company reviewed the conversion of 60,000 shares of its Series C Preferred Stock into 375,000,000 shares of common stock. The conversions were made by a total of 13 different holders of the Series C shares, all shares that had been issued and outstanding for in excess of one year. Nexia has received from each of the parties representations that none of them hold more than 4.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, that they are not affiliates of the Company and that they will comply will all applicable laws and regulations regarding the shares they are receiving.

As a result of the above set forth conversions, a total of 1,161,289,532 shares of the common stock of Nexia Holdings, Inc. will be issued and outstanding. Total number of restricted shares currently issued would be approximately 538,976,123. The estimated float after the issuance of the conversion shares described above would be approximately 612,677,000. The process of issuing all of the conversion shares may take one or two business days following this statement.
