ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On or about September 18, 2009, Blast Energy Services, Inc.'s ("Blast's") wholly-owned subsidiary Eagle Domestic Drilling Operations, LLC ("Eagle") received the second installment payment of $1.0 million due under the terms of the Compromise Settlement and Release Agreement with Quicksilver Resources, Inc. ("Quicksilver"). The amount of funds available to Blast in connection with the installment, net of contingent legal fees, is $720,000.

In September 2008, Blast and Eagle entered into a Compromise Settlement and Release Agreement with Quicksilver in the US District Court for the Southern District of Texas (the "Bankruptcy Court") to resolve their then pending litigation. Blast and Quicksilver also agreed to release all the claims against each other and certain related parties. Quicksilver agreed to pay Eagle a total of $10 million, as follows:

- $5 million payable upon the parties' entry into the settlement, which funds were received by Eagle as described below;
- $1 million payable on or before the first anniversary date of the execution of the settlement, which funds Eagle received on or around September 18, 2009;
- $2 million payable on or before the second anniversary date of the execution of the settlement, which funds have not been received to date; and
- $2 million payable on or before the third anniversary date of the execution of the settlement, which funds have not been received to date.

In addition to the $1.0 million payment referenced above, Quicksilver made the first payment of $5 million in October 2008. In the event any fees are not paid on their due date and Quicksilver's failure to pay is not cured within 10 days after written notice of such failure, then all of the remaining payments immediately become due and payable.

The above description of the Settlement is qualified in its entirety by the actual Compromise Settlement and Release Agreement filed September 22, 2008 on Form 8-K.
