Explanation of anticipated change

As a result of continued losses and a lack of sufficient working capital, the Registrant has ceased the operation of its subsidiary Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation, Inc, a Florida corporation ("PTR") and is reviewing its pharmacy operations. The Registrant intends to concentrate on collecting its accounts receivable and selling assets which are no longer utilized, as well as seeking strategic partners for the core technology business. Accordingly, the Registrant anticipates substantial losses from operations and the descent of said operations.
