ITEM 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors are divided into three classes consisting of Class I, Class II, and Class III. At the 2004 Annual Meeting Class I directors consisting of Bradley T. MacDonald and Fr. Donald F. Reilly were elected to a three-year term expiring in 2007. The Annual Meeting represents the re-election of Class II and Class III directors. Directors for each of the two classes will need to be elected at the Annual Meeting. Only Class III directors terms will expire and will need to be elected at the next annual meeting.

The number of directors in each class is determined by the Board of Directors and consists of as nearly equal a number of directors as possible. The term of Class I will expire in 2007. The term of Classes II will expire in 2008. Class III will then be up for re-election for a one-year term, followed by an election for a three-year term ending in 2009.

The Board of Directors has nominated the nominees named below, which nominees are currently serving as directors and have indicated their willingness to continue serving as directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why such nominees would be unable to serve as directors. If any of the nominees should for any reason become unable to serve, then valid proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the Board of Directors may designate. The three nominees for Class II Directors are Michael C. MacDonald, Mary T. Travis and Rev. Joseph Calderone. The two nominees for Class III Directors are Michael J. McDevitt, and George Lavin, Jr., Esq.

Each director serves until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her death, retirement, resignation, or removal. Should a vacancy occur or be created, whether arising through death, resignations, retirement or removal of a director, the vacancy will be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors. A director so elected to fill a vacancy will serve for the remainder of the present term of office of the class to which he or she was elected.
