ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On Wednesday, December 12, 2007, ATSI Communications, Inc. (the "Registrant") entered into a $3 million accounts receivable financing agreement with Wells Fargo Business Credit ("WFBC"), a division of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. Under the terms of the Account Transfer Agreement, the Registrant may offer to sell with recourse not less than $350,000 nor more than $3,000,000 in its accounts receivable to WFBC each month during the term of the agreement, up to a maximum amount outstanding at any time of $3,000,000. The Registrant is not obligated to offer accounts in any month and WFBC has the option to decline to purchase any accounts.

WFBC will pay Registrant the face amount of each account sold less a fee of 0.0349% of the face amount for each day after the sale until the account is collected in full. If any account is not collected within 90 days after sale or WFBC determines that the account debtor is not financially able to pay the account, the Registrant is required to repurchase such account from WFBC for the face amount thereof. Performance of the agreement is secured by a security interest in all of the Registrants accounts receivable and certain officers of the Registrant have provided a limited guaranty for the benefit of WFBC in the event of a breach of representations by the Registrant with respect to any account sold or the improper receipt and retention of payments under any account by any person.

The agreement may be terminated by the Registrant upon 30 days written notice at the end of each year. The Registrant is required to pay a fee in the amount of 0.5% of the highest amount outstanding under the agreement if the agreement is terminated by WFBC for default or is terminated by the Registrant.
