Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 11, 2017, STAAR Surgical Company (the “Company”) filed a universal shelf registration statement on Form S-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Company’s existing universal shelf registration statement expires on May 12, 2017. The registration statement is subject to review by the SEC.

When declared effective by the SEC, the shelf registration will allow the Company the flexibility to offer and sell up to $200 million of securities, including common stock, preferred stock, debt securities, and warrants, from time to time and through various methods of distribution. The Company’s existing universal shelf registration statement also authorized the Company to issue up to $200 million of securities. In accordance with SEC rules, the Company may make securities offerings under the existing shelf registration statement until the new registration statement is declared effective, subject to a maximum extension of 180 days. There are no plans to offer securities under either shelf registration statement at this time. Any future offering would be subject to market conditions and approval by the Company’s Board of Directors. Any offering of securities covered by a shelf registration statement will be made only by means of a prospectus supplement authorized and filed by the Company.

The registration statement has been filed with the SEC but has not yet become effective. The securities being registered may not be sold, nor may offers to buy be accepted, prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
