ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REQUIRED FD DISCLOSURE

On January 29, 2004, the Company announced that it has entered into Development and Management Agreements with the Mechoopda Indian Tribe of Chico Rancheria, California (the "Tribe"), a federally recognized Indian tribe. Station will assist the Tribe in developing and operating a gaming and entertainment project to be located in Butte County, California (the "Project"), near the intersection of State Route 149 and Highway 99, approximately 10 miles southeast of Chico, California and 80 miles north of Sacramento, California.

Under the terms of the Development Agreement, Station has agreed to arrange the financing for the ongoing development costs and construction of the Project. Prior to obtaining financing for the Project, the Company expects to advance $5 million to $10 million to the Tribe for the acquisition of land and other development costs. Although no firm construction budget has been established, the Company expects the total cost of the development and construction of the Project will be less than $80 million. Funds advanced by Station are expected to be repaid from the proceeds of the project financing or from the Tribe's gaming revenues. The Management Agreement has a term of seven years and provides for a management fee of 24% of the Project's net income. The proposed Project will be located on approximately 650 acres on State Route 149, east of the intersection with Highway 99. As currently contemplated, the Project will include approximately 500 slot machines, 10 table games and dining and entertainment amenities. Station anticipates the gaming and entertainment facility will be open some time during 2005.

On January 28, 2004, the Company reached an agreement in principle to settle a lawsuit brought by Fitzgeralds Sugar Creek, Inc., the City of Sugar Creek, Missouri and Phillip Griffith in December 2000 for $24.7 million, net of the related tax benefit. The lawsuit centered on allegations of improper conduct by the Company's former Missouri legal counsel, Michael Lazaroff. The Company has asserted a claim against Mr. Lazaroff and his former law firm to recover all damages caused by Mr. Lazaroff's conduct. As part of that claim, the Company intends to seek reimbursement for, among other things, the amount it was required to pay to settle the Fitzgerald's litigation, as well as the attorney's fees and costs incurred by the Company in defending that litigation.

On January 29, 2004, the Company released the following unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 and unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002.
