Edgar Filing: INTERDIGITAL COMMUNICATIONS CORP - Form 8-K

Communications Corporation, together with its wholly-owned subsidiary InterDigital Technology Corporation (collectively, the Company), and Federal Insurance Company (Federal), filed an order granting in part and denying in part Federal's motion to dismiss the Company's complaint. Federal is the insurance carrier which provided partial reimbursement to the Company of certain legal fees and expenses for the now-settled litigation involving the Company and Ericsson Inc. The Court dismissed the Company's claims asserting breach of contract and bad faith by Federal and further ordered the dispute regarding Federal's recovery of attorneys' fees and expenses previously reimbursed to the Company by Federal be submitted to arbitration. As part of its decision, the Court determined that the Litigation Expense and Reimbursement Agreement (Agreement) between Federal and the Company (which Agreement served as a basis for Federal's demand to recover the reimbursed legal fees and expenses) is enforceable, but did not address whether Federal is entitled to recover any reimbursed legal fees and expenses. Also, the Court reserved to a later time consideration of whether any arbitration award would be binding on the parties. In first quarter 2003, the Company accrued a contingent liability of $3.4 million related to the Agreement. This information updates information previously reported in the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005, respectively, and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.
