Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 3, 2007, Ultralife Batteries, Inc. (the "Registrant") and its wholly-owned subsidiary, McDowell Research Co., Inc., a Delaware corporation formerly named MR Acquisition Corporation, entered into a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") with MRC Chargers, Ltd., a Texas limited partnership, formerly named McDowell Research, Ltd., Thomas Hauke, Earl Martin, Sr., James Evans, Frank Alexander, Gloria Martin, and Lillian Hauke (the "McDowell Parties"). The Settlement Agreement resolves various disputes, issues and claims arising out of the Asset Purchase Agreement, dated May 1, 2006, among the Registrant, its wholly-owned subsidiary, MR Acquisition Corporation, McDowell Research, Ltd., Thomas Hauke, Earl Martin, Sr., James Evans and Frank Alexander (the "Asset Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which the Registrant acquired substantially all of the assets of McDowell Research, Ltd.

The material terms of the Settlement Agreement are as follows:

- o The parties to the Settlement Agreement agreed to reduce the stated purchase price, as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement, from $25 million to $19 million. This adjustment was made by reducing from $20 million to $14 million the aggregate principal amount of the subordinated convertible promissory notes outstanding immediately prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement, which notes were derived from the original subordinated convertible promissory note issued by the Registrant pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement.
- o The parties further agreed that the $1.5 million paid by the Registrant in the first quarter of 2007 against a purchase price adjustment of $3.4 million would fully satisfy Registrant's obligations with respect to the purchase price adjustment.
- o The subordinated convertible promissory notes were further amended to increase the interest rate on the unpaid principal amount from four percent (4%) to five percent (5%) per annum and to obligate the Registrant to make a prepayment of $3.5 million on the principal amount of those notes on or before November 18, 2007.
- o The Settlement Agreement, including the purchase price reduction, related interest rate increase and claim settlement, is subject to termination retroactively if the Registrant fails to make the $3.5 million prepayment on or before November 18, 2007.

The Settlement Agreement and the form of Amended and Restated Convertible Promissory Notes are being filed as exhibits to this current report and reference is made to those documents for a more complete description of their terms and conditions. A copy of the press release issued by the Registrant in connection with this matter is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this current report.
