Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 14, 2007, International Isotopes, Inc. (or the Company) entered into an agreement with Alpha-Omega Services, Inc. (AOS) pursuant to which the Company will be AOS's exclusive worldwide distributor for a new family of Type B(U) radioactive material transportation packages. The packages are intended to replace dozens of models of radioactive material containers currently used by U.S. government and commercial interests that will no longer be approved for use in the U.S. after October 1, 2008.

The initial term of the agreement begins on August 14, 2007 and will continue until the fifth anniversary following the date on which AOS receives U.S. regulatory approval to manufacture and distribute the packages. The agreement is renewable for successive one-year terms unless terminated in writing by either party sixty days prior to the end of any term. The agreement contains customary provisions with respect to warranty and service and the use of intellectual property rights.

The foregoing description of the agreement is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.
