MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholder:

On November 17, 2016, Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc., or HCIC, and Simmons First National Corporation, or Simmons, agreed to a strategic business combination in which HCIC will merge with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation, which we refer to as the merger. If the merger is completed, each share of HCIC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive (1) cash in an amount equal to $181.47, which we refer to as the Cash Consideration, and (2) 4.8393 shares of Simmons common stock, which we refer to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. Based on the 4.8393 exchange ratio and the number of shares of HCIC common stock expected to be issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger, the maximum number of shares of Simmons common stock that may be issued to HCIC shareholders in connection with the merger is expected to be 799,990.

We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus to notify you of, and invite you to, the special meeting of HCIC shareholders, which we refer to as the HCIC special meeting, being held to consider the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 17, 2016, as amended on February 6, 2017, which we refer to as the merger agreement, that HCIC has entered into with Simmons, and related matters, and to ask you to vote at the HCIC special meeting FOR approval of the merger agreement. Shares of Simmons common stock are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the ticker symbol SFNC .

The market value of the Stock Consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Simmons common stock; however the Cash Consideration will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. The following table presents the closing prices of Simmons common stock on November 16, 2016, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, and on, April 4, 2017, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also presents (1) the implied value of the Merger Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock on those dates, (2) the implied value of the Stock Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock converted into the Stock Consideration on those dates, as determined by multiplying the closing price of Simmons common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 4.8393 provided for in the merger agreement, and (3) the value of the Cash Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock, which will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of Simmons common stock.

The HCIC special meeting will be held on May 4, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at HCIC's headquarters, located at 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305.

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the merger unless HCIC shareholders approve the merger agreement. In order for the merger to be approved, the merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the HCIC special meeting, please take the time to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR the other matters to be considered at the HCIC special meeting. In considering the recommendation of the HCIC board of directors, you should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of HCIC will have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of HCIC shareholders generally. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE HCIC SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you may have regarding the merger of HCIC with and into Simmons and the HCIC special meeting of shareholders, which we refer to as the HCIC special meeting, and brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the HCIC special meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 85. Unless the context requires otherwise, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to Simmons refer to Simmons First National Corporation, an Arkansas corporation, and/or its consolidated subsidiaries, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to HCIC refer to Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc., a Tennessee corporation, and/or its consolidated subsidiaries, and references in this proxy statement/prospectus to we, our and us refer to Simmons and HCIC collectively.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the HCIC special meeting?

A: Simmons and HCIC have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 17, 2016, as amended on February 6, 2017, which we refer to as the merger agreement, pursuant to which Simmons has agreed to acquire HCIC. Under the merger agreement, HCIC will merge with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger, which we refer to as the merger. HCIC shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, which we refer to as the merger proposal.

HCIC shareholders are also being asked to approve the adjournment of the HCIC special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, which we refer to as the adjournment proposal.

This proxy statement/prospectus includes important information about the merger, the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus, and the HCIC special meeting. HCIC shareholders should read this information carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed voting materials allow shareholders to vote their shares without attending the HCIC special meeting in person.

Q: How does the HCIC board of directors recommend I vote at the HCIC special meeting?

A: The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate. See the section entitled The Merger Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors; HCIC's Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 39.

Q: When and where is the HCIC special meeting?

A: The HCIC special meeting will be held at HCIC's headquarters, located at 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305 on May 4, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Holders of record of HCIC common stock at the close of business on April 3, 2017, which is the date that the HCIC board of directors has fixed as the record date for the HCIC special meeting, are entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now?

If you are a HCIC shareholder of record as of the close of business on the record date, after you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the HCIC special meeting. If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible.

1

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the HCIC special meeting?

The presence at the HCIC special meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the HCIC common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote with respect to each proposal will constitute a quorum for the purposes of considering and acting on each proposal. If a quorum is not present, the HCIC special meeting will be postponed until the holders of the number of shares of HCIC common stock required to constitute a quorum attend.

A: If you submit a properly executed proxy card, even if you abstain from voting, your shares of HCIC common stock will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the HCIC special meeting. If additional votes must be solicited to approve the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal is approved, it is expected that the HCIC special meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What is the vote required to approve each proposal at the HCIC special meeting?

A: Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting.

Approval of the HCIC adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of HCIC common stock cast at the special meeting favoring the adjournment proposal to exceed the votes cast opposing the adjournment proposal.

Because the affirmative vote required to approve the merger proposal is based upon the total number of outstanding shares of HCIC common stock, if you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to either submit a proxy or vote in person at the HCIC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

See the sections entitled, Information About the HCIC Special Meeting Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote beginning on page 7 and Information About the HCIC Special Meeting Quorum; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes beginning on page 7.

Q: Why is my vote important?

If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for HCIC to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the HCIC special meeting. If you vote to abstain, or fail to either submit a proxy or vote in person at the HCIC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a

A: vote AGAINST the merger proposal. The merger proposal must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal.

Q: How do I vote if I own shares through the HCIC Employee Stock Ownership Plan?

If you own shares through the HCIC Employee Stock Ownership Plan, or the HCIC ESOP, you will be given the opportunity to instruct the trustee of the HCIC ESOP how to vote the shares that you hold in your account. To the

A: extent that you do not timely give such instructions, the trustee will vote all unvoted shares held in the HCIC ESOP in the same proportion as the shares voted pursuant to the instructions of account holders.

Q: How many votes do I have?

Each outstanding share of HCIC common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote. As of the record date, there were

A: 162,134 shares of HCIC common stock, par value $1.00 per share, outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting.

Q: Can I attend the HCIC special meeting and vote my shares in person?

Yes. All HCIC shareholders, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the HCIC special meeting. Holders of

A: record of HCIC common stock can vote in person at the HCIC special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the HCIC special meeting. If you plan to attend the HCIC special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. HCIC reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the HCIC special meeting is prohibited without HCIC's express written consent.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Sandy Hammons at HCIC, or (3) attending the HCIC special meeting in person, notifying Sandy Hammons and voting by ballot at the HCIC special meeting. Attendance at the HCIC special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by HCIC after the vote will not affect the vote. If you choose one of the first two methods, you must take the described action (or, with respect to the first method, HCIC must have received the subsequent proxy card) no later than May 3, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. local time, which is the business day immediately prior to the special meeting. Sandy Hammons' mailing address is:

Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc.
1862 Highway 45 Bypass
Jackson, Tennessee 38305
Attention: Sandy Hammons

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: If the merger proposal is approved by HCIC shareholders and the other conditions to closing under the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, then at the effective time of the merger, HCIC will merge with and into Simmons and Simmons will be the surviving entity. Also, following the closing of the merger, Simmons anticipates merging First South Bank, a Tennessee-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of HCIC, which we refer to as First South Bank, with and into Simmons Bank, an Arkansas state-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Simmons, which we refer to as Simmons Bank. As a result of the merger, HCIC will no longer exist and its businesses will be owned by Simmons, which will continue as a public company.

Q: What will I receive for my HCIC common stock?

A: Upon completion of the merger, each share of HCIC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive (1) cash in an amount equal to $181.47, which we refer to as the Cash Consideration, and (2) 4.8393 shares of Simmons common stock, which we refer to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration.

Q: What happens if I am eligible to receive a fraction of a share of Simmons common stock as part of the per share Merger Consideration?

A: If the aggregate number of shares of Simmons common stock that you are entitled to receive as part of the Stock Consideration includes a fraction of a share of Simmons common stock, you will receive cash in lieu of that fractional share. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Fractional Shares" beginning on page 55.

Q: When can I expect to receive the Merger Consideration?

A: Holders of HCIC common stock shall receive their Merger Consideration as promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, subject to the holders submitting their properly completed letter of transmittal and other transmittal materials.

Q: What is the value of the consideration to be received by HCIC shareholders in connection with the merger?

A: The market value of the Stock Consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Simmons common stock; however, the Cash Consideration will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. The following table presents the closing prices of Simmons common stock on November 16, 2016, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, and on April 4, 2017, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also presents (1) the implied value of the Merger Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock on those dates, (2) the implied value of the Stock Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock converted into the Stock Consideration on those dates, as determined by multiplying the closing price of Simmons common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 4.8393 provided for in the merger agreement, and (3) the value of the Cash Consideration proposed for each share of HCIC common stock, which will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of Simmons common stock.

	Simmons Common Stock (NASDAQ: SFNC)	Implied Value of the Stock Consideration for Each Share of HCIC Common Stock	Value of the Cash Consideration for Each Share of HCIC Common Stock	Implied Value of the Merger Consideration for Each Share of HCIC Common Stock
At November 16, 2016	$ 57.80	$ 279.71	$ 181.47	$ 461.18
At April 4, 2017	$ 54.25	$ 262.53	$ 181.47	$ 444.00

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to HCIC shareholders?

A: The obligation of Simmons and HCIC to consummate the merger is conditioned upon, the receipt of an opinion from Covington & Burling LLP to the effect that the merger will qualify, as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and that HCIC and Simmons will each be treated as a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. Neither Simmons nor HCIC currently intends to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to consummate the merger. If either Simmons or HCIC waives this opinion condition after this registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, and if the tax consequences of the merger to HCIC shareholders have materially changed, Simmons and HCIC will recirculate appropriate soliciting materials to resolicit the votes of HCIC shareholders. In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holders of HCIC common stock will receive a combination of the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration in the merger and will not generally recognize any loss but will generally recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of (1) the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash received and the fair market value of the Simmons common stock received pursuant to the merger over that holder's adjusted tax basis in his or her shares of HCIC common stock surrendered, and (2) the amount of Cash Consideration received by that holder pursuant to the merger.

For further information, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 69.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of HCIC common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Do I have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. Under Section 48-23-102 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, or TBCA, HCIC shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters' rights, HCIC shareholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by the TBCA. Failure to strictly comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled "The Merger - Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 49, and Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II. Holders of shares of HCIC common stock are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. See the section entitled "The Merger - Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 49.

Q: What do I need to do now?

Q: If I am a HCIC shareholder, should I send in my HCIC common stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do NOT send in your HCIC common stock certificates with your proxy. If the merger proposal is approved by HCIC shareholders, and the merger is completed, Computershare or an exchange agent designated by Simmons will send you instructions for exchanging HCIC common stock certificates for the Merger Consideration. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates" beginning on page 55.

Q: Whom may I contact if I cannot locate my HCIC common stock certificate(s)?

A: If you are unable to locate your original HCIC common stock certificate(s), you should contact Sandy Hammons at Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. by telephone at (731) 228-3619.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of HCIC common stock before the HCIC special meeting?

A: The record date is earlier than both the date of the HCIC special meeting and the effective time of the merger. If you transfer your shares of HCIC common stock after the record date but before the HCIC special meeting, you will, unless the transferee requests a proxy from you, retain your right to vote at the HCIC special meeting but will transfer the right to receive the per share Merger Consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares. In order to receive the per share Merger Consideration, you must hold your shares through the effective time of the merger.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We expect to consummate the merger no earlier than the second quarter of 2017. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the approval of HCIC shareholders at the HCIC special meeting and the necessary regulatory approvals and the other conditions to closing must be satisfied before the merger is consummated. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Consummation of the Merger" beginning on page 65.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

A: If you have any questions concerning the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of HCIC common stock, please contact: Sandy Hammons at Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. at the following address or telephone number: 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305 or (731) 228-3619. Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for the merger proposal?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger agreement is not approved by HCIC shareholders or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, HCIC shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of HCIC common stock. Instead, HCIC will remain an independent company and will continue to own First South Bank. Under specified circumstances, HCIC may be required to pay Simmons a termination fee of $3.0 million. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement - Termination Fee" beginning on page 55.

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document that governs the merger. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus of the terms and conditions of the merger are qualified by reference to the merger agreement.

Under the merger agreement, HCIC will merge with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

As a result of the Merger, HCIC Shareholders Will Receive 4.8393 Shares of Simmons Common Stock and $181.47 in Cash for each share of HCIC Common Stock (page 55)

We are proposing the merger of HCIC with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation in the merger. If the merger is completed, each share of HCIC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive (1) cash in an amount equal to $181.47, which we refer to as the Cash Consideration and (2) 4.8393 shares, or the exchange ratio, of Simmons common stock, which we refer to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. No fractional shares of Simmons common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of HCIC common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

The HCIC Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that HCIC shareholders Vote FOR Approval of the Merger Proposal (page 39)

The HCIC board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of HCIC and its shareholders. Accordingly, the HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger proposal.

For the factors considered by the HCIC board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger proposal, see the section entitled The Merger HCIC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors beginning on page 39.

Olsen Palmer Has Provided an Opinion to the HCIC Board of Directors in Connection with the Merger (page 40 and Annex III)

In connection with the merger, HCIC's financial advisor, Olsen Palmer LLC or Olsen Palmer, delivered a written opinion, dated November 17, 2016, to the HCIC board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of HCIC common stock of the Merger Consideration in the merger. The full text of the opinion, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Olsen Palmer in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus. Olsen Palmer has consented to the inclusion of its opinion in this proxy statement/prospectus (attached as Annex III hereto). The opinion was provided for the information of, and was directed to, the HCIC board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger, and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to holders of HCIC common stock. The opinion did not address the underlying business decision of HCIC to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for HCIC or the effect of any other transaction in which HCIC might engage, or constitute a recommendation to the HCIC board of directors in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any HCIC shareholder as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter.

For further information, please see the discussion under the caption The Merger Opinion of HCIC's Financial Advisor, beginning on page 40.

Information About the HCIC Special Meeting (page 31)

The HCIC special meeting will be held on May 4, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at HCIC's headquarters, located at 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305, unless the HCIC special meeting is adjourned or postponed.

At the HCIC special meeting, HCIC shareholders will be asked to:

approve the merger proposal; and approve the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate.

Only holders of record at the close of business on April 3, 2017, which is the record date for the HCIC special meeting, will be entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. Each share of HCIC common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal to be considered at the HCIC special meeting. As of the record date, there were 162,134 shares of HCIC common stock entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. As of the record date, directors and executive officers of HCIC and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 147,437 shares of HCIC common stock, representing approximately 91% of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on that date.

As of the record date, Simmons beneficially held no shares of HCIC common stock, and Simmons directors and executive officers held no shares of HCIC common stock.

The merger proposal must be approved by the affirmative vote, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to either submit a proxy or vote in person at the HCIC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal at the special meeting.

Concurrently with execution of the merger agreement, certain of HCIC's directors and officers have entered into a support and non-competition agreement, which we refer to as a voting agreement, solely in his or her capacity as a HCIC shareholder to vote his or her shares in favor of the merger proposal and against certain competing acquisition proposals or other actions that would frustrate the purposes of, prevent or materially delay completion of the merger, as well as certain other restrictions with respect to the voting and transfer of such person's shares of HCIC common stock. As of the record date, the HCIC directors and officers party to these voting agreements owned and were entitled to vote approximately 131,376 shares of HCIC common stock, representing approximately 81% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on that date. The voting agreement for one person provides that, if, at any time prior to the HCIC special meeting, HCIC has received an acquisition proposal that is considered by the HCIC board of directors to be superior to the merger, (1) the person agrees to vote a fewer number of the shares of HCIC common stock owned by such person in favor of the merger proposal and against any competing proposal and (2) the person agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) the remaining shares of HCIC common stock owned by such person with respect to the merger proposal (or any competing proposal) in a manner that is proportionate to the manner in which all shares of HCIC common stock that are not subject to a voting agreement are voted with respect to the merger proposal. As a result, if HCIC received an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considered to be superior to the merger, then only approximately 45.6% of the total outstanding shares of HCIC common stock would be required to be voted in favor of the merger proposal pursuant to these voting agreements. As a result, if there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considers to be superior to the merger, assuming all other shareholders not party to voting agreements vote upon the merger, or the Unconstrained Shareholders, the merger will be approved if at least 3,349 shares of HCIC common stock, or 2.0% of the total outstanding shares of HCIC common stock as of the record date, held by the Unconstrained Shareholders vote in favor of the merger.

Approval of the HCIC adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of HCIC common stock cast at the special meeting favoring the adjournment proposal to exceed the votes cast opposing the adjournment proposal. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to either submit a proxy or vote in person at the HCIC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the adjournment proposal, this will not have an effect on the vote to approve the adjournment proposal.

HCIC's Directors and Officers May Have Financial Interests in the Merger That Differ From Your Interests (page 46)

HCIC shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers of HCIC have agreements and other benefit plans or arrangements that provide them with financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of HCIC shareholders generally. These interests include the following:

HCIC previously entered into employment agreements, or the HCIC employment agreements, with C. Edward Woodside, Chairman, C. Hunter Simmons, President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael McGregor, Chief Financial Officer of First South Bank, and Kirk Goehring, Chief Lending Officer and Senior Vice President of First South Bank. In connection with the merger, HCIC will terminate all of the HCIC employment agreements except for the agreement with Mr. Goehring, which will be amended as of the closing of the merger, and pay Messrs. Woodside, Simmons,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

McGregor, and Goehring an amount of approximately $2.28 million, $2.16 million, $0.76 million and $0.25 million (these current estimates assume the merger was consummated on March 9, 2017), respectively, under their Stock Appreciation Rights agreements (see Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Employment Relationships on page 47), and HCIC will award Messrs. Simmons, McGregor, and Goehring 1,314, 1,095, and 219 shares, respectively, of HCIC common stock (see Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - HCIC Share Bonuses on page 48);

Following the effective time of the merger, Mr. Simmons will act as the Jackson Community Chairman for Simmons Bank and will report to Tony Gregory, the Tennessee Regional Chairman of Simmons Bank, Mr. Goehring will act as the Community President for the Jackson region for Simmons Bank and will report to Mr. Simmons, and Mr. Woodside will be appointed to the board of directors of Simmons Bank following the merger of First South Bank with and into Simmons Bank;

In the merger agreement, Simmons agreed to maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for directors and executive officers of HCIC for a period of six years following the merger and to provide indemnification arrangements for such persons.

The HCIC board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that HCIC shareholders vote in favor of the merger proposal.

For a more complete description of these interests, see The Merger - Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 46.

HCIC Shareholders May Exercise Dissenters' Rights (page 49)

Under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA, HCIC shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters' rights, HCIC shareholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by the TBCA. Failure to strictly comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled The Merger - Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 49, and Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 52)

We have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals, non-objections or waivers required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These regulatory determinations include, among others, the approval of the merger from the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions, which we refer to as the TDFI, and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve, for Simmons to acquire HCIC. Simmons and HCIC have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications, requests, letters and notifications to obtain the required regulatory determinations.

Although we do not know of any reason why these regulatory approvals, non-objections or waivers cannot be obtained in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained.

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page 65)

Currently, we expect to consummate the merger no earlier than the second quarter of 2017. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, consummation of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. The conditions to each party's obligation to complete the merger include, among others:

approval of the merger agreement by HCIC shareholders;
receipt of required regulatory approvals (provided that no such required regulatory approval may impose a burdensome condition on Simmons, HCIC or First South Bank following the merger);
absence of any law, injunction or other restraint prohibiting, restricting or making illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

9

the declaration of effectiveness by the SEC of Simmons' registration statement on Form S-4 registering the Simmons common stock issuable to HCIC shareholders, with no stop orders suspending the effectiveness thereof having been issued;

authorization of the shares of Simmons common stock to be issued in the merger for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market; accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement, generally subject to specified materiality standards;

performance in all material respects of each party's obligations under the merger agreement; and receipt by each party of an opinion of Covington & Burling LLP, counsel to Simmons, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

In addition, Simmons' obligation to consummate the merger is subject to:

as of the last day of the month reflected in HCIC's financial statements, First South Bank having (1) a ratio of non-performing assets to total loans not in excess of 0.63%, (2) a ratio of classified loans to Tier 1 capital plus ALLL ratio not be in excess of 8.00%, (3) non-performing assets not in excess of $1,650,000, (4) classified assets not in excess of 115% of the aggregate balance of classified assets as set forth in HCIC's financial statements as of and for the quarter ended September 30, 2016 and (5) delinquent loans not in excess of 0.75% of total loans. As of December 31, 2016, First South Bank's (a) ratio of non-performing assets to total loans was 0.39%, (b) ratio of classified loans to Tier 1 capital plus ALLL was 7.21%, (c) non-performing assets was $985,186, and (d) delinquent loans was 0.48% of total loans. Simmons and HCIC expect that First South Bank will satisfy these asset quality metrics prior to closing, although there can be no assurance that such conditions will be satisfied;

as reflected in HCIC's closing financial statements, First South Bank (1) being well capitalized as defined under applicable law, (2) having a tier 1 leverage ratio of not less than 10.0%, (3) having a tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of not less than 14.5%, (4) having a total risk-based capital ratio of not less than 14.5%, (5) having tangible shareholders' equity to tangible assets ratio of not less than 10.5%, and (6) not having received any notification from the TDFI or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which we refer to as the FDIC, to the effect that the capital of First South Bank is insufficient to permit First South Bank to engage in all aspects of its business and its currently proposed businesses without material restrictions, including the imposition of a burdensome condition. As of December 31, 2016, First South Bank (a) was well capitalized as defined under applicable law, (b) had a tier 1 leverage ratio of 10.45%, (c) had a tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of 15.40%, (d) had a total risk-based capital ratio of 16.19%, (e) had tangible shareholders' equity to tangible assets ratio of 10.45%, and (f) had not have received any notification from the TDFI or FDIC to the effect that the capital of First South Bank is insufficient to permit First South Bank to engage in all aspects of its business and its currently proposed businesses without material restrictions, including the imposition of a burdensome condition. Simmons and HCIC expect that First South Bank will satisfy these regulatory capital metrics prior to closing, although there can be no assurance that such conditions will be satisfied;

HCIC having delivered evidence that certain contracts and employment contracts with HCIC's officers have been terminated;

HCIC having delivered a FIRPTA certificate to Simmons; and the holders of not more than five percent of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock having demanded, properly and in writing, appraisal for such shares under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed by the second quarter of 2017 or at all.

No Solicitation or Negotiation of Acquisition Proposals (page 64)

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus, HCIC has agreed that it and its subsidiaries will not, and will cause their respective representatives not to, among other actions, solicit, initiate, encourage (including by providing information or assistance), facilitate or induce any acquisition proposal or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish or cause to be furnished to any third party any nonpublic information with respect to, or approve, agree to, accept, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 67)

We may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after receiving HCIC shareholder approval.

In addition, either of us may decide to terminate the merger agreement if:

any regulatory authority which must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or a regulatory authority has issued a final nonappealable law or order prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, if the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and change such denial, law or order;

the HCIC shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the HCIC special meeting;

the merger has not been completed on or before May 17, 2017, which date is referred to as the outside date, if the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the outside date is not caused by the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement; or.

any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the other party prior to the outside date, if the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled is not a result of such party's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its material covenants or agreements in the merger agreement or such party's material breach of any of its material representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement.

In addition, Simmons may terminate the merger agreement if:

the HCIC board of directors fails to recommend the merger to, and the approval of the merger agreement by, the HCIC shareholders or changes its recommendation to the HCIC shareholders in a manner adverse to Simmons;

the HCIC board of directors breaches its non-solicitation obligations or obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals set forth in the merger agreement in any respect;

the HCIC board of directors breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a shareholders meeting or to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of HCIC shareholders;

if the Federal Reserve's approval of the merger contains or would result in the imposition of a burdensome condition and there is no meaningful possibility that such approval could be revised prior to the outside date so as not to contain or result in a burdensome condition; or if the Federal Reserve shall have requested in writing that Simmons, HCIC or any of their respective affiliates withdraw (other than for technical reasons), and not be permitted to resubmit within 60 days, any application with respect to any required regulatory approval.

Termination Fee (page 68)

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, and/or HCIC enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates another acquisition proposal, HCIC may be required to pay Simmons a termination fee of $3.0 million. The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with HCIC.

Board of Directors and Executive Officers of Simmons and Simmons Bank Following the Effective Time of the Merger (page 46)

The directors and officers of Simmons immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the directors and officers of the surviving corporation of the merger. Following the consummation of the merger, First South Bank will operate as a separate bank subsidiary of Simmons until it is merged with and into Simmons Bank. During this period, Mr. Woodside will continue to be Chairman of First South Bank. Following the merger of First South Bank into Simmons Bank, Mr. Woodside will be appointed to the board of directors of Simmons Bank.

The Rights of HCIC Shareholders Will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 72)

The rights of HCIC shareholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in Simmons' and HCIC's governing documents. The rights of HCIC shareholders are governed by Tennessee law and by HCIC's charter and bylaws, each as amended to date, which we refer to as HCIC's charter and bylaws, respectively. Upon the effective time of the merger, the rights of HCIC shareholders will be governed by Arkansas law and Simmons' restated articles of incorporation and bylaws, which we refer to as Simmons' articles of incorporation and bylaws, respectively.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains descriptions of the material differences in shareholder rights under each of HCIC's charter and bylaws and Simmons' articles of incorporation and bylaws. For a more complete description of these material differences, see the section entitled "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" beginning on page 72.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 69)

As a condition to the respective obligations of Simmons and HCIC to complete the merger, each of Simmons and HCIC shall receive an opinion from Covington & Burling LLP to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Accordingly, when a holder of HCIC common stock receives a combination of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration in the merger, the holder will not generally recognize any loss but will generally recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of (1) the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash received and the fair market value of the Simmons common stock received pursuant to the merger over that holder's adjusted tax basis in his or her shares of HCIC common stock surrendered, and (2) the amount of Cash Consideration received by that holder pursuant to the merger. For further information, see the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 69.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of HCIC common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

(1) Diluted core earnings per share is a non-GAAP financial measure. Diluted core earnings per share excludes from net income certain non-core items and then is divided by average diluted common shares outstanding. See GAAP Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures below for a GAAP reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure.

(2) Because of Simmons' significant level of intangible assets, total goodwill and core deposit premiums, management of Simmons believes a useful calculation for investors in their analysis of Simmons is tangible book value per share, which is a non-GAAP financial measure. Tangible book value per share is calculated by subtracting goodwill and intangible assets from total common shareholders' equity, and dividing the resulting number by the common stock outstanding at period end. See GAAP Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures below for a GAAP reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure.

(3) Allowance for loan losses at December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014 includes $954,000 allowance for loans acquired (not shown in the table above). The total allowance for loan losses at December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014 was $37,240,000, $32,305,000 and $29,982,000, respectively.

(4) Tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio is a non-GAAP financial measure. The tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio is calculated by dividing total common shareholders' equity less goodwill and other intangible assets (resulting in tangible common equity) by total assets less goodwill and other intangible assets as and for the periods ended presented above. See GAAP Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures below for a GAAP reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(5) Return on average tangible equity is a non-GAAP financial measure that removes the effect of goodwill and intangible assets, as well as the amortization of intangibles, from the return on average equity. This non-GAAP financial measure is calculated as net income, adjusted for the tax-effected effect of intangibles, divided by average tangible equity which is calculated as average shareholders' equity for the period presented less goodwill and other intangible assets. See "GAAP Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures" below for a GAAP reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure.

(6) Fully taxable equivalent (assuming an income tax rate of 39.225%).

(7) The efficiency ratio is noninterest expense before foreclosed property expense and amortization of intangibles as a percent of net interest income (fully taxable equivalent) and noninterest revenues, excluding gains and losses from securities transactions and non-core items. See "GAAP Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures" below for a GAAP reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure.

(8) Excludes all loans acquired and excludes foreclosed assets acquired, covered by FDIC loss share agreements, except for their inclusion in total assets.

On April 4, 2017 the last practicable trading day prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing sales price per share of Simmons common stock was $54.25 on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. There is no established public trading market for HCIC's common stock.

The market price of Simmons common stock will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the effective time of the merger. No assurance can be given concerning the market price of Simmons common stock before or after the effective time of the merger. Any change in the market price of Simmons common stock prior to the effective time of the merger will affect the market value of the Merger Consideration that HCIC shareholders will receive upon the effective time of the merger.

Dividends

HCIC currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends on its common stock equal to the estimated tax liability of HCIC's shareholders related to HCIC's net income plus $0.75 per share. The merger agreement provides that between signing and closing HCIC will not declare any dividends on its common stock or other equity interests, without Simmons' prior written consent, except for dividends necessary to satisfy, and not to exceed, the estimated tax liability of HCIC's shareholders related to HCIC's net income plus $0.75 per share, per quarter.

After the merger, Simmons currently expects to pay (when, as and if declared by the Simmons board of directors) regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.25 per share. While Simmons currently pays dividends on its common stock, there is no assurance that it will continue to pay dividends in the future. Future dividends on Simmons common stock will depend upon its earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, its ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior to the common stock and other factors deemed relevant by the Simmons board of directors.

As a holding company, Simmons is ultimately dependent upon its subsidiaries to provide funding for its operating expenses, debt service and dividends. Various banking laws and guidance applicable to Simmons Bank and Simmons limit the payment of dividends and other distributions by Simmons Bank to Simmons, and by Simmons to its shareholders. Therefore, Simmons' ability to pay dividends on its common stock may be limited. Regulatory authorities could impose administratively stricter limitations on the ability of Simmons Bank to pay dividends to Simmons, or Simmons to pay dividends to its shareholders, if such limits were deemed appropriate to preserve certain capital adequacy requirements.

Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Simmons on Simmons common stock, the record date for which is at or after the effective time of the merger, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of Simmons common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement, but such dividends or other distributions will not be paid to the holder thereof until such holder has duly surrendered its HCIC common stock certificates in accordance with the merger agreement.

Some of the statements contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 giving Simmons or HCIC's expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, budget, expect, foresee, anticipate, intend, indicate, target, plan, project, continue, contemplate, positions, prospects, predict, or potential, by future conditional will, would, should, could or may, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties which change over time. In addition to factors previously disclosed in Simmons' reports filed with the SEC, the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements:

ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the merger, including approval by HCIC shareholders, on the expected terms and schedule;

delay in closing the merger;

difficulties and delays in integrating the business of HCIC with Simmons and of Southwest Bancorp, Inc., or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits from the integration of both businesses;

business disruption following the proposed transaction;

diversion of management time on issues relating to the merger;

changes in asset quality and credit risk;

the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth;

changes in interest rates and capital markets;

inflation;

customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices;

customer disintermediation;

the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives;

competitive conditions;

economic conditions;

changes in Simmons' stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of Simmons prior to closing;

the reaction to the merger of the companies' customers, employees and counterparties;

the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, and other actions of the Federal Reserve, the Arkansas State Bank Department, and legislative and regulatory actions and reforms; and failure to consummate or delay in consummating the merger for any other reason.

For any forward-looking statements made in this proxy statement/prospectus or in any documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, Simmons claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 21 and the matters discussed under the caption Risk Factors in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by Simmons for the year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by subsequently filed Forms 10-Q and other reports filed by Simmons with the SEC from time to time, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on approval of the merger agreement.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the exchange ratio is fixed, the value of Simmons common stock issued to HCIC shareholders will depend on the market price of Simmons common stock when the merger is completed.

The market price of Simmons common stock at the time the merger is completed may vary from the price of Simmons common stock on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of the HCIC special meeting as a result of various factors that are beyond our control, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. On November 16, 2016, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, Simmons common stock closed at $57.80 per share, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. From November 17, 2016, the day of the announcement of the proposed merger, through April 4, 2017, the trading price of Simmons common stock ranged from a closing high of $66.40 per share to a closing low of $52.10 per share.

Other than as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, there will be no adjustment to the fixed number of shares of Simmons common stock that will be issued to HCIC shareholders based upon changes in the market price of Simmons common stock or HCIC common stock prior to the effective time of the merger. The value of the Cash Consideration will not change. In addition, the merger agreement cannot be terminated due to a change in the price of Simmons common stock. As a result, the value of the Cash Consideration may differ from the value of the Stock Consideration. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 67.

We are working to complete the transaction promptly and expect to complete the merger no earlier than the second quarter of 2017. However, there is no way to predict how long it will take to satisfy the conditions to closing the merger and to complete the transaction. In addition to the approval of the merger agreement by HCIC shareholders, consummation of the merger is subject to receipt of required regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other conditions that may not occur until after the HCIC special meeting. Because the date when the transaction is completed will be later than the date of the HCIC special meeting, HCIC shareholders will not know the precise value of the Stock Consideration that they will receive at the effective time of the merger at the time they vote on the merger proposal.

You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Simmons common stock before you vote.

The market price of Simmons common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of HCIC or Simmons currently.

Upon the effective time of the merger, holders of HCIC common stock will become holders of Simmons common stock. Simmons' business differs from that of HCIC, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Simmons and HCIC. For a discussion of the business of HCIC, see "Information About the Companies" beginning on page 29. For a discussion of the business of Simmons and of certain factors to consider in connection with that business, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 85.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The fairness opinion delivered to the HCIC board of directors by HCIC's financial advisor does not reflect any changes in circumstances that occur after the date of the opinion.

The opinion of HCIC's financial advisor, Olsen Palmer, was delivered to the HCIC board of directors on November 17, 2016 and speaks only as of the date of such opinion and not as of the effective time of the merger or as of any other date. Accordingly, the opinion does not reflect any changes in circumstances that occur after the date of the opinion. Changes in the operations and prospects of HCIC or Simmons, general market and economic conditions, and other factors that may be beyond the control of HCIC and Simmons, may alter the value of HCIC or Simmons or the price of shares of Simmons common stock by the time the merger is completed. For a description of the opinion that HCIC received from its financial advisor, please refer to "The Merger - Opinion of HCIC's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 40. For a description of the other factors considered by the HCIC board of directors in determining to approve the merger, please refer to "The Merger - HCIC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors" beginning on page 39.

Some of the conditions to the merger may be waived by HCIC or Simmons without resoliciting shareholder approval of the merger agreement.

Some of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement may be waived by HCIC or Simmons, subject to the agreement of the other party in specific cases. See "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Consummation of the Merger" beginning on page 65. If any conditions are waived, HCIC will evaluate whether an amendment of this proxy statement/prospectus and resolicitation of proxies is warranted. In the event that the HCIC board of directors determines that resolicitation of shareholders is not warranted, HCIC and Simmons will have the discretion to complete the merger without seeking further HCIC shareholder approval.

Some of the directors and officers of HCIC may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support the merger or recommend that you approve the merger agreement.

The interests of the directors and executive officers of HCIC may be different from those of holders of HCIC common stock, and directors and officers of HCIC may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of holders of HCIC common stock. These interests include the following:

HCIC previously entered into employment agreements, or the HCIC employment agreements, with C. Edward Woodside, Chairman, C. Hunter Simmons, President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael McGregor, Chief Financial Officer of First South Bank, and Kirk Goehring, Chief Lending Officer and Senior Vice President of First South Bank. In connection with the merger, HCIC will terminate all of the HCIC employment agreements except for the agreement with Mr. Goehring, which will be amended as of the closing of the merger, and pay Messrs. Woodside, Simmons, McGregor, and Goehring an amount of approximately $2.28 million, $2.16 million, $0.76 million and $0.25 million (current estimates assuming the closing of the merger closed on March 9, 2017), respectively, under their Stock Appreciation Rights agreements (see "Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Employment Relationships" on page 47), and HCIC will award Messrs. Simmons, McGregor, and Goehring 1,314, 1,095, and 219 shares, respectively, of HCIC common stock (see "Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - HCIC Share Bonuses" on page 48);

Following the effective time of the merger, Mr. Simmons will act as the Jackson Community Chairman for Simmons Bank and will report to Tony Gregory, the Tennessee Regional Chairman of Simmons Bank, Mr. Goehring will act as the Community President for the Jackson region of Simmons Bank and will report to Mr. Simmons, and Mr. Woodside will be appointed to the board of directors of Simmons Bank following the merger of First South Bank with and into Simmons Bank;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

HCIC shareholders should be aware of these interests when they consider the recommendation of the HCIC board of directors that they vote in favor of the merger proposal and the other merger-related proposals. The HCIC board of directors was aware of and considered these interests when it declared advisable the merger agreement, determined that the terms of the merger agreement were in the best interests of HCIC and its shareholders, and recommended that HCIC shareholders approve the merger agreement. These interests are described in more detail in the section entitled "The Merger - Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 46.

Certain of HCIC's directors and officers, who in the aggregate own more than 50% of the total outstanding shares of HCIC common stock as of the record date, have entered into voting agreements to vote their shares in favor of the merger proposal.

Certain of HCIC's directors and officers, have entered into a voting agreement, solely in his or her capacity as a shareholder of HCIC, to vote his or her shares in favor of the merger proposal. Each HCIC shareholder who has entered into a voting agreement has agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of HCIC common stock owned beneficially or of record by such shareholder over which such shareholder has voting power, in favor of the merger proposal presented at the HCIC special meeting and against certain competing acquisition proposals or other actions that would frustrate the purposes of, prevent or materially delay completion of the merger, as well as certain other restrictions with respect to the voting and transfer of such shareholder's shares of HCIC common stock. These shareholders have also agreed to customary non-competition and non-solicitation covenants that restrict such shareholder's ability to engage in the business of commercial, community, or retail banking business in the state of Tennessee. The shareholders that are party to these voting agreements own and are entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 81% of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock as of the record date. The voting agreement for one shareholder provides that, if, at any time prior to the HCIC special meeting, HCIC has received an acquisition proposal that is considered by the HCIC board of directors to be superior to the merger, (1) the shareholder agrees to vote a fewer number of the shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder in favor of the merger proposal and against any competing proposal and (2) the shareholder agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) the remaining shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder with respect to the merger proposal (or any competing proposal) in a manner that is proportionate to the manner in which all shares of HCIC common stock that are not subject to a voting agreement are voted with respect to the merger proposal. Because the shareholders that are party to these voting agreements hold more than 50% of the outstanding HCIC common stock the merger will be approved, regardless of how HCIC's other shareholders vote on the merger proposal unless there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considered to be superior to the merger.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may negatively impact HCIC.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and approval of the HCIC shareholders. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or, where permitted, waived, the merger will not be completed. In addition, Simmons and/or HCIC may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger is approved by HCIC shareholders.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, HCIC's business may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger and the restrictions on HCIC's ability to do so under the merger agreement, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger, or the price of HCIC common stock could decline to the extent that the current price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, termination of the merger agreement would increase the possibility of adverse regulatory actions which could adversely affect HCIC's business. If the merger agreement is terminated and the HCIC board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, HCIC shareholders cannot be certain that HCIC will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which Simmons has agreed to pay in the merger. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by the HCIC board of directors, HCIC may be required to pay Simmons a termination fee of $3.0 million. For a complete summary of the conditions that must be satisfied or waived prior to completion of the merger, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement – Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 65.

Provisions of the merger agreement may deter alternative business combinations.

The merger agreement generally prohibits HCIC from soliciting any acquisition proposal or offer for a merger or business combination with any other party, including a proposal that might be advantageous to HCIC shareholders when compared to the terms and conditions of the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus. These provisions may deter third parties from proposing or pursuing alternative business combinations that might result in greater value to holders of HCIC common stock than the transaction. See the sections entitled The Merger Agreement – Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers beginning on page 64 and The Merger Agreement – Termination Fee beginning on page 55 for a more complete discussion of these restrictions and consequences.

If the merger is not consummated, HCIC and Simmons will have incurred substantial costs that may adversely affect HCIC's and Simmons' financial results and operations.

HCIC and Simmons have incurred and will continue to incur substantial costs in connection with the proposed merger. These costs are primarily associated with the fees of their respective financial advisors, accountants and attorneys. If the merger is not consummated, HCIC and Simmons will have incurred these costs from which they will have received little or no benefit. Also, if the merger is not consummated under certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement, HCIC may be required to pay Simmons a termination fee of $3.0 million.

Regulatory consents, non-objections and approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the merger may be completed, HCIC and Simmons must obtain various approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers from, among others, the Federal Reserve and TDFI. These regulators may impose conditions on consummation of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although we do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying the effective time of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Simmons following the merger. Furthermore, such conditions or changes may constitute a burdensome condition that may allow Simmons to terminate the merger agreement and Simmons may exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement. There can be no assurance as to whether the regulatory approvals will be received, the timing of those approvals, or whether any conditions will be imposed. See The Merger – Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger beginning on page 52.

HCIC and Simmons will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on HCIC and/or Simmons. These uncertainties may impair HCIC's and/or Simmons' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers and others who deal with HCIC or Simmons to seek to change existing business relationships with HCIC or Simmons. HCIC employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

The pursuit of the merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect HCIC's and/or Simmons' financial results.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In addition, the merger agreement requires that, subject to certain exceptions, each of HCIC and Simmons operate in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Effective Time of the Merger beginning on page 59.

Risks Relating to Simmons Business Following the Merger

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than expected.

Simmons and HCIC have historically operated and, until the effective time of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully combine the businesses of Simmons and HCIC. To realize these anticipated benefits, after the effective time of the merger, Simmons expects to integrate HCIC's business into its own. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect Simmons' ability to successfully conduct its business in the markets in which HCIC now operates, which could have an adverse effect on Simmons' financial results and the value of its common stock. If Simmons experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause HCIC or Simmons to lose current customers or cause current customers to remove their accounts from HCIC or Simmons and move their business to competing financial institutions. Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of HCIC and Simmons during this transition period and for an undetermined period after consummation of the merger.

Simmons may fail to realize the cost savings estimated for the merger.

Simmons estimates that it will achieve cost savings from the merger when the two companies have been fully integrated. While Simmons continues to be comfortable with these expectations as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, it is possible that the estimates of the potential cost savings could turn out to be incorrect. The actual integration may result in additional and unforeseen expenses, and the anticipated benefits of the integration plan may not be realized. Actual growth and cost savings, if achieved, may be lower than what Simmons expects and may take longer to achieve than anticipated. If Simmons is not able to adequately address integration challenges, Simmons may be unable to successfully integrate Simmons' and HCIC's operations or to realize the anticipated benefits of the integration of the two companies.

The shares of Simmons common stock to be received by HCIC shareholders in the merger will have different rights from the shares of HCIC common stock they currently hold.

Following the effective time of the merger, holders of HCIC common stock will no longer be shareholders of HCIC, a Tennessee corporation, but will instead be stockholders of Simmons, an Arkansas corporation. The rights associated with HCIC common stock are different from the rights associated with Simmons common stock. For a more complete description of these rights, see the section entitled Comparison of Shareholders' Rights beginning on page 72.

HCIC shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

HCIC shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the HCIC board of directors and on other matters affecting HCIC. When the merger occurs, each HCIC shareholder will receive the Stock Consideration and become a Simmons stockholder with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than such shareholder's current percentage ownership of HCIC. Because of this, HCIC shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Simmons than they currently may have on the management and policies of HCIC.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Simmons and HCIC will incur significant transaction and merger-related costs in connection with the merger.

Simmons and HCIC have incurred and expect to incur a number of non-recurring costs associated with the merger. These costs and expenses include fees paid to financial, legal and accounting advisors, severance, filing fees, printing expenses and other related charges. Some of these costs are payable by Simmons and HCIC regardless of whether the merger is completed. There are also a large number of processes, policies, procedures, operations, technologies and systems that must be integrated in connection with the merger and the integration of the two companies' businesses. While both Simmons and HCIC have assumed that a certain level of expenses would be incurred in connection with the merger, there are many factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of the integration and implementation expenses.

There may also be additional unanticipated significant costs in connection with the merger that Simmons may not recoup. These costs and expenses could reduce the realization of efficiencies, strategic benefits and additional income Simmons expects to achieve from the merger. Although Simmons expects that these benefits will offset the transaction expenses and implementation costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term or at all.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANIES

Simmons Overview

Simmons is a financial holding company registered under the BHC Act. Simmons is headquartered in Arkansas and as of December 31, 2016, had, on a consolidated basis, total assets of $8.40 billion, total net loans of $5.63 billion, total deposits of $6.74 billion and equity capital of $1.15 billion. Simmons conducts its banking operations through its subsidiary bank, Simmons Bank, in 149 branches or financial centers located in communities in Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Tennessee.

Simmons is committed to the community bank model as it believes it encourages local customer engagement and local decision making, thereby producing a more responsive and satisfactory experience for its customers. Simmons also believes its model empowers its bankers to enhance shareholder value through developing and growing holistic customer relationships. As Simmons focuses on the communities in which it primarily operates, it provides a wide range of consumer and commercial loan and deposit products to individuals and businesses in its core markets.

Simmons also has developed through its experience and scale and through acquisitions, including the pending acquisition that is the subject of this proxy statement/prospectus, specialized products and services that are in addition to those offered by the typical community bank and that are provided in many cases to customers beyond its core market area. Those products include credit cards, trust services, investments, agricultural finance lending, equipment lending, insurance, consumer finance and SBA lending.

Simmons seeks to build shareholder value by (1) focusing on strong asset quality, (2) maintaining strong capital, (3) managing our liquidity position, (4) opportunistically growing our business, both organically and through acquisitions of financial institutions, and (5) improving our operational efficiency.

On December 14, 2016, Simmons announced that it had entered into an agreement and plan of merger with Southwest Bancorp, Inc., or Southwest, under which Simmons will acquire Southwest including its bank subsidiary Bank SNB. The pending acquisition of Southwest gives Simmons the opportunity to enter into new markets Oklahoma, Colorado and Texas and to grow its operations in Kansas. Completion of the acquisition of Southwest is expected in the third quarter of 2017 and is subject to customary closing conditions, including the approval of the shareholders of Southwest and Simmons, as well as customary regulatory approvals.

Simmons common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol SFNC. Simmons principal executive offices are located at 501 Main Street, Pine Bluff, Arkansas 71601, and its telephone number is (870) 541-1000. Simmons also has corporate offices in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Additional information about Simmons and its subsidiaries is included in documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 85.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

THE HCIC SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information for HCIC shareholders about the HCIC special meeting. We are mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as a HCIC shareholder, on or about April 6, 2017. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, we are also sending to you a notice of the HCIC special meeting and a form of proxy card that the HCIC board of directors is soliciting for use at the HCIC special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the HCIC special meeting.

This proxy statement/prospectus is also being furnished by Simmons to HCIC shareholders as a prospectus in connection with the issuance of shares of Simmons common stock upon the effective time of the merger.

Date, Time and Place of HCIC Special Meeting

The HCIC special meeting will be held at HCIC's headquarters, located at 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305, on May 4, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Matters to Be Considered

At the HCIC special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

the merger proposal; and the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate.

Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors

The HCIC board of directors has determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interest of HCIC and its shareholders and that the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement are fair to its shareholders. Accordingly, the HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate. See the section entitled "The Merger - HCIC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors" beginning on page 39 for a more detailed discussion of the factors considered by the HCIC board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date and Quorum

The HCIC board of directors has fixed the close of business on April 3, 2017 as the record date for determining the holders of HCIC common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the HCIC special meeting.

As of the record date, there were 162,134 shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting held by approximately 22 holders of record. Each share of HCIC common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the HCIC special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the HCIC special meeting.

The presence at the HCIC special meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote with respect to each proposal will constitute a quorum for the purposes of considering and acting on each proposal. All shares of HCIC common stock, whether present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions, if any, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the HCIC special meeting. If a quorum is not present at the HCIC special meeting, the HCIC special meeting will be adjourned until the holders of the number of shares required to constitute a quorum are represented.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions and Failure to Vote

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. Approval of the HCIC adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of HCIC common stock cast at the special meeting favoring the adjournment proposal to exceed the votes cast opposing the adjournment proposal. If you vote to abstain, or fail to either submit a proxy or vote in person at the HCIC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal. If your shares of HCIC common stock are present at the HCIC special meeting but are not voted on the adjournment proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the adjournment proposal, each will have no effect on the vote on the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy card and fail to attend the HCIC special meeting, or if you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of HCIC common stock in favor of the adjournment proposal, your shares of HCIC common stock will not be voted, but this will not have an effect on the vote to approve the adjournment proposal except to the extent there results in there being insufficient shares present at the HCIC special meeting to establish a quorum.

Shares Held by Executive Officers and Directors

As of the HCIC record date, there were 162,134 shares of HCIC common stock entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of HCIC and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 147,437 shares of HCIC common stock, representing approximately 91% of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on that date. Certain of HCIC's directors and officers have entered into a support and non-competition, which we refer to as a voting agreement, solely in his or her capacity as a HCIC shareholder, to vote his or her shares in favor of the merger proposal and against certain competing acquisition proposals or other actions that would frustrate the purposes of, prevent or materially delay completion of the merger, as well as certain other restrictions with respect to the voting and transfer of such shareholder's shares of HCIC common stock. The voting agreement for one shareholder provides that, if, at any time prior to the HCIC special meeting, HCIC has received an acquisition proposal that is considered by the HCIC board of directors to be superior to the merger, (1) the shareholder agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) a fewer number of the shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder (representing approximately 26.7% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on the record date) in favor of the merger proposal and against any competing proposal and (2) the shareholder agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) the remaining shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder with respect to the merger proposal (or any competing proposal) in a manner that is proportionate to the manner in which all shares of HCIC common stock that are not subject to a voting agreement are voted with respect to the merger proposal. HCIC also expects these shareholders will also vote in favor of the HCIC adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate. These shareholders have also agreed to customary non-competition and non-solicitation covenants that restrict such shareholder's ability to engage in the business of commercial, community, or retail banking business in the state of Tennessee. As of the record date, the HCIC shareholders party to these voting agreements owned and were entitled to vote approximately 131,376 shares of HCIC common stock, representing approximately 81% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on that date. Because the shareholders that are party to these voting agreements hold more than 50% of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock, the merger will be approved, regardless of how HCIC's other shareholders vote on the merger proposal unless there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considered to be superior to the merger, in which case approximately 45.6% of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock will vote in favor of the merger proposal pursuant to these voting agreements. As a result, if there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considers to be superior to the merger, assuming all other shareholders not party to voting agreements vote upon the merger, or the Unconstrained Shareholders, the merger will be approved if at least 3,349 shares of HCIC common stock, or 2.0% of the total outstanding shares of HCIC common stock as of the record date, held by the Unconstrained Shareholders vote in favor of the merger. As of the record date, Simmons and its directors and executive officers beneficially held no shares of HCIC common stock.

Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

A HCIC shareholder may vote by proxy or in person at the HCIC special meeting. If you hold your shares of HCIC common stock in your name as a shareholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a HCIC shareholder may complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

HCIC requests that HCIC shareholders vote by completing and signing the accompanying proxy card and returning it to HCIC as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. HCIC shareholders should not send HCIC common stock certificates with their proxy cards. After the merger is completed, holders of HCIC common stock will be mailed a transmittal form with instructions on how to exchange their HCIC common stock certificates for the Merger Consideration.

When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of HCIC common stock represented by it will be voted at the HCIC special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If any proxy card is returned without indication as to how to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger proposal and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate. No matters other than the matters described in this proxy statement/prospectus are anticipated to be presented for action at the HCIC special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the HCIC special meeting.

Every HCIC shareholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each HCIC shareholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, whether or not the HCIC shareholder plans to attend the HCIC special meeting in person. Sending in your proxy card will not prevent you from voting your shares personally at the meeting, since you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA, HCIC shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters' rights, HCIC shareholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by the TBCA. Failure to strictly comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 49, and Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a HCIC Shareholder's Vote

If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Sandy Hammons at HCIC, or (3) attending the HCIC special meeting in person, notifying Sandy Hammons, and voting by ballot at the HCIC special meeting. Attendance at the HCIC special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by HCIC after the vote will not affect the vote.

If you choose either of the first two methods, you must take the described action (or, with respect to the first method, HCIC must have received the subsequent proxy card) no later than May 3, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. local time, which is the business day immediately prior to the HCIC special meeting. Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy should be addressed to:

Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc.
1862 Highway 45 Bypass
Jackson, Tennessee 38305
Attention: Sandy Hammons

Any shareholder entitled to vote in person at the HCIC special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying Sandy Hammons) of a shareholder at the HCIC special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies

HCIC is soliciting your proxy in conjunction with the merger proposal. HCIC will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, HCIC will request that banks, brokers and other record holders send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of HCIC common stock and secure their voting instructions. HCIC will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. If necessary, HCIC may use directors, officers and several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from the HCIC shareholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile, letter or other electronic means.

THE HCIC PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Proposal

HCIC is asking its shareholders to approve the merger agreement. For a detailed discussion of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, see The Merger Agreement beginning on page 55. As discussed in the section entitled The Merger HCIC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors, after careful consideration, the HCIC board of directors approved the merger agreement. The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to be advisable and in the best interest of HCIC and the HCIC shareholders.

Required Vote

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the HCIC special meeting. If your shares of HCIC common stock are present at the HCIC special meeting but are not voted on the merger proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the merger proposal, each will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy card and fail to attend the HCIC special meeting, or if you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of HCIC common stock in favor of the merger proposal, your shares of HCIC common stock will not be voted, and this will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal, except to the extent this results in there being insufficient shares present at the HCIC special meeting to establish a quorum.

The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger proposal.

Proposal 2: Adjournment Proposal

HCIC shareholders are being asked to adjourn the HCIC special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement if there are insufficient votes at the time of such adjournment to approve the merger proposal.

If at the HCIC special meeting there are an insufficient number of shares of HCIC common stock present in person or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the merger proposal, HCIC may move to adjourn the HCIC special meeting in order to enable the HCIC board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the merger proposal. If the HCIC shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, HCIC could adjourn the HCIC special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from HCIC shareholders who have previously voted. If the date of the adjournment is not announced at the HCIC special meeting or a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a new notice of the adjourned meeting will be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting.

Required Vote

Approval of the HCIC adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of HCIC common stock cast at the special meeting favoring the adjournment proposal to exceed the votes cast opposing the adjournment proposal. If your shares of HCIC common stock are present at the HCIC special meeting but are not voted on the adjournment proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the adjournment proposal, each will have no effect on the vote on the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy card and fail to attend the HCIC special meeting, or if you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of HCIC common stock in favor of the adjournment proposal, your shares of HCIC common stock will not be voted, but this will not have an effect on the vote to approve the adjournment proposal except to the extent this results in there being insufficient shares present at the HCIC special meeting to establish a quorum.

The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement included as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Terms of the Merger

The board of directors of each of Simmons and HCIC have unanimously approved the merger agreement. The HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends approval of the merger agreement by HCIC shareholders. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition of HCIC by Simmons through the merger of HCIC with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger, shares of HCIC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive (1) cash in an amount equal to $181.47 per share, which we refer to as the Cash Consideration, and (2) 4.8393 shares, or the exchange ratio, of Simmons common stock per share, which we refer to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. No fractional shares of Simmons common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of HCIC common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

HCIC shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement beginning on page 55 for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to consummation of the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

First South Bank has been providing financial products and services to its customers since 1903 when it was chartered as a state non-member bank under the name Hardeman County Savings Bank. HCIC has grown by establishing new bank branches in West Tennessee communities as well as expanding its insurance agency operations into Middle Tennessee resulting in a $476.7 million organization as of December 31, 2016.

As HCIC has grown, it has funded its growth through its retained earnings. HCIC also has been successful attracting strong management and other personnel to operate effectively. Over the years, the HCIC board of directors and management have focused on continuing the growth and strength of HCIC and discussed often at regular board meetings and strategic planning sessions the various alternatives to funding this growth and meeting the demands of its customers and market area. At the same time, the HCIC board of directors and management have been aware of federal bank supervisory policy, which is increasing the regulatory and compliance costs of doing business and lowering the return on equity to shareholders.

The HCIC board of directors and management have discussed on a periodic basis how HCIC can create liquidity for its shareholders. As a privately held, non-publicly traded company with its common stock held by a small number of shareholders, the shares of HCIC common stock are rarely traded, and there is no public trading market. In addition, as shares of HCIC common stock pass from generation to generation, there is an increasing need for the shareholders to be able to sell their shares or at least establish a market value for estate planning purposes.

In order to address needs for additional equity, management and personnel support and succession, challenges such as regulatory burdens, and liquidity for its shareholders, management of HCIC began in early 2015, investigating and discussing various alternatives to addressing these needs such as seeking a partner with significant capital, a successful management team, and a community bank orientation. After the most recent economic recession, the HCIC board of directors and management saw the number of acquisitions in the financial services industry increasing, and if HCIC wanted to participate in a merger process, there seemed to be an increasing need to act sooner than later.

On March 12, 2015, certain members of HCIC management held a meeting in Jackson, Tennessee, with representatives of Olsen Palmer, an investment banking firm, to discuss a possible engagement of

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Olsen Palmer to assist HCIC in reviewing potential sale opportunities and seeking potential acquirers. On March 23, 2015, representatives of Olsen Palmer met with Simmons management in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, to determine the interest that Simmons might have in acquiring HCIC. As a result of these two meetings, a meeting between certain members of the respective management teams of HCIC and Simmons was arranged and held in Memphis, Tennessee, on May 12, 2015.

Following this meeting, representatives of Simmons and HCIC continued to have periodic telephonic discussions between May 2015 and June 2015. A second meeting between representatives of HCIC and Simmons was held in Nashville, Tennessee, on June 29, 2015, where a potential acquisition of HCIC was discussed further.

At the same meeting in Nashville, representatives of Olsen Palmer and HCIC management met privately and discussed their fiduciary obligation to initiate some conversations with other potential acquirers. Over the course of the next 12 months, conversations and meetings were held with at least three other potential acquirers. Ultimately, these other potential acquirers were dismissed by HCIC when it became evident that the discussions and potential valuation of the offer being proposed by Simmons would be higher than what these other potential acquirers were willing to pay as a purchase price for the shares of HCIC along with other employee retention and customer service issues. Two of these other potential acquirers eventually gave verbal indications of interest on a potential purchase price for HCIC while the third presented a written letter of intent, but neither the verbal indications of interest nor this letter of intent were acceptable to HCIC.

On August 7, 2015, HCIC entered into a confidentiality agreement with Simmons, and the parties thereafter began sharing confidential information subject to such agreement to continue their potential merger discussions. On December 18, 2015, Simmons provided a verbal indication of interest in offering a combination of Simmons common stock and cash consideration for all the shares of HCIC. After a number of months of further conversations between Simmons and HCIC, Simmons provided a written letter of intent on March 25, 2016, to HCIC with a higher valuation including Simmons common stock and cash consideration. Discussions continued between HCIC and Simmons, including a meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, on May 1, 2016, between representatives of Olsen Palmer and representatives of Simmons.

On June 6, 2016, representatives of Olsen Palmer met with representatives of management of HCIC in Charleston, South Carolina, in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Tennessee Bankers Association being held there. They discussed further valuation topics and various strategic options. Management of HCIC asked the representatives of Olsen Palmer to seek a revised written letter of intent from Simmons. On June 13, 2016, Simmons submitted to HCIC a revised written letter of intent, but this initial letter of intent was never accepted by HCIC.

During July 2016, HCIC management considered the revised letter of intent from Simmons. HCIC management also considered whether to continue any discussions with other parties and explore other strategic options. On July 23 and 24, 2016, representatives of Olsen Palmer discussed by telephone with HCIC management the letter of intent submitted by Simmons and other alternatives. As a result of these discussions, HCIC management decided to continue discussions only with Simmons in acquiring HCIC to determine if an acceptable agreement could be reached.

On August 16, 2016, as a result of further conversations between the parties, Simmons submitted another revised letter of intent to HCIC for review. On August 17, 2016, counsel for both Simmons and HCIC exchanged communications to clarify the terms of the revised letter of intent. This revised letter of intent offered 800,000 shares of Simmons common stock and an aggregate of $30 million in cash for all of the shares of HCIC common stock. On August 18, 2016, the HCIC board of directors met for the first time to specifically consider the offer presented by Simmons in the revised letter of intent. At this meeting, management of HCIC presented all of the strategic options that management of HCIC had considered. As a result of this discussion, the HCIC board of directors unanimously approved the revised letter of intent, which was then executed by HCIC on August 19, 2016. The HCIC board of directors also decided to formally engage Olsen Palmer for its financial advisory services and the issuance of a fairness opinion on the final terms of the proposed merger. An engagement letter between Olsen Palmer and HCIC was executed on September 8, 2016.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

During September and October 2016, due diligence lists were exchanged between the parties, an electronic data room was established to exchange documents, questions and answers were exchanged by the parties verbally and electronically, and due diligence visits were conducted by both parties. These visits included HCIC management and legal and financial advisors traveling to Little Rock, Arkansas, on October 25, 2016, to meet with and ask questions of Simmons management. Simmons personnel also scheduled visits to Jackson, Tennessee, between October 3 and 7, 2016 to conduct on-site due diligence on HCIC.

After most of the due diligence investigation had been completed, Simmons presented HCIC with the first draft of a definitive merger agreement on October 27, 2016. Between October 27 and November 16, 2016, the specific terms of this merger agreement were negotiated by the parties including their respective financial advisors and counsel.

The HCIC board of directors met in a special meeting on November 17, 2016, and received a presentation by management of HCIC of the terms of the proposed merger and the results of due diligence of Simmons. HCIC's counsel provided the HCIC board of directors with both a written and oral analysis of the proposed merger agreement from a legal perspective. Olsen Palmer then made a detailed presentation concerning its evaluation and analysis of the fairness of the consideration to be paid by Simmons to HCIC's shareholders from a financial point of view as of the date of this meeting and confirmed its opinion in writing. Directors asked questions of management, Olsen Palmer, and HCIC's counsel regarding the terms of the merger and the merger agreement. After this discussion, and considering various factors, including the factors described under HCIC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of HCIC's Board of Directors, the HCIC board of directors approved unanimously the merger agreement and recommended its approval to the HCIC shareholders and the calling of a meeting of the HCIC shareholders to consider and vote on the merger agreement upon the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

At this meeting of the HCIC board of directors, the HCIC board of directors authorized the officers of HCIC to take all necessary steps which may be required of them or which may be in the best interest of HCIC, to complete all transactions necessary or deemed necessary by the officers of HCIC with regard, but not limited, to the filing of all necessary regulatory applications, the negotiation of the final terms of the merger agreement or any other necessary agreements, and all other legal, regulatory, and other steps that may become necessary in order to implement the purposes of the resolutions of the HCIC board of directors, including consummation of the merger.

On November 17, 2016, the Simmons board of directors held a meeting to consider the terms of the proposed merger. Prior to the meeting, the directors received copies of the draft merger agreement and of the other draft transaction documents and a summary of the terms thereof from Simmons management. At the meeting, members of Simmons management reported on the status of due diligence and negotiations with HCIC. At the meeting, Simmons' legal counsel reviewed with the Simmons board of directors its fiduciary duties and reviewed the key terms of the merger agreement and related agreements (including the voting agreements), as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, based on the discussion materials that had previously been provided to the Simmons board of directors, including a summary of the provisions relating to governance of the combined company and the provisions relating to employee matters.

After considering the proposed terms of the merger agreement and the various presentations of its advisors, and taking into consideration the matters discussed during that meeting and prior meetings of the Simmons board of directors, the Simmons board of directors unanimously determined that the merger was consistent with Simmons' business strategies and in the best interests of Simmons and Simmons shareholders and the directors voted unanimously to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

A press release announcing the transaction was released by Simmons on November 17, 2016, and Simmons held an investor conference call the following day.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

HCIC s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the HCIC Board of Directors

After careful consideration, the HCIC board of directors determined that it was advisable and in the best interests of HCIC and its shareholders for HCIC to enter into the merger agreement with Simmons. Accordingly, the HCIC board of directors unanimously recommends that HCIC shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger proposal.

The HCIC board of directors has considered the terms and provisions of the merger agreement and concluded that they are fair to the shareholders of HCIC and that the merger is in the best interests of HCIC and its shareholders.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the HCIC board of directors consulted with management, as well as with HCIC s financial and legal advisors, and considered a variety of factors, including the following:

- its familiarity with HCIC s consolidated business, operations, earnings, and financial conditions;
- its review, based in part by the presentation by management and HCIC s legal and financial advisors, of the proposal, including a review of the business, operations, earnings, and financial conditions of Simmons, as well as the potential results from a merger with Simmons;
- its review of possible affiliation partners other than Simmons, the prospects of such other possible affiliation partners, and the likelihood of any such affiliation;
- the consideration being offered to HCIC shareholders in relation to the book value per share, earnings per share and projected earnings per share of HCIC;
- the results that could be expected to be obtained by HCIC if it continued to operate independently and the potential future value of HCIC common stock compared to the value of the Merger Consideration offered by Simmons;
- the implied value of the Merger Consideration offered by Simmons and the uncertainty whether or when the HCIC common stock would attain a value equal to implied value of the Merger Consideration;
- its review of alternatives to such a transaction (including the alternatives of remaining independent and growing internally, remaining independent for a period of time and then selling, remaining independent and growing through future acquisitions) and whether such alternatives could result in a value for HCIC shareholders that equal or exceed the Merger Consideration;
- the recent business combinations involving financial institutions either announced or completed during the past few years in the United States, the State of Tennessee, and contiguous states, and the effect of such combinations on increased competitive conditions in the HCIC s market area;
- a comparison of the proposal from Simmons to such recent business combinations involving financial institutions;
- increasing regulatory and statutory burdens (including increased costs, time commitments, earnings opportunities, among other burdens) on HCIC and its subsidiaries as a community banking organization in general;
- the complementary aspects of HCIC s and Simmons businesses, including customer focus, business orientation and compatibility of the companies cultures and management and operating styles;
- Simmons successful track record, including, among other things, with respect to the integration of acquisitions;
- its assessment of the likelihood that the merger would be completed in a timely manner and that the management team of the combined company would be able to successfully integrate and operate the businesses of the combined company after the merger;

the financial analyses presented by Olsen Palmer to the HCIC board of directors, and the opinion delivered to the HCIC board of directors by Olsen Palmer to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion, and subject to and based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of HCIC common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to HCIC shareholders;

the greater market capitalization and greater anticipated trading liquidity of Simmons common stock after the transaction in the event HCIC shareholders desired to sell the shares of Simmons common stock to be received by them upon completion of the merger;

the effects of the merger on HCIC's employees, including the prospects for continued employment and the severance and other benefits agreed to be provided to HCIC employees;

management succession alternatives for HCIC; and the opportunity for HCIC shareholders to exchange their shares of HCIC common stock for shares of Simmons common stock resulting in the ownership of a publicly traded stock currently paying a quarterly dividend.

The HCIC board of directors also considered the potential risks associated with the merger in connection with its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including the challenges of integrating HCIC's businesses, operations and employees with those of Simmons, the need to obtain regulatory approvals in order to complete the transaction, and the risks associated with the operations of the combined company. The HCIC board of directors also considered that the stock portion of the Merger Consideration was fixed at 4.8393 of a share of Simmons common stock and, by its nature, would not adjust upwards to compensate for declines, or downwards to compensate for increases, in Simmons stock price prior to completion of the merger. The HCIC board of directors also believed the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' respective representations and warranties, the conditions to closing and termination provisions, provided adequate assurances as to Simmons' obligation and ability to consummate the merger in a timely manner, without any extraordinary conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the HCIC board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the HCIC board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the HCIC board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the HCIC board of directors did not consider it practical to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The HCIC board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of HCIC's management and HCIC's legal and financial advisors. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the HCIC board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. The HCIC board of directors relied on the experience and expertise of its financial advisors for quantitative analysis of the financial terms of the merger. See "Opinion of HCIC's Financial Advisor" below. It should also be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of the HCIC board of directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" on page 21.

For the reasons set forth above, the HCIC board of directors has adopted unanimously the merger agreement and believes that it is in the best interests of HCIC and the HCIC shareholders and unanimously recommends that the HCIC shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

Opinion of HCIC's Financial Advisor

HCIC engaged Olsen Palmer to render financial advisory services to HCIC, including a written opinion to the HCIC board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of HCIC common stock of the consideration to be paid in the proposed merger. HCIC selected Olsen Palmer because Olsen Palmer is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger. As part of its investment banking business, Olsen Palmer is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

At the meeting held on November 17, 2016, at which the HCIC board of directors evaluated the proposed merger, Olsen Palmer reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Olsen Palmer as set forth in such opinion, the consideration to be paid in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of HCIC common stock. The HCIC board of directors approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex III to this document and is incorporated herein by reference, and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Olsen Palmer in preparing the opinion. Olsen Palmer has consented to the inclusion of its opinion in this proxy statement/prospectus (attached as Annex III hereto).

Olsen Palmer's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the HCIC board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in the merger to the holders of HCIC common stock. It did not address the underlying business decision of HCIC to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement. Olsen Palmer's opinion did not and does not constitute a recommendation to the HCIC board of directors in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any HCIC shareholder or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter, nor does it constitute a recommendation on whether or not any such shareholder should enter into a voting, shareholders' or affiliates' agreement with respect to the merger or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder.

Summary Opinion of Olsen Palmer LLC

Neither Olsen Palmer nor the individuals involved in providing Olsen Palmer's fairness opinion has any present or contemplated future ownership interest in HCIC. Pursuant to the terms of its engagement with HCIC, Olsen Palmer received a fee for providing the fairness opinion and, upon completion of the merger, will receive a success fee for its financial advisory services. In addition, HCIC also agreed to indemnify Olsen Palmer against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Olsen Palmer has not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to HCIC or Simmons during the two-year period prior to November 17, 2016. Olsen Palmer may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to HCIC and/or Simmons in the future, for which Olsen Palmer may receive compensation.

In connection with its opinion, Olsen Palmer made such reviews, analyses and inquiries as it deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. Among other things, Olsen Palmer reviewed:

Olsen Palmer also discussed with certain members of senior management of HCIC and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of HCIC.

In performing its review, and for purposes of rendering its opinion, Olsen Palmer relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to Olsen Palmer by HCIC or their representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Olsen Palmer and has assumed, without independent verification, such accuracy and completeness of all such information. With HCIC's consent, Olsen Palmer relied upon the advice HCIC has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger that is contemplated by the merger agreement and Olsen Palmer assumed that all such advice is correct.

Olsen Palmer's opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of November 17, 2016. Events occurring after the November 17, 2016 could materially affect Olsen Palmer's opinion. Olsen Palmer has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after November 17, 2016.

Olsen Palmer's fairness opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the HCIC board of directors or to any shareholder of either HCIC or Simmons as to how any such member of such board or any shareholder should vote at any meeting called to consider and vote upon the merger. Olsen Palmer expresses no opinion as to the fairness of the merger consideration to the creditors or other constituencies of HCIC. Olsen Palmer's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the HCIC shareholders and does not address the underlying business decision of HCIC to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for HCIC. Olsen Palmer's opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on the part of Olsen Palmer to any party or person. Olsen Palmer's fairness opinion was not reviewed or issued by a fairness opinion committee. Olsen Palmer has not been requested to opine as to, and the fairness opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the merger to any one class or group of HCIC's or any other party's security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of HCIC's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents), or (ii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the merger, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the merger consideration or otherwise.

Several analytical methodologies have been employed and no one method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached by Olsen Palmer. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques. The overall conclusions Olsen Palmer reached are based on all the analysis and factors presented, taken as a whole, and also on application of Olsen Palmer's own experience and judgment. Such conclusions may involve significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. Olsen Palmer therefore gives no opinion as to the value or merit standing alone of any one or more parts of the analyses.

The following summarizes the material financial analyses that were considered by Olsen Palmer in rendering its opinion and that were provided by Olsen Palmer to the HCIC board of directors on November 17, 2016. No company or transaction used in the analyses described below is identical or directly comparable HCIC or the contemplated merger.

Selected Companies Analysis. Olsen Palmer analyzed the relative valuation multiples as calculated by SNL Financial LC of 19 publicly-traded banks (including banks traded over-the-counter) headquartered in U.S. with total assets between $425 million and $475 million and with a return on average assets over the last 12 months of 0.50% to 1.00%, including:

Ledyard Financial Group, Inc.
CBT Financial Corporation
Centric Financial Corporation
American Riviera Bank
Greater Hudson Bank
First BancTrust Corporation
Kinderhook Bank Corporation
Guaranty Bancorp, Inc.
Wayne Savings Bancshares, Inc.
Allegheny Valley Bancorp, Inc.
Southwest Georgia Financial Corporation
Citizens First Corporation
Glenville Bank Holding Company, Inc.
FirstAtlantic Financial Holdings, Inc.
South Atlantic Bancshares, Inc.
Consumers Bancorp, Inc.
CITBA Financial Corporation
Athens Bancshares Corporation
United Bancorp, Inc.

Olsen Palmer analyzed various financial multiples for each company as calculated by SNL Financial LC including trading price per share to tangible common equity per share, trading price per share to last 12 months' earnings per share, trading price per share as a percentage of total assets per share, and the core deposit premium implied by the market capitalization. Olsen Palmer reviewed the mean, median, high and low values for each metric of the selected companies and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for HCIC implied by the merger consideration. Furthermore, Olsen Palmer selected financial multiples for each metric based on professional judgment and applied the selected financial multiples to HCIC net income from July 2015 through June 2016, tangible common equity as of June 30, 2016, total assets as of June 30, 2016, and core deposits as of June 30, 2016 and determined the implied equity value of HCIC common stock and

Olsen Palmer analyzed various financial multiples for each transaction as calculated by SNL Financial LC including deal value to tangible common equity, deal value to last 12 months earnings, deal value to total assets, and the core deposit premium implied by the deal value. Olsen Palmer reviewed the mean, median, high and low values for each metric of the selected transactions and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for HCIC implied by the merger consideration. Furthermore, Olsen Palmer selected financial multiples for each metric based on professional judgment and applied the selected financial multiples to HCIC's net income from July 2015 through June 2016, tangible common equity as of June 30, 2016, total assets as of June 30, 2016, and core deposits as of June 30, 2016 and determined the implied equity value of HCIC common stock and then compared those implied equity values to the merger consideration of $77.2 million (based on Simmons closing stock price on November 15, 2016). The results of the selected transactions analysis are summarized below:

	Deal Value to Last 12 Months Earnings		Deal Value to Tangible Common Equity		Deal Value to Assets (%)		Core Deposit Premium Implied by the Deal Value

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Olsen Palmer analyzed the discounted present value of HCIC's projected free cash flows for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2022 under an acquisition scenario. Olsen Palmer estimated cash flows based on dividendable common equity, defined as Tier 1 Capital in excess of a minimum 9.0% Tier 1 Capital Leverage ratio. Olsen Palmer used calendar year 2022 as the final year for the analysis. Olsen Palmer applied price to earnings multiples, ranging from 13.7x to 15.7x, to HCIC's calendar year 2022 net income in order to derive a range of terminal values for HCIC.

The projected cash flows and terminal value were discounted using rates ranging from 11.5% to 13.5%, which reflected the cost of equity capital estimated for HCIC using the Ibbotson discount rate build-up method based on the sum of a risk-free rate, equity risk premium, and size premium. Olsen Palmer reviewed the range of equity values derived in the discounted cash flow analysis and compared them to the merger consideration of $77.2 million (based on Simmons closing stock price on November 15, 2016). The results of the discounted cash flow analysis are summarized below:

	Equity Value ($MM)
Minimum	$ 59.9
Maximum	$ 73.6
Merger Consideration ($MM)	$ 77.2

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Conclusion. Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and in reliance thereon, it is Olsen Palmer's opinion that, as of November 17, 2016, the merger consideration to be received by the shareholders of HCIC for all of the shares of HCIC common stock in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Olsen Palmer's Relationships

Olsen Palmer is acting as HCIC's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee in an amount equal to 1.25% of the aggregate merger consideration, which transaction fee is due and payable upon the effective time of the merger. Olsen Palmer received a fee of $75,000 from HCIC as a result of rendering its opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee that will become due and payable upon the effective time of the merger. HCIC has also agreed to indemnify Olsen Palmer against certain liabilities arising out of Olsen Palmer's engagement and to reimburse Olsen Palmer for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement.

Simmons' Reasons for the Merger

Simmons believes that the acquisition of HCIC provides an excellent opportunity to increase the scale and efficiency of its operations in western Tennessee. The acquisition also provides Simmons a significant opportunity to generate additional revenue by providing its full suite of banking, mortgage banking, wealth management and insurance services to HCIC's markets as well as leverage Simmons' operating platform. In addition, the acquisition of HCIC will strengthen the breadth of Simmons' loan products and capabilities. The Simmons board of directors approved the merger agreement after Simmons' senior management discussed with the Simmons board of directors a number of factors, including those described above and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of HCIC. The Simmons board of directors did not consider it practicable, and did not attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. The Simmons board of directors viewed its position as being based on all of the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

Management and Board of Directors of Simmons After the Merger

The directors and officers of Simmons immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the directors and officers of the surviving corporation of the merger. Following the consummation of the merger, First South Bank will operate as a separate bank subsidiary of Simmons until it is merged with and into Simmons Bank. During this period, Mr. Woodside will continue to be Chairman of First South Bank. Following the merger of First South Bank into Simmons Bank, Mr. Woodside will be appointed to the board of directors of Simmons Bank.

Information about the current Simmons directors and executive officers can be found in the documents listed under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 85.

Interests of HCIC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendations of the HCIC board of directors that HCIC shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal, HCIC shareholders should be aware that HCIC directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as shareholders of HCIC. The HCIC board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Employment Relationships

HCIC previously entered into employment agreements, or the HCIC employment agreements, with C. Edward Woodside, Chairman, C. Hunter Simmons, President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael McGregor, Chief Financial Officer of First South Bank, and Kirk Goehring, Chief Lending Officer and Senior Vice President of First South Bank. These employment agreements provide for certain stated salaries and benefits, and include non-compete provisions that survive termination for three years within a 50 mile radius of any banking offices of First South Bank. In connection with the merger, HCIC will terminate all of the HCIC employment agreements except for the agreement with Mr. Goehring, which will be amended as of the closing of the merger. In addition, HCIC will pay Messrs. Woodside, Simmons, McGregor, and Goehring the amounts set forth below under their respective Stock Appreciation Rights agreements, and HCIC will award Messrs. Simmons, McGregor, and Goehring 1,314, 1,095, and 219 shares, respectively, of HCIC common stock.

It is expected that immediately after the consummation of the merger, the current executive officers of HCIC, except for Mr. Goehring, will be employed by Simmons as at will employees. Mr. Simmons will act as the Jackson Community Chairman for Simmons Bank and will report to Tony Gregory, the Tennessee Regional Chairman of Simmons Bank, Mr. Goehring will act as the Community President for the Jackson region for Simmons Bank and will report to Mr. Simmons. It is anticipated that Messrs. Woodside, Simmons, McGregor and Goehring, as well as some other officers of HCIC or First South Bank, may enter into non-competition/non-solicitation agreements with Simmons which will provide that such officers may not compete with Simmons, solicit or accept business from Simmons customers, or solicit Simmons employees to terminate their employment with Simmons, for at least one year after leaving Simmons. The non-competition/non-solicitation agreements are standard agreements entered into by all Simmons employees.

It is anticipated that many HCIC employees will continue to be employed by Simmons after the sale. All such employees will receive salaries, and they will be able to participate in all Simmons employee benefit plans, including the Simmons 401(k) plan. HCIC will terminate its 401(k) plan in conjunction with the sale. To the extent permitted under Simmons benefit plans, First South Bank employees will receive credit for prior service for purposes of eligibility, vesting, and benefit accrual, and waiting periods or exclusions of pre-existing conditions will be waived. Any displaced employees of First South Bank will be eligible to apply for positions with Simmons and if not placed in another position with Simmons, will be eligible for the existing Simmons severance program.

HCIC has entered into Stock Appreciation Rights (SARs) agreements with C. Edward Woodside, C. Hunter Simmons, Michael McGregor, and Kirk Goehring. The SARs provide for various vested benefits to be paid to these employees upon a disability, change in control, hardship, death, or other factors. Some of these benefits have been previously paid. Upon the closing of the merger, a change in control will be deemed to occur, and payments will be made at that time based upon the consideration to be paid to the HCIC shareholders, which is subject to change based on the value of Simmons common stock. Assuming the value of a share of Simmons common stock at the time of the consummation of the merger is the same as the value of a share of Simmons common stock as of March 9, 2017, such payments to these employees would be approximately as follows:

C. Edward Woodside	$2,282,167.84
C. Hunter Simmons	$2,161,673.84
Michael McGregor	$759,949.42
Kirk Goehring	$250,000.00

There are two bank-owned life insurance (BOLI) policies each on C. Edward Woodside, C. Hunter Simmons, Michael McGregor, and Kirk Goehring. These policies were purchased for the purpose of funding the SARs agreements. These are not split dollar agreements, so the individual employees do not receive any direct benefit from the proceeds of the BOLI. The cash value of these policies on February 28, 2017, was $7,786,908.29, and the death benefit at that time was $18,773,890.95.

HCIC Share Bonuses.

At the same meeting of the HCIC board of directors where the merger agreement with Simmons was approved on November 17, 2016, the HCIC board of directors gave C. Edward Woodside, as Chairman of the Board, the authority to allocate 3,177 shares of HCIC common stock as a bonus to certain employees and directors at his discretion for their service to HCIC and for certain employees who have agreed to terminate their employment agreements with HCIC as a condition to the merger agreement. Neither Mr. Woodside nor his immediate family will receive any of these shares. These shares will be issued just prior to the closing of the merger and will receive the same consideration in the merger as the other outstanding shares of HCIC. The issuance of these shares will increase the total outstanding shares of HCIC from 162,134 to 165,311 at the time of the closing of the merger.

Service as a Director of Simmons Bank

Following the consummation of the merger, Mr. Woodside will remain as Chairman of First South Bank until First South Bank merges with and into Simmons Bank, at which time Mr. Woodside will be appointed to the board of directors of Simmons Bank. As a member of the board of directors of Simmons Bank, Mr. Woodside will be entitled to receive the same compensation as the other members of the board of directors of Simmons Bank.

Security Ownership of HCIC Directors and Executive Officers

As of the HCIC record date, there were 162,134 shares of HCIC common stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

Approximately 91% of those voting shares were owned and entitled to be voted by HCIC or First South Bank directors and executive officers and their affiliates. In addition, as of the HCIC record date, 131,376 shares of HCIC common stock, 81% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding, are subject to voting agreements. See Support and Non-Competition Agreements below for more information.

Support and Non-Competition Agreements

Concurrently with execution of the merger agreement, certain of HCIC's directors and officers have entered into a voting agreement to vote his or her shares in favor of the merger proposal and against certain competing acquisition proposals or other actions that would frustrate the purposes of, prevent or materially delay completion of the merger, as well as certain other restrictions with respect to the voting and transfer of such shareholder's shares of HCIC common stock. HCIC also expects these shareholders will also vote in favor of the HCIC adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate. These shareholders have also agreed to customary non-competition and non-solicitation covenants that restrict such shareholder's ability to engage in the business of commercial, community, or retail banking business in the state of Tennessee. As of the record date, the HCIC shareholders party to these voting agreements owned and were entitled to vote approximately 131,376 shares of HCIC common stock, representing approximately 81% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on that date. The voting agreement for one shareholder provides that, if, at any time prior to the HCIC special meeting, HCIC has received an acquisition proposal that is considered by the HCIC board of directors to be superior to the merger, (1) the shareholder agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) only 43,309 of the shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder (representing approximately 26.7% of the total shares of HCIC common stock outstanding on the record date) in favor of the merger proposal and against any competing proposal and (2) the shareholder agrees to vote (or cause to be voted) the remaining shares of HCIC common stock owned by such shareholder with respect to the merger proposal (or any competing proposal) in a manner that is proportionate to the manner in which all shares of HCIC common stock that are not subject to a voting agreement are voted with respect to the merger proposal. Because the shareholders that are party to these voting agreements hold more than 50% of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock, the merger will be approved, regardless of how HCIC's other shareholders vote on the merger proposal unless there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considered to be superior to the merger in which case approximately 45.6% of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock will vote in favor of the merger proposal pursuant to these voting agreements. As a result, if there is an acquisition proposal that the HCIC board of directors considers to be superior to the merger, assuming all other shareholders not party to voting agreements vote upon the merger, or the Unconstrained Shareholders, the merger will be approved if at least 3,349 shares of HCIC common stock, or 2.0% of the total outstanding shares of HCIC common stock as of the record date, held by the Unconstrained Shareholders vote in favor of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that for six years after the effective time of the merger, Simmons will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the present and former directors and officers of HCIC and its subsidiaries against all liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of such person's services in such capacities to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and HCIC's governing documents in effect on the date of the merger agreement (including any provisions relating to the advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any litigation) if (1) Simmons board of directors determines in that (a) the indemnified party acted in good faith and in the best interests of HCIC or First South Bank and (b) the payment will not materially affect the Simmons safety and soundness; (2) such payment is not prohibited by applicable FDIC regulations; and (3) the indemnified party agrees to reimburse Simmons, to the extent not covered by permissible insurance, for payments made in an action by a federal banking agency in which the indemnified party is assessed a civil money penalty, is prohibited from banking, or is required to cease an action or perform an affirmative action.

48

The merger agreement requires Simmons to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger HCIC's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous than the current policy (or, with the consent of HCIC prior to the effective time of the merger, any other policy), with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and covering such individuals who are currently covered by such insurance. In lieu of the insurance described in the preceding sentence, prior to the effective time of the merger, Simmons, or HCIC, in consultation with Simmons, may obtain a six-year tail prepaid policy providing coverage equivalent to such insurance. See The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements D&O Indemnification and Insurance beginning on page 64.

Dissenters' Rights in the Merger

Introductory Information

General. Dissenters' rights with respect to HCIC common stock are governed by the TBCA. HCIC shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and to obtain payment of the fair value of their shares (as specified in the statute) in the event the stock purchase agreement is consummated. Strict compliance with the dissent procedures is mandatory. Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, HCIC or Simmons could elect to terminate the merger agreement even if it is approved by HCIC shareholders, thus cancelling dissenters' rights.

The term fair value means the value of a share of HCIC's outstanding common stock immediately before the effective date of the merger, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

HCIC urges any HCIC shareholder who contemplates exercising his, her or its right to dissent to read carefully the provisions of Chapter 23 of the TBCA, which are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II. A more detailed discussion of the provisions of the statute is included there. The discussion describes the steps that each HCIC shareholder must take to exercise his, her or its right to dissent. Each HCIC shareholder who wishes to dissent should read both the summary and the full text of the law. HCIC cannot give any HCIC shareholder legal advice. To completely understand this law, each HCIC shareholder may want, and HCIC encourages any HCIC shareholder seeking to dissent, to consult with his, her or its legal advisor. Any HCIC shareholder who wishes to dissent, should not send in a signed proxy unless she, he or it marks his, her or its proxy to vote against the merger or such shareholder will lose the right to dissent.

Address for Notices. Send or deliver any written notice or demand required concerning any HCIC shareholder's exercise of his, her or its dissenters' rights to Michael McGregor at Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. at the following address 1862 Highway 45 Bypass, Jackson, Tennessee 38305.

Act Carefully. HCIC urges any HCIC shareholder who wishes to dissent to act carefully. HCIC cannot and does not accept the risk of late or undelivered notices or demands. A dissenting HCIC shareholder may call HCIC at (731) 668-2265 and ask for Michael McGregor to deliver confirmation that his, her or its notice or demand has been received. If his, her or its notices or demands are not timely received by HCIC, then such shareholder will not be entitled to exercise his, her or its dissenters' rights. HCIC shareholders bear the risk of non-delivery and of untimely delivery.

If any HCIC shareholder intends to dissent, or thinks that dissenting might be in his, her or its best interests, such shareholder should read Annex II carefully.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Summary of Chapter 23 of the TBCA Dissenters Rights

The following is a summary of Chapter 23 of the TBCA and the procedures that a shareholder must follow to dissent from the proposed merger agreement and to perfect his, her or its dissenters rights and receive cash rather than shares of Simmons common stock, if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23 of the TBCA, which is reprinted in full as part of this Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus. Annex II should be reviewed carefully by any shareholder who wishes to perfect his, her or its dissenters rights. Failure to strictly comply with the procedures set forth in Chapter 23 of the TBCA will, by law, result in the loss of dissenters rights. It may be prudent for a person considering whether to dissent to obtain professional counsel.

If the proposed merger is completed, any HCIC shareholder who has properly perfected his, her or its statutory dissenters rights in accordance with Chapter 23 of the TBCA has the right to obtain, in cash, payment of the fair value of such shareholder s shares of HCIC common stock. By statute, the fair value is determined immediately prior to the completion of the merger and excludes any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

To exercise dissenters rights under Chapter 23 of the TBCA, a HCIC shareholder must:

deliver to HCIC, before the shareholder vote is taken at the HCIC special meeting, written notice of his, her or its intent to demand payment for his, her or its shares of HCIC common stock if the merger is completed; and not vote his, her or its shares in favor of approving the merger.

A HCIC shareholder of record who fails to satisfy both of these two requirements is not entitled to payment for his, her or its shares of HCIC common stock under Chapter 23 of the TBCA. In addition, any HCIC shareholder who returns a signed proxy but fails to provide instructions as to the manner in which such shares are to be voted will be deemed to have voted in favor of approving the merger and will not be entitled to assert dissenters rights.

A HCIC shareholder may assert dissenters rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his, her or its name only if she, he or it dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial shareholder and notifies HCIC in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf she, he or it is asserting dissenters rights. The rights of such a partial dissenter are determined as if the shares as to which she, he or it dissents and his, her or its other shares are registered in the names of different HCIC shareholders.

If the merger is approved at the HCIC special meeting, HCIC must deliver a written dissenters notice, or the HCIC dissenters notice, to all HCIC shareholders who satisfied the two requirements of Chapter 23 of the TBCA described above. The dissenters notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the date that the merger is completed and must:

supply a form for demanding payment that includes the first date of any announcement to the shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed merger on or about, November 17, 2016, requires that the HCIC shareholder asserting dissenters rights certify whether or not she, he or it acquired beneficial ownership of such shares prior to said date, and requires that the HCIC shareholder asserting dissenters rights certify that such shareholder did not vote for the proposed merger;

state where the demand for payment must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

set a date by which HCIC must receive the demand for payment (which date may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the dissenters notice is delivered) and state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand payment with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by such specified date;

state the corporation's estimate of the fair value of shares;

state that if requested in writing, the corporation will provide to the shareholders so requesting, within 10 days after the date the demand for payment is due the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them;

state the date by which the notice to withdraw under Section 48-23-204 of the TBCA must be received, which date must be within 20 days after the date the demand payment is due; and be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 23, if not previously provided to such HCIC shareholder (set forth in Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus).

A HCIC shareholder of record on the HCIC record date who receives the HCIC dissenters' notice must demand payment, certify that she, he or it acquired beneficial ownership of such shares prior to the date set forth in the HCIC dissenters' notice and deposit his, her or its certificates in accordance with the terms of the HCIC dissenters' notice. HCIC may elect to withhold payment required by Chapter 23 from the dissenting shareholder unless such shareholder was the beneficial owner of the shares prior to the first announcement of the principal terms of the proposed merger on or about November 17, 2016. A dissenting shareholder will retain all other rights of a HCIC shareholder until those rights are canceled or modified by the completion of the merger. A HCIC shareholder of record who does not demand payment or deposit his, her or its share certificates where required, each by the date set in the HCIC dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for his, her or its shares under Chapter 23 or otherwise as a result of the merger. A demand for payment may not be withdrawn unless consented to by HCIC.

HCIC may restrict the transfer of any uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the merger is completed.

At the closing of the merger or upon receipt of a demand for payment, whichever is later, HCIC must offer to pay each dissenting shareholder who strictly and fully complied with Chapter 23 of the TBCA the amount that HCIC estimates to be the fair value of his, her or its shares, plus accrued interest from the closing of the merger. The offer of payment must be accompanied by:

- certain recent HCIC financial statements;
- HCIC's estimate of the fair value of the shares and interest due;
- an explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under Section 48-23-209 of the TBCA; and
- a copy of Chapter 23 of the TBCA, if not previously provided to such shareholder.

If the merger is not completed within two months after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, HCIC must return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on the uncertificated shares. If, after such return or release, the merger is completed, HCIC must send a new HCIC dissenters' notice and repeat the payment procedure described above.

If a dissenting HCIC shareholder is dissatisfied with or rejects HCIC's calculation of fair value, such dissenting HCIC shareholder must notify HCIC in writing of his, her or its own estimate of the fair value of those shares and the interest due, and may demand payment of his, her or its estimate, if:

the HCIC shareholder believes that the amount offered or paid by HCIC is less than the fair value of his, her or its shares or that the interest due has been calculated incorrectly;

HCIC fails to make payment within two months after the date set forth for demanding payment; or HCIC, having failed to complete the merger, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within two months after the date set for demanding payment.

A dissenting HCIC shareholder waives his, her or its right to dispute HCIC's calculation of fair value unless such shareholder notifies HCIC of his, her or its demand in writing within one month after HCIC made or offered payment for such person's shares.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If a demand for payment by a HCIC shareholder remains unsettled, HCIC must commence a proceeding in the appropriate court, as specified in Chapter 23 of the TBCA, within two months after receiving the demand for payment, and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If HCIC does not commence the proceeding within two months, HCIC is required to pay each HCIC dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled, the amount demanded. HCIC is required to make all dissenting HCIC shareholders whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding and to serve a copy of the petition upon each HCIC dissenting shareholder. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on fair value. Each dissenting shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of such person's shares plus interest to the date of judgment, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation.

In an appraisal proceeding commenced under Chapter 23 of the TBCA, the court must determine the costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court will assess these costs against HCIC, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenting shareholders to the extent the court finds they acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under Chapter 23 of the TBCA. The court also may assess the fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties against HCIC if the court finds that HCIC did not substantially comply with the requirements of Chapter 23 of the TBCA, or against either HCIC or a dissenting shareholder if the court finds that such party acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by Chapter 23 of the TBCA.

If the court finds that the services of the attorneys for any HCIC dissenting shareholder were of substantial benefit to other HCIC dissenting shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against HCIC, the court may award those attorneys reasonable fees out of the amounts awarded the HCIC dissenting shareholders who were benefitted.

The foregoing does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions of the TBCA relating to statutory dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the dissenters rights provisions of the TBCA, which are reproduced in full in Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus and which are incorporated herein by reference.

If any HCIC shareholder intends to dissent, or if such shareholder believes that dissenting might be in his, her or its best interests, such shareholder should read Annex II carefully.

The newly issued Simmons common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement will be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and freely transferable under the Securities Act.

NASDAQ Listing of Simmons Common Stock

Before the effective time of the merger, Simmons has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Simmons common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

The listing of the shares of Simmons common stock is also a condition to the consummation of the merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Simmons and HCIC have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided, that in no event will Simmons be required to accept any new restriction or condition on Simmons or its subsidiaries which is materially and unreasonably burdensome on Simmons' business or on the business of HCIC or its subsidiaries following the effective time of the merger or which would reduce the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to Simmons to such a degree that Simmons would not have entered into the merger agreement had such condition or restriction been known to it on the date of the merger agreement, which is referred to as a burdensome condition. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve, among others. Simmons and HCIC have filed, or are in the process of filing, the applications, notices, requests and letters necessary to obtain the required regulatory determinations.

Federal Reserve. The transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to approval by the Federal Reserve, pursuant to the BHC Act. Specifically, Simmons has submitted an application pursuant to the BHC Act seeking the prior approval of the Federal Reserve for HCIC to merge with and into Simmons.

The Federal Reserve takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on such applications. These factors include the financial condition and future prospects of the applicant bank holding company, merging bank holding companies, and subsidiary banks (including current and projected capital levels); their managerial resources (including consideration of the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors, and principal shareholders); and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, including the subsidiary banks' records of performance under the Community Reinvestment Act, which we refer to as the CRA. As of their most recent CRA examinations, Simmons First National Bank (the predecessor banking entity for Simmons Bank) and First South Bank had CRA ratings of satisfactory.

The Federal Reserve also is required to consider the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, including a review of the anti-money laundering program of the applicant and the anti-money laundering compliance record of banks to be acquired as part of the transaction. Finally, the Federal Reserve takes into consideration the extent to which the transaction would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system.

In evaluating an application pursuant to the BHC Act, the Federal Reserve may not approve an application if the transaction would result in a monopoly or further any conspiracy or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. The Federal Reserve also may not approve an application if the effect of the transaction may be substantially to lessen competition in any section of the country or in any other manner be in restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve concludes that the transaction's anti-competitive effects are clearly outweighed by its probable effect in meeting the convenience and needs of the community. The Federal Reserve may not approve an application if the applicant has failed to provide the Federal Reserve with adequate assurances that the applicant will make available information on its operations and activities and its affiliates' operations and activities necessary to determine compliance with the BHC Act and other applicable federal banking statutes.

Furthermore, Simmons is required to publish notice of its applications under the BHC Act and to provide the opportunity for public comment on these applications. The Federal Reserve takes into account the views of third party commenters, particularly on the subject of the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Federal Reserve may upon request or upon its own initiative hold a public hearing or meeting to clarify facts or issues raised by the application in order to aid in the Federal Reserve's decision-making process. Any hearing, meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the applications are under review by the Federal Reserve.

Transactions approved under the BHC Act generally may not be completed until 30 days after the approval of the appropriate federal banking agency is received (here, the Federal Reserve), during which time the Department of Justice, which we refer to as the DOJ, may initiate legal action to prevent consummation of the transaction if the DOJ determines the transaction may have a significantly adverse effect on competition. With the approval of the applicable federal agency and the concurrence of the DOJ, the 30-day waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the DOJ could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve.

regarding the transaction's effects on competition. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the transaction may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. To complete the merger, Simmons is required to submit an application to, and receive approval from, the TDFI. The TDFI will review the application to determine whether the merger complies with Tennessee law.

Timing. We cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals and waivers described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of any such regulatory determinations, our ability to obtain the approvals and waivers on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals or waivers. We also cannot assure you that any third party will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot assure you as to its result.

In connection with the submission of our application to the Federal Reserve for approval to consummate the merger, a public comment was submitted to the Federal Reserve. As a result of the public comment, the timing of receipt of the regulatory approvals may be delayed.

Simmons and HCIC believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that we will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that would have a material adverse effect on Simmons or HCIC. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals, waivers or actions that are required for consummation of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals, waivers or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes certain material provisions of the merger agreement, but does not describe all of the terms of the merger agreement and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

Structure of the Merger

Each of the HCIC board of directors and the Simmons board of directors has adopted the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of HCIC with and into Simmons, with Simmons continuing as the surviving corporation.

The Merger Consideration

As a result of the merger, each share of HCIC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive (1) the Cash Consideration and (2) the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, we refer to as the Merger Consideration.

Fractional Shares

Simmons will not issue any fractional shares of Simmons common stock in the merger. Instead, a HCIC shareholder who otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Simmons common stock will receive, in lieu thereof, an amount in cash rounded to the nearest cent. This cash amount will be determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of Simmons common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the average of the daily closing prices of Simmons common stock on the 20 trading days prior to the tenth day prior to the closing of the merger.

Surviving Corporation, Governing Documents and Directors

At the effective time of the merger, Simmons' articles of incorporation and bylaws in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Simmons as the surviving corporation of the merger, until thereafter amended in accordance with their respective terms and applicable law. The directors and officers of Simmons immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the directors and officers of the surviving corporation of the merger.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will be completed only if all conditions to the merger discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived (subject to applicable laws). See Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 65.

The merger will become effective on the date and at the time specified in the articles of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Arkansas and in the certificate of merger to be filed with the Tennessee Secretary of State. In the merger agreement, we have agreed to cause the effective time of the merger to occur on a date within 30 days following the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable laws) of the last of the conditions specified in the merger agreement as determined by Simmons, or on another mutually agreed date. It currently is anticipated that the effective time of the merger will occur no earlier than the second quarter of 2017, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and waivers and other customary closing conditions, but we cannot guarantee when or if the merger will be completed.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of HCIC common stock into the right to receive the Merger Consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will exchange certificates representing shares of HCIC common stock for the Merger Consideration to be received pursuant to the merger agreement.

Transmittal Materials

Simmons shall appoint Computershare, its transfer agent or another exchange agent reasonably acceptable to HCIC, for the purpose of exchanging shares of HCIC common stock for the Merger Consideration.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appropriate transmittal materials will be mailed or delivered by the exchange agent to record holders of HCIC common stock as soon as reasonably practical after the effective time of the merger.

After the effective time of the merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of HCIC.

Withholding

Simmons and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any HCIC shareholder the amounts, if any, it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that any amounts are so withheld, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to HCIC shareholders in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Dividends and Distributions

Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Simmons on Simmons common stock, the record date for which is at or after the effective time of the merger, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of Simmons common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement, but such dividends or other distributions will not be paid to the holder thereof until such holder has duly surrendered its HCIC common stock certificates in accordance with the merger agreement.

Dissenters Rights

Under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA, HCIC shareholders will have dissenters rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters rights, HCIC shareholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by the TBCA. Failure to strictly comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters rights. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled The Merger Dissenters Rights beginning on page 49, and Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II. If any dissenting HCIC shareholder fails to perfect or otherwise waives, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA, or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such dissenting HCIC shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA, then the shares of HCIC common stock held by such dissenting HCIC shareholder shall be deemed to have been converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional share and any dividends or distributions pursuant to the merger agreement.

In the merger agreement, Simmons made customary representations and warranties to HCIC with respect to, among other things:

the accuracy of the information supplied by Simmons in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

Many of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement made by HCIC and Simmons are qualified by a materiality or material adverse effect standard (that is, they will not be deemed to be untrue or incorrect unless their failure to be true or correct, individually or in the aggregate, would, as the case may be, be material to or have a material adverse effect on HCIC or Simmons, as applicable).

Under the merger agreement, a material adverse effect is defined as, with respect to a party, any fact, circumstance, event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate together with all other facts, circumstances, events, changes, effects, developments or occurrences, directly or indirectly, (1) prevents or materially impairs the ability of a party to timely consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or (2) has had or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), results of operations, assets, liabilities or business of such party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, but does not include effects to the extent resulting from the following (except, in certain instances, to the extent that the effects of such change disproportionately affect such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies in the industry in which such party and its subsidiaries operate):

changes after the date of the merger agreement in GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements; changes after the date of the merger agreement in laws of general applicability to companies in the financial services industry;

changes after the date of the merger agreement in global, national or regional political conditions or general economic or market conditions in the United States (and with respect to each party, the respective markets in which they operate), including changes in prevailing interest rates, credit availability and liquidity, currency exchange rates, and price levels or trading volumes in the United States or foreign securities markets) affecting other companies in the financial services industry;

after the date of the merger agreement, general changes in the credit markets or general downgrades in the credit markets;

failure, in and of itself, to meet earnings projections or internal financial forecasts, but not including any underlying causes thereof unless separately excluded under the merger agreement, or changes in the trading price of a party's common stock, in and of itself, but not including any underlying causes unless separately excluded under the merger agreement;

the public disclosure of the merger agreement and the impact thereof on relationships with customers or employees; any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism; or actions or omissions taken with the prior written consent of the other party or expressly required by the merger agreement.

The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger and, as described below under Effect of Termination, if the merger agreement is validly terminated, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect (except with respect to designated provisions of the merger agreement, including those related to payment of fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information), unless a party breached the merger agreement.

The merger agreement and this summary of its terms are included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Factual disclosures about Simmons and HCIC contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or in the public reports of Simmons filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Simmons and HCIC contained in the merger agreement. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties of Simmons and HCIC that may be subject to limitations, qualifications or exceptions agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures, and may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality that differs from the materiality standard that applies to reports and documents filed with the SEC. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to consummate the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement. The representations and warranties, other provisions of the merger agreement or any description of these provisions should not be read alone, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and the other reports, statements and filings that Simmons publicly files with the SEC. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 85.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In addition, every two weeks after the date of the merger agreement, HCIC has agreed to provide Simmons a report describing all of the following which has occurred in the prior two weeks:

any new, renewed, extended, modified, amended or terminated contracts that provide for aggregate annual payments of $10,000 or more; and

Simmons has agreed that prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, unless the prior written consent of HCIC has been obtained (which consent HCIC may not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay) and except as otherwise expressly contemplated in the merger agreement, Simmons will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, among other things, undertake the following actions:

amend Simmons articles of incorporation or bylaws or other governing documents of Simmons or its significant subsidiaries in a manner that would adversely affect HCIC or its shareholders relative to other holders of Simmons common stock; agree to take, make any commitment to take or adopt any resolutions of the Simmons board of directors in support of, any of the above prohibited actions.

Regulatory Matters. Simmons and HCIC have agreed to file all reports required to be filed with regulatory authorities between the execution of the merger agreement and the consummation of the merger contemplated thereby, and to deliver to the other party copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. If financial statements are contained in any such reports filed with the SEC or the Federal Reserve, such financial statements will fairly present the consolidated financial position of the entity filing such statements as of the dates indicated and the consolidated results of operations, changes in stockholders equity, and cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with GAAP (subject in the case of interim financial statements to normal recurring year-end adjustments that are not material) or applicable regulatory accounting principles consistently applied, except as may be otherwise indicated in the notes thereto and except for the omission of footnotes.

Tax Matters. Simmons and HCIC have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and to take no action that would cause the merger not to so qualify.

Employee Matters. The merger agreement provides that employees of HCIC or its subsidiaries generally will be eligible to receive benefits that are, as a whole, comparable to those provided to similarly situated Simmons employees. Additionally, employees of HCIC or its subsidiaries generally will receive service credit based on their service with HCIC or its subsidiaries for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in the Simmons benefit plans.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, if requested by Simmons, HCIC will (1) terminate the HCIC 401(k) plan or the HCIC defined contribution plan under Section 401(a) of the Code, and (2) cooperate with Simmons to amend, freeze, terminate or modify any other HCIC benefit plan to the extent and in the matter determined by Simmons effective upon the effective time of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

D&O Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that for six years after the effective time of the merger, Simmons will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the present and former directors and officers of HCIC and its subsidiaries against all liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of such person's services in such capacities to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and HCIC's governing documents in effect on the date of the merger agreement (including any provisions relating to the advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any litigation) if (1) Simmons' board of directors determines in that (a) the indemnified party acted in good faith and in the best interests of HCIC or First South Bank and (b) the payment will not materially affect the Simmons safety and soundness; (2) such payment is not prohibited by applicable FDIC regulations; and (3) the indemnified party agrees to reimburse Simmons, to the extent not covered by permissible insurance, for payments made in an action by a federal banking agency in which the indemnified party is assessed a civil money penalty, is prohibited from banking, or is required to cease an action or perform an affirmative action.

The merger agreement requires Simmons to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger HCIC's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous than the current policy (or, with the consent of HCIC prior to the effective time of the merger, any other policy), with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and covering such individuals who are currently covered by such insurance. In lieu of the insurance described in the preceding sentence, prior to the effective time of the merger, Simmons, or HCIC, in consultation with Simmons, may obtain a six-year tail prepaid policy providing coverage equivalent to such insurance.

Certain Additional Covenants. The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including covenants relating to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, potential shareholder litigation, cooperation for an efficient and orderly combination of HCIC and Simmons after the merger, takeover laws, HCIC's delivery to Simmons of its closing financial statements, assumption of HCIC's subordinated debt after the merger by Simmons or one of its subsidiaries, the listing of the shares of Simmons common stock to be issued in the merger and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

HCIC has agreed that it and its subsidiaries will not, and will cause their respective representatives not to, directly or indirectly take any action to solicit, encourage (including by providing information or assistance), initiate, facilitate or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or provide or make available any information to or enter into any agreement with any person (other than Simmons and its affiliates and representatives) concerning any offer, inquiry, proposal or indication of interest (whether communicated to HCIC or its affiliates or publicly announced and whether binding or non-binding) by such person involving an acquisition proposal.

HCIC has agreed to, and to direct its representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third party conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement, with respect to any offer or proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, to request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously furnished to any third party that has made or indicated an intention to make an acquisition proposal.

If HCIC or any of its subsidiaries or their respective representatives receives an offer or proposal (whether written or oral) or any request for nonpublic information or any inquiry relating to an acquisition proposal, HCIC has agreed to, as promptly as practicable (but in no event more than two business days), notify Simmons in writing of the receipt of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, and the terms and conditions of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry (including, in each case, the identity of the person making any such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry), and HCIC shall as promptly as practicable (but in no event more than two business days) provide to Simmons (1) a copy of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, if in writing, or (2) a written summary of the material terms of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, if oral. HCIC has agreed to provide Simmons, as promptly as practicable (but in no event more than two business days), with notice setting forth all such information as is necessary to keep Simmons informed on a current basis in all material respects of all communications regarding (including material amendments or proposed material amendments to) such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry.

Notwithstanding the submission of any acquisition proposal, the merger agreement will be submitted to the HCIC shareholders for the purpose of voting on the approval of the merger agreement. Furthermore, HCIC has agreed that it shall adjourn or postpone the HCIC special meeting if, as of the originally scheduled time of such special meeting, there are an insufficient number of shares of HCIC common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the HCIC special meeting or if HCIC has not received proxies or votes representing a sufficient number of shares of HCIC common stock necessary to approve the merger agreement. Notwithstanding any such adjournment or postponement HCIC is required to hold the HCIC special meeting and submit the merger agreement to the HCIC shareholders for the purpose of voting on approval of the merger agreement. In addition to the foregoing, HCIC may not submit to the vote of its shareholders any acquisition proposal other than the merger unless the merger agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

For purposes of the merger agreement:

an acquisition proposal means any offer, inquiry, proposal or indication of interest (whether communicated to HCIC or announced publicly to HCIC shareholders and whether binding or non-binding) by any third party for an acquisition transaction; and an acquisition transaction means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement) involving (1) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, from HCIC by any third party of 20 percent or more in interest of the total outstanding voting securities of HCIC or any of its subsidiaries, or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any third party beneficially owning 20 percent or more in interest of the total outstanding voting securities of HCIC or any of its subsidiaries, or any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving HCIC or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to which the HCIC shareholders immediately preceding such transaction hold less than 80 percent of the equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity (which includes the parent corporation of any constituent corporation to any such transaction) of such transaction, (2) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license, acquisition or disposition of 20 percent or more of the assets of HCIC and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (3) any liquidation or dissolution of HCIC.

HCIC Special Meeting and Recommendation of HCIC Board of Directors

HCIC has agreed to hold a meeting of its shareholders for the purpose of voting upon approval of the merger agreement as promptly as reasonably practicable after the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC. HCIC will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders the requisite shareholder approval of the merger agreement, including by recommending that its shareholders approve the merger agreement.

The HCIC board of directors has agreed to recommend that HCIC shareholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement and to not withdraw, qualify or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw, qualify or modify) such recommendation in any manner adverse to Simmons, or take any action or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with such recommendation (which is referred to as a change in HCIC's recommendation).

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

Our respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of the following conditions:

the approval by HCIC shareholders of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; the receipt of all regulatory approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers required from the Federal Reserve and the TDFI, and any other required regulatory approvals or consents, the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Simmons or

HCIC (considered as a consolidated entity), in each case required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and expiration of all related statutory waiting periods; provided that no such required regulatory approval may impose a burdensome condition, as determined by Simmons in its sole discretion;

the absence of any rule, regulation, law, judgment, injunction or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) by any court or regulatory authority of competent jurisdiction prohibiting, restricting or making illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part under the Securities Act and the absence of any stop order, action, suit, proceeding or investigation by the SEC to suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement;

the approval of the listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of the Simmons common stock to be issued in the merger; receipt by each of Simmons and HCIC of an opinion of Covington & Burling LLP as to certain tax matters; and the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party in the merger agreement as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of all agreements and covenants of such party under the merger agreement prior to the effective time of the merger (and the receipt by each party of a certificate from the other party to such effect).

In addition, Simmons' obligation to consummate the merger is subject to:

As of the last day of the month reflected in HCIC's financial statements, First South Bank having (1) the ratio of non-performing assets to total loans not in excess of 0.63%, (2) the ratio of classified loans to Tier 1 capital plus ALLL ratio not be in excess of 8.00%, (3) non-performing assets not in excess of $1,650,000, (4) classified assets not in excess of 115% of the aggregate balance of classified assets as set forth in HCIC's financial statements as of and for the quarter ended September 30, 2016 and (5) delinquent loans not in excess of 0.75% of total loans. As of December 31, 2016, First South Bank's (a) ratio of non-performing assets to total loans was 0.39%, (b) ratio of classified loans to Tier 1 capital plus ALLL was 7.21%, (c) non-performing assets was $985,186, and (d) delinquent loans was 0.48% of total loans. Simmons and HCIC expect that First South Bank will satisfy these asset quality metrics prior to closing, although there can be no assurance that such conditions will be satisfied;

As reflected in HCIC's closing financial statements, First South Bank (1) being well capitalized as defined under applicable law, (2) having a tier 1 leverage ratio of not less than 10.0%, (3) having a tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of not less than 14.5%, (4) having a total risk-based capital ratio of not less than 14.5%, (5) having tangible shareholders' equity to tangible assets ratio of not less than 10.5%, and (6) having not have received any notification from the TDFI or FDIC to the effect that the capital of First South Bank is insufficient to permit First South Bank to engage in all aspects of its business and its currently proposed businesses without material restrictions, including the imposition of a burdensome condition. As of December 31, 2016, First South Bank (a) was well capitalized as defined under applicable law, (b) had a tier 1 leverage ratio of 10.45%, (c) had a tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of 15.40%, (d) had a total risk-based capital ratio of 16.19%, (e) had tangible shareholders' equity to tangible assets ratio of 10.45%, and (f) had not have received any notification from the TDFI or FDIC to the effect that the capital of First South Bank is insufficient to permit First South Bank to engage in all aspects of its business and its currently proposed businesses without material restrictions, including the imposition of a burdensome condition. Simmons and HCIC expect that First South Bank will satisfy these regulatory capital metrics prior to closing, although there can be no assurance that such conditions will be satisfied;

HCIC having delivered evidence that certain contracts and employment contracts with HCIC's officers have been terminated;

HCIC having delivered a FIRPTA certificate to Simmons; and holders of not more than five percent of the outstanding shares of HCIC common stock having demanded, properly and in writing, appraisal for such shares under Section 48-23-102 of the TBCA.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement can be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by mutual consent, or by either party in the following circumstances:

any regulatory authority denies a requisite regulatory approval, or a regulatory authority has issued a final and nonappealable rule, regulation, law, judgment, injunction or order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, so long as the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and change or remove such denial, law or order;

the HCIC shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the HCIC special meeting;

the merger has not been completed by May 17, 2017, which is referred to as the outside date, if the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by that date is not caused by the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement; or any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the other party prior to the outside date, if the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled is not a result of such party's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its material covenants or agreements in the merger agreement or such party's material breach of any of its material representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement.

In addition, Simmons may terminate the merger agreement if:

the HCIC board of directors fails to recommend the merger and approval of the merger agreement by the HCIC shareholders or otherwise effected a change in HCIC's recommendation;

the HCIC board of directors breaches its non-solicitation obligations and obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals in any respect;

the HCIC board of directors breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a shareholders meeting or to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of the merger agreement by the HCIC shareholders;

if the Federal Reserve's approval of the merger contains or would result in the imposition of a burdensome condition and there is no meaningful possibility that such approval could be revised prior to the outside date so as not to contain or result in a burdensome condition; or if the Federal Reserve shall have requested in writing that Simmons, HCIC or any of their respective affiliates withdraw (other than for technical reasons), and not be permitted to resubmit within 60 days, any application with respect to any required regulatory approval.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void, except that (1) designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including those relating to payment of fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information and (2) both Simmons and HCIC will remain liable for any liability resulting from fraud or intentional breaches by such party of the merger agreement occurring prior to such termination or abandonment.

67

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Termination Fee

HCIC will pay Simmons a $3.0 million termination fee if:

the merger agreement is terminated by Simmons as a result of the HCIC board of directors having (1) failed to recommend the approval of the merger agreement by the HCIC shareholders or otherwise effected a change in HCIC's recommendation, (2) breached its non-solicitation obligations and obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals in any respect, or (3) breached its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a shareholders meeting to obtain approval of the merger proposal by the HCIC shareholders, or

(1) the merger agreement is terminated by (A) HCIC, prior to ten business days following receipt of all required regulatory approvals (including expiration of any applicable waiting periods), if the merger has not been consummated by the outside date, and the failure to consummate the merger is not caused by breach of the merger agreement by HCIC, or (B) either Simmons or HCIC as a result of the failure of HCIC shareholders to approve the merger agreement, or (C) Simmons as a result of any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Simmons to consummate the merger could not have been satisfied or fulfilled by HCIC prior to the outside date, and the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled was not a result of Simmons' failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its material covenants or agreements in the merger agreement or Simmons' material breach of any of its material representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement, and (2) within 12 months after the date of such termination, HCIC enters into a definitive agreement (whether or not such transaction is consummated) or consummates a transaction with respect to an acquisition proposal.

HCIC's payment of the $3.0 million termination fee would constitute liquidated damages and be Simmons' sole remedy in the event of such a termination.

Expenses and Fees

Each of Simmons and HCIC will be responsible for all direct costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the merger agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of each of the parties, whether before or after HCIC shareholders have approved the merger agreement; however, after obtaining the HCIC shareholder approval, no amendment that requires further approval by HCIC shareholders shall be made.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, each of HCIC and Simmons, acting through its respective board of directors, chief executive officer or other authorized officer, may waive any default in the performance of any term of the merger agreement by the other party, waive or extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other party, or waive any or all conditions precedent to the other party's obligations under the merger agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in a violation of law.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by Simmons using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations. Accordingly, the assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of HCIC as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of Simmons. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values is recorded as goodwill. Consolidated financial statements of Simmons issued after the merger would reflect these fair values and would not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of HCIC.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following general discussion constitutes the opinion of Covington & Burling LLP, subject to the assumptions and qualifications set forth below and in the tax opinion, which has been filed as Exhibit 8.1 to this registration statement to which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, as to certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of HCIC common stock that exchange their shares of HCIC common stock for the Merger Consideration in the merger. The following discussion is based upon the Code, the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder and judicial and administrative authorities, rulings, and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. These authorities may change, possibly with retroactive effect, and any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax.

The following discussion applies only to U.S. holders of shares of HCIC common stock who hold such shares as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that might be relevant to U.S. holders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to U.S. holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (such as, for example, dealers or brokers in securities, commodities or foreign currencies, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, banks and certain other financial institutions, insurance companies, mutual funds, tax-exempt organizations, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code, partnerships, S corporations or other pass-through entities or investors in partnerships, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, former citizens or residents of the United States, holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders who hold shares of HCIC common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction or other integrated investment, holders who exercise appraisal rights, or holders who actually or constructively own more than 5% of HCIC common stock).

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of HCIC common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or (3) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

It is a condition to the obligations of each of Simmons and HCIC that they receive an opinion from Covington & Burling LLP, in form reasonably satisfactory to Simmons, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Neither Simmons nor HCIC currently intends to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to consummate the merger. If either Simmons or HCIC waives this opinion condition after this registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, and if the tax consequences of the merger to HCIC shareholders have materially changed, Simmons and HCIC will recirculate appropriate soliciting materials to resolicit the votes of HCIC shareholders. The opinion will be based on representation letters provided by Simmons and HCIC and on customary factual assumptions. The opinion described above will not be binding on the Internal Revenue Service, which we refer to as the IRS, or any court. Simmons and HCIC have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinion is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Accordingly, when a holder of HCIC common stock receives a combination of Cash Consideration (other than cash received instead of fractional shares of Simmons common stock) and Stock Consideration in the merger,

(1) you will not recognize any loss upon surrendering your HCIC common stock, and (2) you will recognize gain upon surrendering your HCIC common stock equal to the lesser of (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of the amount of cash that you receive plus the fair market value (determined as of the effective time of the merger) of the Simmons common stock that you receive over (ii) your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of HCIC common stock that you surrender, and (b) the amount of Cash Consideration that you receive.

Any gain described in the bullet point above will be capital gain unless your receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, in which case the gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of your ratable share of HCIC's accumulated earnings and profits, as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For purposes of determining whether your receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, you will be treated as if you first exchanged all of your HCIC common stock solely in exchange for Simmons common stock and then Simmons immediately redeemed a portion of that stock for the cash that you actually received in the merger (referred to herein as the deemed redemption). Receipt of cash will generally not have the effect of a dividend to you if such receipt is not essentially equivalent to a dividend or substantially disproportionate, each within the meaning of Section 302(b) of the Code. In order for the deemed redemption to be not essentially equivalent to a dividend, the deemed redemption must result in a meaningful reduction in the shareholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Simmons following the merger. The determination generally requires a comparison of the percentage of the outstanding stock of Simmons that you are considered to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption to the percentage of the outstanding stock of Simmons that you own immediately after the deemed redemption. The IRS has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain (as opposed to dividend) treatment. For purposes of applying the foregoing tests, a shareholder will be deemed to own the stock the shareholder actually owns and the stock the shareholder constructively owns under the attribution rules of Section 318 of the Code. Under Section 318 of the Code, a shareholder will be deemed to own the shares of stock owned by certain family members, by certain estates and trusts of which the shareholder is a beneficiary, and by certain affiliated entities, as well as shares of stock subject to an option actually or constructively owned by the shareholder or such other persons. If, after applying these tests, the deemed redemption results in a capital gain, the capital gain will be long-term if your holding period for your HCIC common stock is more than one year as of the date of the exchange. If, after applying these tests, the deemed redemption results in the gain recognized being classified as a dividend, such dividend will be treated as either ordinary income or qualified dividend income. Any gain treated as qualified dividend income will be taxable to you at the long-term capital gains rate, provided you held the shares giving rise to such income for more than 60 days during the 121 day period beginning 60 days before the effective time of the merger. The determination as to whether you will recognize a capital gain or dividend income as a result of your exchange of HCIC common stock for a combination of Simmons common stock and cash in the merger is complex and is determined on a shareholder-by-shareholder basis. Accordingly, we urge you to consult your own tax advisor with respect to any such determination that is applicable to your individual situation.

The aggregate tax basis of the Simmons common stock that you receive in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below, will equal your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of HCIC common stock that you surrender in the merger, decreased by the amount of any Cash Consideration (other than cash received instead of fractional shares of Simmons common stock) received and increased by the amount of any gain recognized. Your holding period for the shares of Simmons common stock that you receive in the merger (including any fractional share deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) will include your holding period for the shares of HCIC common stock that you surrender in the merger. If you acquired different blocks of HCIC common stock at different times or at different prices, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares of HCIC common stock surrendered in the merger, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and shares of Simmons common stock should be allocated among different blocks of their HCIC common stock surrendered in the merger. The basis and holding period of each block of Simmons common stock you receive will be determined on a block-for-block basis depending on the basis and holding period of the blocks of HCIC common stock exchanged for such block of Simmons common stock.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares

If you receive cash instead of a fractional share of Simmons common stock, you will be treated as having received such fractional share of Simmons common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share of Simmons common stock. As a result, you generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received instead of a fractional share and the basis in your fractional share of Simmons common stock as set forth above. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective time of the merger, the holding period for such fractional share (including the holding period of shares of HCIC common stock surrendered therefor) exceeds one year.

Net Investment Income Tax

A holder that is an individual is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of: (1) his or her net investment income for the relevant taxable year; or (2) the excess of his or her modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (between $125,000 and $250,000 depending on the individual's U.S. federal income tax filing status). Estates and trusts are subject to similar rules. Net investment income generally would include any capital gain recognized in connection with the merger (including any gain treated as a dividend), as well as, among other items, other interest, dividends, capital gains and rental or royalty income received by such individual. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to the application of this additional tax to their circumstances.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

If you are a non-corporate holder of HCIC common stock, you may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28 percent) on any cash payments you receive. You generally will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if you:

furnish a correct taxpayer identification number, certify that you are not subject to backup withholding and otherwise comply with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or provide proof that you are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided you timely furnish the required information to the IRS.

Certain Reporting Requirements

If a U.S. holder that receives Simmons common stock in the merger is considered a significant holder, such U.S. holder will be required (a) to file a statement with its U.S. federal income tax return providing certain facts pertinent to the merger, including such U.S. holder's tax basis in, and the fair market value of, the HCIC common stock surrendered by such U.S. holder, and (b) to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the merger. A significant holder is any HCIC shareholder that, immediately before the merger, (y) owned at least 5% (by vote or value) of the outstanding stock of HCIC or (z) owned HCIC securities with a tax basis of $1.0 million or more.

This discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information purposes only and is not tax advice. Holders of HCIC common stock are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

If the merger is completed, holders of HCIC common stock will receive shares of Simmons common stock for their shares of HCIC common stock. Simmons is organized under the laws of the State of Arkansas and HCIC is organized under the laws of the State of Tennessee. The following is a summary of the material differences between (1) the current rights of HCIC shareholders under the TBCA, and HCIC's charter and bylaws and (2) the current rights of Simmons shareholders under the ABCA and Simmons' articles of incorporation and bylaws.

*Simmons and HCIC believe that this summary describes the material differences between the rights of holders of Simmons common stock as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the rights of holders of HCIC common stock as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus; however, it does not purport to be a complete description of those differences. Copies of Simmons' governing documents have been filed with the SEC and copies of HCIC's governing documents can be found at its principal office. VOTES ON EXTRAORDINARY CORPORATE TRANSACTIONS

Neither HCIC's bylaws nor charter addresses votes on extraordinary corporation transactions.

Simmons' articles of incorporation provide that any sale, sale of substantially all of the Simmons' assets, liquidation or dissolution, or any reclassification of the corporation's securities shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding voting shares, unless such business combination is approved by 80% of the disinterested directors (defined above).

Under Section 48-21-104 of the TBCA, a merger of the corporation with and into another corporation, or a share exchange involving one or more classes or series of the corporation's shares or a dissolution of the corporation must be adopted by the board of directors (except in certain limited circumstances) and, with certain exceptions, approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of stock entitled to vote thereon.

Under Section 4-27-1107 of the ABCA, a plan of sale may be approved if the board of directors recommends the sale to the shareholder (subject to certain exceptions) and shareholders entitled to vote approve the plan.

Further, unless the charter or TBCA provides otherwise, the plan of sale must be approved by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan by a majority of all votes entitled to be cast on the plan by that voting group.

Under Section 4-27-1202 of the ABCA, a sale of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets other than in the regular course of business must be proposed by the board of directors and the corporation's shareholders must approve the proposed transaction.

AMENDMENT OF CHARTER/ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Simmons articles of incorporation provides that it may be amended by the approval of 80% of the shares entitled to vote on such amendment, unless such amendment shall have been approved by an affirmative vote of 80% of the disinterested directors, in which case only a majority of the outstanding shares is required to approve such amendment.

Under Section 4-27-1002 of the ABCA, the board of directors may amend the articles of incorporation of a corporation without shareholder approval to extend its duration, change the name of the corporation to include words required by the ABCA, declare a forward stock split in a class of shares if there is only one class outstanding, and for certain other ministerial actions. Any other amendment to the articles of incorporation must first be approved by a majority of the board of directors and thereafter by the affirmative vote of a majority of all shares entitled to vote thereon, by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights, pursuant to Section 4-27-1003 of the ABCA.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under Arkansas law, a majority of a class of stock must approve any amendment that adversely affects their particular class as further described in Section 4-27-1004 of the ABCA.

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

Simmons bylaws provide that they may be amended, altered, or repealed, at any meeting of the board of directors, by a majority vote.

Section 4-27-1020 of the ABCA provides that a corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless otherwise stated in the corporation's articles of incorporation or the amendment deals with a particular provision that is reserved for shareholders' approval. A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended by the board of directors.

HCIC

HCIC's charter may be amended, altered, or appealed in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee.

Section 48-20-102 of the TBCA provides that a board of directors may approve the following amendments to the charter: delete the name and addresses of the initial directors, delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office, designate or change the name of the principal officer, change each issued and unissued authorized share of an outstanding class, change the corporation abbreviation or deleting or changing geographical attribution for the name and delete initial principal office.

All other amendments generally must be recommended to the shareholders for approval by the board of directors, followed by the affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon pursuant to Section 48-20-103 of the TBCA.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under Tennessee law, a majority of a class of stock must approve any amendment that adversely affects their particular class as further described in Section 48-20-104 of the TBCA.

HCIC's bylaws provide that except as otherwise permitted by law, the bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the shares represented at a duly constituted shareholders' meeting of HCIC.

Under the TBCA, shareholder action is generally not necessary to amend the bylaws, unless the charter provides otherwise or the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw. The shareholders may amend or repeal HCIC's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors.

CONTROL SHARE ACQUISITION

HCIC

No control share acquisition, business combination moratorium, fair price or other form of antitakeover statute or regulation is applicable to Simmons under Arkansas law.

The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act generally provides that, control shares will not have any voting rights. Control shares are shares acquired by a person under certain circumstances which, when added to other shares owned, would give such person effective control over one-fifth, one-third, or a majority of all voting power (to the extent such acquired shares cause such person to exceed one-fifth, one-third, or a majority of all voting power) in the election of a Tennessee corporation's directors. However, voting rights will be restored to control shares by resolution approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the corporation's voting stock, other than shares held by the owner of the control shares or other interested shares. If voting rights are granted to control shares which give the holder a majority of all voting power in the election of the corporation's directors, then the corporation's other shareholders may require the corporation to redeem their shares at fair value. The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act is not applicable to HCIC because the HCIC charter does not contain a specific provision opting in to the Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act.

BUSINESS COMBINATION INVOLVING INTERESTED SHAREHOLDERS

Simmons' articles of incorporation provide that an interested shareholder (person who owns more than 10% of Simmons common stock) may only acquire additional voting shares through a cash tender offer at a price not less than the highest closing price of Simmons common stock during the most recent 24 months, unless such shareholder is exempt from this restriction by the board of directors prior to becoming an interested shareholder, or the additional voting shares are acquired through a business combination.

The TBCA generally prohibits a business combination by HCIC or a subsidiary with an interested shareholder within five years after the shareholder becomes an interested shareholder, subject to certain exceptions. HCIC or a subsidiary can, however, enter into a business combination within that five year period if, before the interested shareholder became such, HCIC's board of directors approved the business combination or the transaction in which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder. After that five-year moratorium, the business combination with the interested shareholder can be consummated only if it satisfies certain fair price criteria or is approved by two-thirds of the other shareholders. For purposes of the TBCA, a business combination includes mergers, consolidations, sales, share exchanges, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities, and similar transactions. An interested shareholder is generally any person or entity that beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of any outstanding class or series of HCIC stock.

SHAREHOLDER RIGHT TO MAKE PROPOSALS AND TO NOMINATE DIRECTORS

The board of directors has delegated to Simmons Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, or NCGC, the responsibility of identifying and evaluating proposed nominees to the Simmons board of directors.

HCIC's charter and bylaws do not address whether common stock holders have the right to make proposals and to nominate directors. However, under Tennessee law, shareholders have the right to submit proposals to the board of directors and to submit nominations for directors.

The NCGC must consider director nominees from shareholders. A shareholder must provide notice of its intention to nominate a director in sufficient time for the consideration and action by the NCGC.

Notice of a shareholder's intention to nominate a director must include specific information about the nominee.

Under the ABCA, shareholders have the right to submit proposals to the board of directors and to submit nominations for directors.

SHAREHOLDER ABILITY TO ACT BY WRITTEN CONSENT

Neither Simmons' articles nor bylaws addresses whether shareholders have the ability to act by written consent.

HCIC's charter permits shareholder action by written consent without a meeting if such consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by all shareholders.

Generally, under 4-27-704 of the ABCA, any action required to be taken at a shareholder meeting may be taken without a meeting if one or more consents, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize to take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote are present and voted.

HCIC's bylaws permits shareholder action without a meeting on a written consent, setting forth the action to be taken, if signed by all the persons or entities entitled to vote thereon and indicating each person or entity's vote or abstention on the action. The action must receive the affirmative vote of the number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting. Section 48-17-104 of the TBCA permits shareholder action without a meeting if (1) all shareholders entitled to vote on the action consent to taking such action without a meeting and (2) the affirmative vote of the number of shares that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting is the act of the shareholders. If the action taken is by less than unanimous written consent of the voting shareholders as may be provided in the charter, the corporation must give its non-consenting voting shareholders written notice of the action not more than ten days after sufficient votes to take such action have been received.

In 2010, the shareholders of HCIC entered into a shareholders agreement to govern certain rights and obligations among the shareholders in order to maintain their newly-elected S Corporation status with the IRS. A summary of the agreement, as amended, follows:

OTHER SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

The shareholders agreement applies to the shareholders who executed the agreement, any new shares acquired by such shareholders, and any future shareholders acquiring the shares.

A shareholder may not sell or transfer any shares except to a person which is qualified to be a shareholder of an S corporation under the rules of the Internal Revenue Service. Failure to comply with this restriction shall invalidate the transfer or sale. In the event of a violation of this provision, HCIC has the right to purchase or redeem the shares in question upon terms mutually agreeable to HCIC and the transferee.

HCIC agreed to make distributions no later than April 15 of each year in an amount sufficient to pay the shareholders estimated income taxes under the Internal Revenue Code which arise out of the net earnings of the corporation, unless HCIC otherwise is prohibited from doing so.

The restrictions on transfer and redemption rights of HCIC will also apply upon the death of a shareholder to his or her heirs, successors, assigns, representatives, executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and guardians ad litem.

The shareholders agree not to take any action as shareholders that would disqualify the corporation as an S corporation.

HCIC's bylaws also contain some similar provisions regarding maintaining S corporation status.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of November 17, 2016, by and between Simmons First National Corporation (Buyer), an Arkansas corporation, and Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. (Target), a Tennessee corporation.

Preamble

The board of directors of Target has adopted, and the board of directors of Buyer has approved, this Agreement and declared that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby are advisable and in the best interests of the Parties to this Agreement and their respective shareholders. This Agreement provides for the acquisition of Target by Buyer pursuant to the merger of Target with and into Buyer with Buyer as the surviving corporation. At the effective time of such Merger, the outstanding shares of capital stock of Target shall be converted into the right to receive a fixed amount of cash and a fixed number of shares of common stock of Buyer, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein. As an inducement for Buyer to enter into this Agreement, certain directors and executive officers of Target have simultaneously herewith entered into Voting Agreements (each a Voting Agreement and collectively, the Voting Agreements) in connection with the Merger, in the forms contained in Exhibit A hereto. The transactions described in this Agreement are subject to the approval of the shareholders of Target and applicable regulatory authorities and the satisfaction of certain other conditions described in this Agreement. It is the intention of the Parties to this Agreement that the Merger for federal income tax purposes shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Capitalized terms used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined herein are defined in Section 10.1 of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and the mutual warranties, representations, covenants, and agreements set forth herein, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 TRANSACTIONS AND TERMS OF MERGER

1.1. Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Target shall be merged with and into Buyer in accordance with the provisions of Section 4-27-1106 et. seq. of the Arkansas Business Corporation Act of 1987 (the ABCA) and Section 48-21-102 et. seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the TBCA) with the effects set forth in the ABCA and the TBCA (the Merger). Buyer shall be the Surviving Corporation resulting from the Merger, and shall succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of Target in accordance with the ABCA. Upon consummation of the Merger the separate corporate existence of Target shall terminate. The Merger shall be consummated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, which has been approved by the board of directors of Buyer and adopted by the board of directors of Target.

1.2. Time and Place of Closing.

The closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing) will take place at 10:00 A.M., Central Time, on the date that the Effective Time occurs, or at such other date and time as the Parties, acting through their authorized officers, may mutually agree in writing. The Closing shall be held at the offices of Buyer, located at 425 W. Capitol Avenue, Suite 1400, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201, unless another location is mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

1.3. Effective Time.

The Merger and other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall become effective (the Effective Time) on the date and at the time specified in the articles of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Arkansas and the articles of merger to be filed with the Tennessee Secretary of State. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing by the authorized officers of each Party, the Parties shall cause the Effective Time to occur on a date within 30 days following satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable Law) of the last to occur of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE 8 (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied or waived at the Closing) as determined by Buyer. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the Closing Date.

The officers of Buyer in office immediately prior to the Effective Time shall serve as the officers of the Surviving Corporation from and after the Effective Time in accordance with the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

ARTICLE 2 MANNER OF CONVERTING SHARES

2.1. Conversion of Shares.

Subject to the provisions of this ARTICLE 2, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Buyer, Target or the shareholders of either of the foregoing, the shares of Target and Buyer shall be converted as follows:

- (a) Each share of capital stock of Buyer issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding from and after the Effective Time.
- (b) Each share of issued Target Common Stock that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, is held by Target, any wholly owned Target Subsidiary, by Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiary (in each case other than shares held in any Employee Benefit Plans or related trust accounts or otherwise held in any fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted (collectively, the Canceled Shares)) shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.
- (c) Each share of Target Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding the Canceled Shares and Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive the following consideration, in each case without interest:

- (i) an amount of cash equal to $181.47 (the Cash Consideration); and
- (ii) 4.8393 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Buyer Common Stock (the Stock Consideration and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration).
- (d) All shares of Target Common Stock, when so converted pursuant to Section 2.1(c) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate (a Certificate) or book-entry share (a Book-Entry Share) registered in the transfer books of Target that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Target Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Target Common Stock other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with ARTICLE 3, including the right, if any, to receive pursuant to Section 2.5, cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock into which such shares of Target Common Stock have been converted together with the amounts, if any, payable pursuant to Section 3.1(d).

A-I-6

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(e) Without limiting the other provisions of this Agreement and subject to Sections 6.2(d) and (e), if at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, Target should (i) split, combine or otherwise reclassify the shares of Target Common Stock, (ii) make a dividend or other distribution in shares of Target Common Stock (including any dividend or other distribution of securities convertible into Target Common Stock), (iii) engage in a reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or exchange or other like change, or (iv) issue additional shares of Target Common Stock or any Equity Right for Target Common Stock, then (without limiting any other rights of Buyer hereunder), the Merger Consideration shall be equitably and proportionately adjusted, if necessary and without duplication, to reflect fully the effect of any such change.

2.2. Anti-Dilution Provisions.

In the event Buyer changes the number of shares of Buyer Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar recapitalization with respect to such stock and the record date therefor (in the case of a stock dividend) or the effective date thereof (in the case of a stock split or similar recapitalization for which a record date is not established) shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio shall be equitably and proportionately adjusted, if necessary and without duplication, to reflect fully the effect of any such change.

2.3. Reserved.

2.4. Shares Held by Target or Buyer.

Each Canceled Share shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be issued or delivered in exchange therefor.

2.5. Fractional Shares.

No certificate, book-entry share or scrip representing fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, no dividend or distribution of Buyer shall relate to such fractional share interests, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of Buyer. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Target Common Stock exchanged pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Buyer Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates or Book-Entry Shares delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash rounded up to the nearest cent (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Buyer Common Stock that such holder of shares of Target Common Stock would otherwise have been entitled multiplied by the Average Closing Price. No such holder will be entitled to dividends, voting rights, or any other rights as a shareholder in respect of any fractional shares.

ARTICLE 3 EXCHANGE OF SHARES

3.1. Exchange Procedures.

(a) Deposit of Merger Consideration. At or promptly following the Effective Time, Buyer shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with Computershare, Buyer's transfer agent or another exchange agent reasonably acceptable to Target (the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of record of shares of Target Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Holders), for exchange in accordance with this ARTICLE 3, (i) certificates or evidence of Buyer Common Stock in book-entry form issuable pursuant to Section 2.1(c) (collectively referred to as Buyer Certificates) for shares of Buyer Common Stock equal to the aggregate Stock Consideration and (ii) immediately available funds equal to the aggregate Cash Consideration (together with, to the extent then determinable, any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.5 (collectively, the Exchange Fund)) and Buyer shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares, in accordance with this Agreement. The cash portion of the Exchange Fund shall be invested by the Exchange Agent as directed by Buyer or the Surviving Corporation. Interest and other income on the Exchange Fund shall be the sole and exclusive property of Buyer and the Surviving Corporation and shall be paid to Buyer or

A-I-7

No investment of the Exchange Fund shall relieve Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent from making the payments required by this ARTICLE 3 and following any losses from any such investment, Buyer shall promptly provide additional funds to the Exchange Agent to the extent necessary to satisfy Buyer's obligations hereunder for the benefit of the Holders, which additional funds will be deemed to be part of the Exchange Fund.

(b) Delivery of Merger Consideration. No Target Entity is the beneficial owner (directly or indirectly) of more than 10% of the outstanding capital stock of Buyer entitled to vote in the election of Buyer's directors.

4.27. Opinion of Financial Advisor.

Target has received the opinion of Olsen Palmer LLC, which, if initially rendered verbally has been confirmed by a written opinion, dated the date of this Agreement, to the effect that, as of such date, the consideration to be paid to the holders of Target Common Stock in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded as of the date of this Agreement.

4.28. Tax and Regulatory Matters.

Except as such disclosure may be limited by any applicable Law,

(d) None of the Contracts pursuant to which any Target Entity has sold Loans or pools of Loans or participations in Loans or pools of Loans contains any obligation to repurchase such Loans or interests therein solely on account of a payment default by the obligor on any such Loan. Except as would not be material to Target and its Subsidiaries, each Loan included in a pool of Loans originated, securitized or, to the Knowledge of Target, acquired by Target or any of its Subsidiaries (a Pool) meets all eligibility requirements (including all applicable requirements for obtaining mortgage insurance certificates and Loan guaranty certificates) for inclusion in such Pool. All such Pools have been finally certified or, if required, recertified in accordance with all applicable Laws, rules and regulations, except where the time for certification or recertification has not yet expired. No Pools have been improperly certified, and, except as would not be material to Target and its Subsidiaries, no Loan has been bought out of a Pool without all required approvals of the applicable investors.

(e) (i) Section 4.29(e) of Target's Disclosure Memorandum sets forth a list of all Loans as of the date hereof by Target to any directors, executive officers and principal shareholders (as such terms are defined in Regulation O of the Federal Reserve Board (12 C.F.R. (f) Neither Target nor any of its Subsidiaries is now nor has it ever been since December 31, 2012, subject to any material fine, suspension, settlement or other contract or other administrative agreement or sanction by, or any reduction in any loan purchase commitment from, any Regulatory Agency relating to the origination, sale or servicing

If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall promptly return or certify the destruction of all documents and copies thereof, and all work papers containing confidential information received from the other Party.

7.6. Press Releases.

Target and Buyer agree that no press release or other public disclosure or communication (including communications to employees, agents and contractors of Target) related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be issued by either Party (or its Affiliates) without the prior written consent of the other Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned); provided, that nothing in this Section 7.6 shall be deemed to prohibit any Party from making any press release or other public disclosure required by Law or the rules or regulations of any United States or non-United States securities exchange, in which case the Party required to make the release or disclosure shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow the other Party reasonable time to comment on such release or disclosure in advance of the issuance thereof. The Parties have agreed upon the form of a joint press release announcing the execution of this Agreement.

7.7. Tax Treatment.

(a) Each of the Parties intends, and undertakes and agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger, and to take no action which would cause the Merger not, to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal income tax purposes. The Parties shall cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts in order to obtain the Tax Opinion. The Parties adopt this Agreement as a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g) and for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Unless otherwise required pursuant to a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, each of Buyer and Target shall report the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and shall not take any inconsistent position therewith in any Tax Return.

7.8. Employee Benefits and Contracts.

(a) Following the Effective Time, except as contemplated by this Agreement, Buyer shall provide generally to officers and employees (as a group) who are actively employed by a Target Entity on the Closing Date (Covered Employees) while employed by Buyer following the Closing Date employee benefits under Employee Benefit Plans offered to similarly situated employees of Buyer, including severance benefits in accordance with the applicable severance policy of Buyer (other than to any Covered Employee who is party to individual agreements or letters that entitle such person to different severance or termination benefits); provided, that in no event shall any Covered Employee be eligible to participate in any closed or frozen plan of any Buyer Entity. Until such time as Buyer shall cause the Covered Employees to participate in the applicable Buyer Employee Benefit Plans, the continued participation of the Covered Employees in the Target Benefit Plans shall be deemed to satisfy the foregoing provisions of this clause (it being understood that participation in Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans may commence at different times with respect to each of Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans). For purposes of determining eligibility to participate and vesting under Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans, and for purposes of determining a Covered Employee's entitlement to paid time off under Buyer's paid time off program, the service of the Covered Employees with a Target Entity prior to the Effective Time shall be treated as service with a Buyer Entity participating in such employee benefit plans, to the same extent that such service was recognized by the Target Entities for purposes of a similar benefit plan; provided, that such recognition of service shall not (i) operate to duplicate any benefits of a Covered Employee with respect to the same period of service or (ii) apply for purposes of any plan, program or arrangement (x) under which similarly-situated employees of Buyer Entities do not receive credit for prior service, (y) that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to level of benefits or participation, or (z) for purposes of retiree medical benefits or level of benefits under a defined benefit pension plan.

(b) If requested by Buyer in a writing delivered to Target following the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, the Target Entities shall take all necessary action (including without limitation the adoption of resolutions and plan amendments and the delivery of any required notices) to terminate, effective as of no later than the day before the Closing Date, any Target Benefit Plan that is intended to constitute either a tax-qualified defined contribution plan under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k) (a 401(k) Plan) or a tax-qualified defined contribution plan under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a) (ESOP). Target shall provide Buyer with a copy of the resolutions, plan amendments, notices and other documents prepared to effectuate the termination of the 401(k) Plans and ESOPs in advance and give Buyer a reasonable opportunity to comment on such documents (which comments shall be considered in good faith), and prior to the Closing Date, Target shall provide Buyer with the final documentation evidencing that the 401(k) Plans and ESOPs have been terminated.

(c) Upon request by Buyer in writing prior to the Closing Date, the Target Entities shall cooperate in good faith with Buyer prior to the Closing Date to amend, freeze, terminate or modify any other Target Benefit Plan to the extent and in the manner determined by Buyer effective upon the Closing Date (or at such different time mutually agreed to by the parties) and consistent with applicable Law. Target shall provide Buyer with a copy of the resolutions, plan amendments, notices and other documents prepared to effectuate the actions contemplated by this Section 7.8(c), as applicable, and give Target a reasonable opportunity to comment on such documents (which comments shall be considered in good faith), and prior to the Closing Date, Target shall provide Buyer with the final documentation evidencing that the actions contemplated herein have been effectuated.

(d) The provisions of this Section 7.8 are solely for the benefit of the Parties to this Agreement, and no Covered Employee, current or former employee or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement: (i) establish, amend, or modify any Target Benefit Plan or any employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by Buyer, Target or any of their respective Affiliates; (ii) alter or limit the ability of Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiaries (including, after the Closing Date, the Target Entities) to amend, modify or terminate any Target Benefit Plan, employment agreement or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Closing Date; or (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiaries (including, following the Closing Date, the Target Entities), or constitute or create an employment agreement with any employee, or interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Surviving Corporation, Target, Buyer or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof to discharge or terminate the services of any employee, officer, director or consultant of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause.

7.9. Indemnification.

(a) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors or officers of the Target Entities (each, an Indemnified Party) against all Liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of the Indemnified Party's service or services as directors or officers of Target or, at Target's request, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) to the fullest extent permitted under state Law and by Target's charter and bylaws as in effect on the date hereof, including provisions relating to advances of expenses incurred in the defense of any Litigation and whether or not any Buyer Entity is insured against any such matter. Without limiting the foregoing, in any case in which approval by Buyer is required to effectuate any indemnification, Buyer shall direct, at the election of the Indemnified Party, that the determination of any such approval shall be made by independent counsel mutually agreed upon between Buyer and the Indemnified Party.

(b) Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts (and Target shall cooperate prior to the Effective Time in these efforts) to maintain in effect for a period of six years after the Effective Time Target's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (provided that Buyer may substitute therefor (i) policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous or (ii) with the consent of Target given prior to the Effective Time, any other policy) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the Effective Time and covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance; provided, that Buyer shall not be obligated to make aggregate premium payments for such six-year period in respect of such policy (or coverage replacing such policy) which exceed, for the portion related to Target's directors and officers, 200% of the annual premium payments currently paid on Target's current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the Maximum Amount). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In lieu of the foregoing, Buyer, or Target in consultation with Buyer, may obtain on or prior to the Effective Time, a six-year tail prepaid policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in this Section 7.9(b) at a premium not to exceed the Maximum Amount. If the premium necessary to purchase such tail prepaid policy exceeds the Maximum Amount, Buyer may purchase the most advantageous tail prepaid policy obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount, and in each case, Buyer shall have no further obligations under this Section 7.9(b) other than to maintain such tail prepaid policy.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 7.9(a), upon learning of any such Liability or Litigation, shall promptly notify Buyer thereof. In the event of any such Litigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time): (i) Buyer shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and

Buyer shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Buyer elects not to assume such defense or independent legal counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are substantive issues which raise conflicts of interest between Buyer and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Buyer shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, that Buyer shall be obligated pursuant to this Section 7.9(c) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties; (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such Litigation; and (iii) Buyer shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent; and provided, further, that Buyer shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable Law.

(d) If Buyer or any successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or if Buyer (or any successors or assigns) shall transfer all or substantially all of its Assets to any Person, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Buyer shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.9.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.9 are intended to be for the benefit of and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and their respective heirs and Representatives.

(f) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 7.9 to the contrary, no indemnification payments will be made to an Indemnified Party with respect to an administrative proceeding or civil action initiated by any federal banking agency unless all of the following conditions are met: (i) the Buyer's board of directors determines in writing that the Indemnified Party acted in good faith and in the best interests of the Target or Target Bank; (ii) the Buyer's board of directors determines that the payment will not materially affect the Buyer's safety and soundness; (iii) the payment does not fall within the definition of a prohibited indemnification payment under 12 C.F.R. Part 359; and (iv) the Indemnified Party agrees in writing to reimburse the Buyer, to the extent not covered by permissible insurance, for payments made in the event that the administrative or civil action instituted by a banking Regulatory Authority results in a final order or settlement in which the Indemnified Party is assessed a civil money penalty, is prohibited from banking, or is required to cease an action or perform an affirmative action.

7.10. Operating Functions.

Target and Target Bank shall cooperate with Buyer and Buyer Bank in connection with planning for the efficient and orderly combination of the Parties and the operation of Buyer Bank and Target Bank, and in preparing for the consolidation of appropriate operating functions to be effective at the Effective Time or such later date as Buyer may decide. Target shall take any action Buyer may reasonably request prior to the Effective Time to facilitate the combination of the operations of Target with Buyer. Each Party shall cooperate with the other Party in preparing to execute after the Effective Time conversion or consolidation of systems and business operations generally (including by entering into customary confidentiality, non-disclosure and similar agreements with such service providers and/or the other party). Without limiting the foregoing, Target shall provide office space and support services (and other reasonably requested support and assistance) in connection with the foregoing, and senior officers of Target and Buyer shall meet from time to time as Target or Buyer may reasonably request to review the financial and operational affairs of Target and Target Bank, and Target shall give due consideration to Buyer's input on such matters, with the understanding that, notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, (a) neither Buyer nor Buyer Bank shall under any circumstance be permitted to exercise control of Target, Target Bank or any other Target Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, (b) neither Target nor any Target Bank shall be under any obligation to act in a manner that could reasonably be deemed to constitute anti-competitive behavior under federal or state antitrust Laws, and (c) neither Target nor Target Bank shall be required to agree to any material obligation that is not contingent upon the consummation of the Merger.

7.11. Shareholder Litigation.

Each of Buyer and Target shall promptly notify each other in writing of any action, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation, suit, subpoena or summons issued, commenced, brought, conducted or heard by or before, or otherwise involving, any Regulatory Authority or arbitrator pending or, to the Knowledge of Buyer or Target, as applicable, threatened against Buyer, Target or any of their respective Subsidiaries that (a) questions or would reasonably be expected to question the validity of this Agreement or the other agreements contemplated hereby or thereby or any actions taken or to be taken by Buyer, Target or their respective Subsidiaries with respect hereto or thereto, or (b) seeks to enjoin or otherwise restrain the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Target shall give Buyer every opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any shareholder litigation against Target and/or its directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without Buyer's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

7.12. Legal Conditions to Merger.

Subject to Sections 7.1 and 7.4 of this Agreement, each of Buyer and Target shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in ARTICLE 8 hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other Party to obtain) any Consent or Order by, any Regulatory Authority and any other third party that is required to be obtained by Target or Buyer or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with, or to effect, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement (including, any merger between a Subsidiary of Buyer, on the one hand, and a Subsidiary of Target, on the other hand) or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the Parties to the Merger, the proper officers and directors of each Party and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Buyer.

7.13. Change of Method.

Buyer may at any time change the method of effecting the Merger (including by providing for the merger of Target with a wholly owned Subsidiary of Buyer) if and to the extent requested by Buyer, and Target agrees to enter into such amendments to this Agreement as Buyer may reasonably request in order to give effect to such restructuring; provided, that no such change or amendment shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Merger with respect to Target's shareholders or (iii) be reasonably likely to cause the Closing to be materially delayed or the receipt of the Requisite Regulatory Approvals to be prevented or materially delayed.

7.14. Takeover Statutes.

Neither Buyer nor Target shall take any action that would cause any Takeover Statute to become applicable to this Agreement, the Merger, or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, and each of Buyer and Target shall take all necessary steps to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby from any applicable Takeover Statute now or hereafter in effect. If any Takeover Statute may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, each of Buyer and Target will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Statute on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, if necessary, challenging the validity or applicability of any such Takeover Statute.

7.15. Closing Financial Statements.

At least eight Business Days prior to the Effective Time, Target shall provide Buyer with Target's consolidated financial statements presenting the financial condition of Target and its Subsidiaries as of the close of business on the last day of the last month ended prior to the Effective Time and Target's consolidated results of operations, cash flows, and shareholders' equity for the period from January 1, 2016 through the close of business on the last day of the last month ended prior to the Effective Time (the Closing Financial Statements); provided, that if the Effective Time occurs in the month of January or on or before the 15th Business Day of any other month, Target shall have provided consolidated financial statements as of and through the second month preceding the Effective Time. Such financial statements shall be accompanied by a certificate of Target's chief financial officer, dated as of the Effective Time, to the effect that such financial statements continue to reflect accurately, as of the date of the certificate, the financial condition of Target in all material respects. Such financial statements shall have been prepared in accordance with GAAP and regulatory accounting principles and other applicable legal and accounting requirements, and reflect all period-end accruals and other adjustments. Such Closing Financial Statements shall also reflect as of their date (a) accruals for all fees, costs, and expenses incurred or expected to be incurred (whether or not doing so is in accordance with GAAP) in connection (directly or indirectly) with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) the capital ratios set forth in Section 8.2(g) (provided that such ratios shall be computed excluding fees, costs, and expenses incurred directly in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), and (c) the asset quality metrics set forth in Section 8.2(e) and shall be accompanied by a certificate of Target's chief financial officer, dated as of the Effective Time, to the effect that such financial statements meet the requirements of this Section 7.15 and continue to reflect accurately, as of the date of such certificate, the consolidated financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and shareholders' equity of Target in all material respects.

7.16. Subordinated Debentures.

Upon the Effective Time, Buyer or one of its Subsidiaries shall assume the due and punctual performance and observance of the covenants and conditions to be performed by Target or its Subsidiaries under the Indenture between Target and Wilmington Trust Company, as trustee, dated as of December 7, 2005, relating to the three-month LIBOR plus 1.45% fixed/floating rate junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures of Target due 2035 (the Subordinated Debentures), and the due and punctual payments of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the Subordinated Debentures. In connection therewith, Buyer or its applicable Subsidiary shall execute and deliver any supplemental indentures, and the parties hereto shall provide any opinion of counsel to the trustee thereof, required to make such assumptions effective. If requested by Buyer, Target will, or cause its Subsidiaries to, reasonably cooperate with Buyer to facilitate the prompt redemption of the Subordinated Debentures at or following the Closing.

ARTICLE 8 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO OBLIGATIONS TO CONSUMMATE

8.1. Conditions to Obligations of Each Party.

The respective obligations of each Party to perform this Agreement and consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, unless waived by both Parties pursuant to Section 10.6:

(a) Shareholder Approval. The shareholders of Target shall have approved this Agreement, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, as and to the extent required by Law or by the provisions of any governing instruments.

- (b) Regulatory Approvals. (i) All required regulatory approvals from the Federal Reserve, TDFI, Arkansas State Bank Department, the FDIC, and any other Regulatory Authority and (ii) any other regulatory approvals or consents contemplated by Sections 4.2(c) and 5.3(c) the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Buyer and Target (considered as a consolidated entity), in each case required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired (all such approvals and the expiration of all such waiting periods being referred to as the Requisite Regulatory Approvals); provided, that no such Requisite Regulatory Approval shall impose a Burdensome Condition as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion.
- (c) Legal Proceedings. No court or Regulatory Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law or Order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) or taken any other action which prohibits, restricts or makes illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger).

(d) Registration Statement. The Registration Statement shall be effective under the Securities Act, no stop orders suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued, and no action, suit, proceeding or investigation by the SEC to suspend the effectiveness thereof shall have been initiated and be continuing.

(e) Exchange Listing. The shares of Buyer Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger shall have been approved for listing on NASDAQ.

(f) Other Documents. Buyer and Target shall have executed and delivered to the other party such other documents, instruments, understandings, or agreements in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement reasonably requested by such other Party.

(g) Tax Matters. Each Party shall have received a written opinion of Covington & Burling LLP, in form reasonably satisfactory to such Parties (the Tax Opinion), to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. In rendering such Tax Opinion, such counsel shall be entitled to rely upon representations of officers of Target and Buyer reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

8.2. Conditions to Obligations of Buyer.

The obligations of Buyer to perform this Agreement and consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, unless waived by Buyer pursuant to Section 10.6(a):

(a) Representations and Warranties. For purposes of this Section 8.2(a), the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Target set forth in this Agreement shall be assessed as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Time with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Effective Time (provided that representations and warranties which are confined to a specified date shall speak only as of such date). The representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.3(a), 4.3(c), 4.4(a), 4.4(c), 4.10(a), and 4.34 shall be true and correct. The representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.2, 4.3(b), 4.3(d), 4.4(b), 4.4(d), 4.6, 4.15(b), 4.21, 4.25, 4.27, 4.28, and 4.34 shall be true and correct in all material respects. The representations and warranties set forth in each other section in ARTICLE 4 shall, in the aggregate, be true and correct in all respects except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct, either individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to have a Material Adverse Effect; provided, that, for purposes of this sentence only, those representations and warranties which are qualified by references to material or Material Adverse Effect or to the Knowledge of any Person shall be deemed not to include such qualifications.

(b) Performance of Agreements and Covenants. Each and all of the agreements and covenants of Target to be performed and complied with pursuant to this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby prior to the Effective Time shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects.

(c) Certificates. Target shall have delivered to Buyer (i) a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date and signed on its behalf by its chief executive officer and its chief financial officer, to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 8.1 as such conditions relate to Target and in Sections 8.2(a) and 8.2(b) have been satisfied, and (ii) certified copies of resolutions duly adopted by Target's board of directors and shareholders evidencing the taking of all corporate action necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, all in such reasonable detail as Buyer and its counsel shall request.

Target shall have delivered to Buyer a certificate stating that Target Common Stock is not a United States real property interest within the meaning of Section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code satisfying the requirements of §§1.897-2(h) and 1.1445-2(c)(3) of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations, in form and substance satisfactory to Buyer.

In each case as reflected in the Closing Financial Statements, (i) Target Bank shall be well capitalized as defined under applicable Law, (ii) Target Bank's Tier 1 leverage ratio shall be no less than 10.0%, (iii) Target Bank's Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio shall be no less than 14.5%, (iv) Target Bank's total risk-based capital ratio shall be no less than 15.5%, (v) Target Bank's tangible shareholders' equity to tangible assets ratio shall be no less than 10.5%, and (vi) Target Bank shall not have received any notification from the TDFI or FDIC to the effect that the capital of Target Bank is insufficient to permit Target Bank to engage in all aspects of its business and its currently proposed businesses without material restrictions, including the imposition of a Burdensome Condition; provided, however, that the conditions contained in Sections 8.2(g)(ii) - 8.2(g)(v) shall be waived by Buyer if the failure to satisfy such conditions is due solely to the growth of Target Bank's Assets, as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion. Without Buyer's prior written consent, Target shall not, and shall not cause or permit Target Bank to, take any action following its delivery of the Closing Financial Statements that would cause Target Bank not to satisfy the conditions contained in this paragraph.

(h) Termination of Contracts. Target shall have delivered to Buyer evidence satisfactory to Buyer in its discretion that (i) each Contract listed in Section 4.35 of Target's Disclosure Memorandum (except for Contracts between Target and its wholly-owned Subsidiaries entered into in the Ordinary Course) has been terminated in its entirety; (ii) each of the following employment agreements has been terminated in its entirety: (A) Employment Agreement, as amended, between Target and C. The obligations of Target to perform this Agreement and consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, unless waived by Target pursuant to Section 10.6(b):

(a) Representations and Warranties. For purposes of this Section 8.3(a), the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Buyer set forth in this Agreement shall be assessed as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Time with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Effective Time (provided that representations and warranties which are confined to a specified date shall speak only as of such date). The representations and warranties of Buyer set forth in Sections 5.4(a) and (c) shall be true and correct (except for inaccuracies which are de minimis in amount) (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, the standard set forth in Section 5.1 shall be disregarded). The representations and warranties of Buyer set forth in Sections 5.4(b), 5.12 and 5.13 shall be true and correct in all material respects (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, the standard set forth in Section 5.1 shall be disregarded). Subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.1, the representations and warranties set forth in each other section in ARTICLE 5 shall be true and correct in all respects.

ARTICLE 9 TERMINATION

9.1. Termination.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of Target, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) By mutual written agreement of Buyer and Target;

(b) By either Party in the event (i) any Regulatory Authority has denied a Requisite Regulatory Approval, provided that the Party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(i) shall have used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and change such denial, (ii) any Law or Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have become final and nonappealable, provided that the Party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(ii) shall have used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and remove such Law or Order, or (iii) the shareholders of Target fail to vote their approval of the matters relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby at Target's Shareholders' Meeting where such matters were presented to such shareholders for approval and voted upon;

(c) By either Party in the event that the Merger shall not have been consummated by May 17, 2017, if the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on or before such date is not caused by any breach of this Agreement by the Party electing to terminate pursuant to this Section 9.1(c);

(d) By Buyer in the event that the board of directors of Target has (i) failed to recommend the Merger and the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of Target or otherwise effected a Change in the Target Recommendation, (ii) breached the terms of Section 7.2 in any respect adverse to Buyer, or (iii) breached its obligations under Section 7.1 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold Target's Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with Section 7.1;

(e) By Target in the event that any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Target to consummate the Merger contained in Section 8.3 cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the date specified in Section 9.1(c) (provided that the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled is not a result of Target's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement or the breach by Target of any of its material representations or warranties contained in this Agreement);

(f) By Buyer in the event that any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Buyer to consummate the Merger contained in Section 8.2 cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the date specified in Section 9.1(c) (provided that the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled is not a result of Buyer's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if:

(i) (A) Target terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(c) prior to ten (10) Business Days following the satisfaction of Section 8.1(b), (B) either Target or Buyer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(b)(iii), or (C) Buyer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(f), and within 12 months of such termination Target shall either (1) consummate an Acquisition Transaction or (2) enter into an Acquisition Agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction, whether or not such Acquisition Transaction is subsequently consummated; or

(ii) Buyer shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(d), then Target shall pay to Buyer an amount equal to $3,000,000 (the Termination Fee). The payment of the Termination Fee by Target pursuant to this Section 10.3(b) constitutes liquidated damages and not a penalty, and shall be the sole monetary remedy of Buyer in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Sections 9.1(b)(iii), 9.1(c), 9.1(d) or 9.1(f). If the Termination Fee shall be payable pursuant to subsection (i) of this Section 10.3(b), the Termination Fee shall be paid in same-day funds at or prior to the earlier of the date of consummation of such Acquisition Transaction or the date of execution of an Acquisition Agreement with respect to such Acquisition Transaction. If the Termination Fee shall be payable pursuant to subsection (ii) of this Section 10.3(b), the Termination Fee shall be paid in same-day funds within two Business Days from the date of termination of this Agreement.

(c) The Parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in paragraph (b) of this Section 10.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that without these agreements, they would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if Target fails to pay any fee payable by it pursuant to this Section 10.3 when due, then Target shall pay to Buyer its costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with collecting such fee, together with interest on the amount of the fee at the prime rate of Citibank, N.A. from the date such payment was due under this Agreement until the date of payment.

10.4. Entire Agreement; Third Party Beneficiaries.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement (including the Disclosure Memorandum of each of Target and Buyer, the exhibits, the schedules, and the other documents and instruments referred to herein) constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereunder and supersedes all prior arrangements or understandings with respect thereto, written or oral. Nothing in this Agreement expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person, other than the Parties or their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, other than as provided in Section 7.9, which is intended for each Indemnified Party. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the Parties hereto and are for the sole benefit of the Parties. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the Parties hereto in accordance herewith without notice or liability to any other Person. In some instances, the representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the Parties hereto of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the Parties hereto. Consequently, Persons other than the Parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, no consent, approval or agreement of any third party beneficiary will be required to amend, modify to waive any provision of this Agreement.

10.5. Amendments.

To the extent permitted by Law, this Agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the Parties upon the approval of each of the Parties, whether before or after Target Shareholder Approval of this Agreement has been obtained; provided, that after obtaining Target Shareholder Approval, there shall be made no amendment that requires further approval by such Target shareholders.

10.6. Waivers.

(a) Prior to or at the Effective Time, Buyer, acting through its board of directors, chief executive officer or other authorized officer, shall have the right to waive any Default in the performance of any term of this Agreement by Target, to waive or extend the time for the compliance or fulfillment by Target of any and all of its obligations under this Agreement, and to waive any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Buyer under this Agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any Law. No such waiver shall be effective unless in writing signed by a duly authorized officer of Buyer.

(b) Prior to or at the Effective Time, Target, acting through its board of directors, chief executive officer or other authorized officer, shall have the right to waive any Default in the performance of any term of this Agreement by Buyer, to waive or extend the time for the compliance or fulfillment by Buyer of any and all of its obligations under this Agreement, and to waive any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Target under this Agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any Law. No such waiver shall be effective unless in writing signed by a duly authorized officer of Target.

(c) The failure of any Party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect the right of such Party at a later time to enforce the same or any other provision of this Agreement. No waiver of any condition or of the breach of any term contained in this Agreement in one or more instances shall be deemed to be or construed as a further or continuing waiver of such condition or breach or a waiver of any other condition or of the breach of any other term of this Agreement.

10.7. Assignment.

Except as expressly contemplated hereby, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any Party hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

10.9. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) The Parties agree that this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the Laws of the State of Arkansas without regard to any conflict of Laws or choice of Law principles that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive Law of another jurisdiction (except that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Target shall be subject to the Laws of the State of Tennessee).

(b) Each Party agrees that it will bring any action or proceeding in respect of any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby exclusively in any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction located in the State of Arkansas (the Chosen Courts), and, solely in connection with claims arising under this Agreement or the transactions that are the subject of this Agreement, (i) irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Courts, (ii) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in the Chosen Courts, (iii) waives any objection that the Chosen Courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party and (iv) agrees that service of process upon such party in any such action or proceeding will be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 10.8.

(c) EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 10.9.

10.10. Counterparts; Signatures.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement, and any amendments or waivers hereto or thereto, to the extent signed and delivered by means of a facsimile machine or by e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file, shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. No Party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument shall raise the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file to deliver a signature to this Agreement or any amendment or waiver hereto or any agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file as a defense to the formation of a contract and each Party hereto forever waives any such defense.

10.11. Captions; Articles and Sections.

The captions contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not part of this Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to particular Articles or Sections shall mean and refer to the referenced Articles and Sections of this Agreement.

10.12. Interpretations.

Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any Party, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. No Party to this Agreement shall be considered the draftsman. The Parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement has been reviewed, negotiated, and accepted by all Parties and their attorneys and, unless otherwise defined herein, the words used shall be construed and interpreted according to their ordinary meaning so as fairly to accomplish the purposes and intentions of all Parties hereto.

10.13. Enforcement of Agreement.

The Parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with its specific terms or was otherwise breached and that money damages would be both incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled, without the requirement of posting bond, to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the Parties waives any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate.

10.14. Severability.

Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

10.15. Disclosure.

Any disclosure made in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or referred to or described in writing in any Section of this Agreement, in any schedule or exhibit attached hereto or in any Disclosure Memorandum shall apply only to, or only qualify, the indicated Section of this Agreement, except to the extent that (a) any other Section of this Agreement specifically referenced or cross-referenced in such disclosure or (b) the relevance of such item to another Section of this Agreement is reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure (notwithstanding the absence of a specific cross reference) from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure applies to such other Sections of this Agreement.

- (5) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action that gave rise to the shareholder's right to dissent until the date of payment, at the average auction rate paid on United States treasury bills with a maturity of six (6) months (or the closest maturity thereto) as of the auction date for such treasury bills closest to such effective date;
- (6) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation; and
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

48-23-102. RIGHT TO DISSENT.

- (a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:
 - (A) If shareholder approval is required for the merger by §48-21-104 or the charter and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger if the merger is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting or the shareholder is a nonconsenting shareholder under §48-17-104(b) who would have been entitled to vote on the merger if the merger had been submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting; or

(B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under §48-21-105;

(2) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan if the plan is submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting or the shareholder is a nonconsenting shareholder under §48-17-104(b) who would have been entitled to vote on the plan if the plan had been submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting;

(3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange if the sale or exchange is submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting or the shareholder is a nonconsenting shareholder under §48-17-104(b) who would have been entitled to vote on the sale or exchange if the sale or exchange had been submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting, including a sale of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash

pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one (1) year after the date of sale;

(4) An amendment of the charter that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(A) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(B) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;

(C) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share, if the fractional share is to be acquired for cash under §48-16-104;

(5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the charter, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares; or

(6) Consummation of a conversion of the corporation to another entity pursuant to chapter 21 of this title.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), no shareholder may dissent as to any shares of a security which, as of the date of the effectuation of the transaction which would otherwise give rise to dissenters' rights, is listed on an exchange registered under §6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, compiled in 15 U.S.C. §78f, as amended, or is a national market system security, as defined in rules promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, compiled in 15 U.S.C. §78a, as amended.

48-23-103. DISSENT BY NOMINEES AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS.

(a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection (a) are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares of any one (1) or more classes held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:

- (1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and
- (2) Does so with respect to all shares of the same class of which the person is the beneficial shareholder or over which the person has power to direct the vote.

48-23-201. NOTICE OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

- (a) Where any corporate action specified in §48-23-102(a) is to be submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice (including any meeting notice required under chapters 11-27 to be provided to nonvoting shareholders) must state that the corporation has concluded that the shareholders are, are not, or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter. If the corporation concludes that dissenters' rights are or may be available, a copy of this chapter must accompany the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise dissenters' rights.

A-II-2

(b) In a merger pursuant to §48-21-105, the parent corporation must notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice must be sent within ten (10) days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in §48-23-203.

(c) Where any corporate action specified in §48-23-102(a) is to be approved by written consent of the shareholders pursuant to §48-17-104(a) or §48-17-104(b):

(1) Written notice that dissenters' rights are, are not, or may be available must be sent to each record shareholder from whom a consent is solicited at the time consent of such shareholder is first solicited and, if the corporation has concluded that dissenters' rights are or may be available, must be accompanied by a copy of this chapter; and

(2) Written notice that dissenters' rights are, are not, or may be available must be delivered together with the notice to nonconsenting and nonvoting shareholders required by §48-17-104(e) and (f), may include the materials described in §48-23-203 and, if the corporation has concluded that dissenters' rights are or may be available, must be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

(d) A corporation's failure to give notice pursuant to this section will not invalidate the corporate action.

48-23-202. NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT.

(a) If a corporate action specified in §48-23-102(a) is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights with respect to shares for which dissenters' rights may be asserted under this chapter:

(1) Must deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any such shares in favor of the proposed action.

(b) If a corporate action specified in §48-23-102(a) is to be approved by less than unanimous written consent, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights with respect to shares for which dissenters' rights may be asserted under this chapter must not sign a consent in favor of the proposed action with respect to such shares.

(c) A shareholder who fails to satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) or subsection (b) is not entitled to payment under this chapter.

48-23-203. DISSENTERS' NOTICE.

(a) If a corporate action requiring dissenters' rights under §48-23-102(a) becomes effective, the corporation must send a written dissenters' notice and form required by subdivision (b)(1) to all shareholders who satisfy the requirements of §48-23-202(a) or §48-23-202(b). In the case of a merger under §48-21-105, the parent must deliver a dissenters' notice and form to all record shareholders who may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights.

(b) The dissenters' notice must be delivered no earlier than the date the corporate action specified in §48-23-102(a) became effective, and no later than (10) days after such date, and must:

(1) Supply a form that:

- (A) Specifies the first date of any announcement to shareholders made prior to the date the corporate action became effective of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action;
- (B) If such announcement was made, requires the shareholder asserting dissenters' rights to certify whether beneficial ownership of those shares for which dissenters' rights are asserted was acquired before that date; and
- (C) Requires the shareholder asserting dissenters' rights to certify that such shareholder did not vote for or consent to the transaction;

A-II-3

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(2) State:

(A) Where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under subdivision (b)(2)(B);

(B) A date by which the corporation must receive the form, which date may not be fewer than forty (40) nor more than sixty (60) days after the date the subsection (a) dissenters notice is sent, and state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand payment with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by such specified date;

(C) The corporation's estimate of the fair value of shares;

(D) That, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the shareholder so requesting, within ten (10) days after the date specified in subdivision (b)(2)(B) the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them; and

(E) The date by which the notice to withdraw under §48-23-204 must be received, which date must be within twenty (20) days after the date specified in subdivision (b)(2)(B); and

(3) Be accompanied by a copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to §48-23-201.

48-23-204. DUTY TO DEMAND PAYMENT.

(a) A shareholder sent a dissenters notice described in §48-23-203 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters notice pursuant to §48-23-203(b)(2), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(b) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's share certificates under subsection (a) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

(c) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

(d) A demand for payment filed by a shareholder may not be withdrawn unless the corporation with which it was filed, or the surviving corporation, consents thereto.

48-23-205. SHARE RESTRICTIONS.

(a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is effectuated or the restrictions released under §48-23-207.

(b) The person for whom dissenters rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

48-23-206. PAYMENT.

(a) Except as provided in §48-23-208, as soon as the proposed corporate action is effectuated, or upon receipt of a payment demand, whichever is later, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with §48-23-204 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of each dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

(b) The payment must be accompanied by:

(1) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

A-II-4

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;
- (3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- (4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under §48-23-209; and
- (5) A copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to §48-23-201 or §48-23-203.

48-23-207. FAILURE TO TAKE ACTION.

- (a) If the corporation does not effectuate the proposed action that gave rise to the dissenter's rights within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.
- (b) If, after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation effectuates the proposed action, it must send a new dissenter's notice under §48-23-203 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

48-23-208. AFTER-ACQUIRED SHARES.

- (a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by §48-23-206 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action.
- (b) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (a), after effectuating the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under §48-23-209.

48-23-209. PROCEDURE IF SHAREHOLDER DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT OR OFFER.

- (a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate (less any payment under §48-23-206), or reject the corporation's offer under §48-23-208 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:
 - (1) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under §48-23-206 or offered under §48-23-208 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;
 - (2) The corporation fails to make payment under §48-23-206 within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment; or
 - (3) The corporation, having failed to effectuate the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives the dissenter's right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (a) within one (1) month after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

48-23-301. COURT ACTION.

(a) If a demand for payment under §48-23-209 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within two (2) months after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the two-month period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

A-II-5

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(1) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(2) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under §48-23-208.

48-23-302. COURT COSTS AND COUNSEL FEES.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under §48-23-301 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under §48-23-209.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable against:

(1) The corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of part 2 of this chapter; or

(2) Either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

November 17, 2016

Board of Directors
Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc.
1862 Highway 45 Bypass
Jackson, TN 38305

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. (HCIC) of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) to be received by the shareholders of HCIC in the proposed merger (the Merger) of Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. with and into Simmons First National Corporation (Simmons), pursuant to a Merger Agreement to be dated November 17, 2016.

We understand that, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), each share of Target Common Stock (as defined in the Agreement) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding the Canceled Shares and Dissenting Shares as defined in the Agreement) shall be converted into the right to receive the following consideration, in each case without interest:

- (i) an amount of cash equal to $181.47 (the Cash Consideration); and
- (ii) 4.8393 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Buyer Common Stock (as defined in the Agreement) (the Stock Consideration) and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration).

Olsen Palmer LLC is an investment banking firm that has acted as financial advisor to HCIC in connection with the Merger. Olsen Palmer LLC, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

We will receive a fee for our services pursuant to the terms of our engagement with HCIC, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. HCIC has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

Olsen Palmer LLC has not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to HCIC or Simmons during the two-year period prior to the date hereof. Olsen Palmer LLC may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to HCIC and/or Simmons in the future, for which Olsen Palmer LLC may receive compensation.

In connection with this opinion, we have made such reviews, analyses and inquiries as we have deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. Among other things, we have reviewed:

(vii) the current market environment generally and the banking industry in particular; and (viii) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant.

We also discussed with certain members of senior management of HCIC and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of HCIC.

In performing our review, and for purposes of rendering our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by HCIC or their representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed, without independent verification, such accuracy and completeness of all such information. We have further relied on the assurances of the management of HCIC that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of any assets, the collateral securing any assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of HCIC or any of its subsidiaries and no such evaluation or appraisal was provided to us. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of HCIC. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of HCIC, or the combined entity after the Merger and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to HCIC. We have assumed, with your consent, that the allowance for loan losses for HCIC is adequate to cover such losses. We are not experts in the evaluation of allowances for loan and lease losses and have not independently verified such allowances or reviewed or examined any individual loan or credit files. We assumed, with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses set forth in the financial statements of HCIC are adequate to cover such losses and comply fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practices as of the date of such financial statements.

We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement and all related agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party thereunder, that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived and that the Merger is lawful. We have also assumed that in the course of obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals for the consummation of the Merger, no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the combined entity or contemplated benefits of the Merger. In addition, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of the Agreement will not differ in any respect from the draft of the Agreement identified above. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice HCIC has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement, and we have assumed that all such advice was correct.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect our opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of HCIC (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the Merger and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. This Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of HCIC or to any shareholder of either HCIC or Simmons as to how any such member of such board or any shareholder should vote at any meeting called to consider and vote upon the Merger. We express no opinion as to the fairness of the Merger Consideration to the creditors or other constituencies of HCIC. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger

Consideration to the shareholders of HCIC and does not address the underlying business decision of HCIC to engage in the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for HCIC. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on the part of Olsen Palmer LLC to any party or person. This opinion shall not be disclosed, reproduced, disseminated, quoted, summarized or referred to at any time, in any manner or for any purpose, or used for any other purposes, nor shall any references to Olsen Palmer LLC be made, without Olsen Palmer LLC's prior written consent. This Opinion was not reviewed or issued by a fairness opinion committee. We have not been requested to opine as to, and this Opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to any one class or group of HCIC's or any other party's security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of HCIC's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents), or (ii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and in reliance thereon, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of HCIC for all of the shares of HCIC common stock in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Olsen Palmer LLC
