Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On March 3, 2006, ACR Group, Inc. (the "Company") announced the appointment of Marshall G. Webb and Jo E. (Jed) Shaw, Jr. to the Company's Board of Directors, effective March 1, 2006. Their appointment increases the number of directors to eight, five of whom are independent of management of the Company.

Mr. Webb is founder and President of Polaris Group, which he organized in 1999 to provide financial advisory and merger and acquisition services to public and private companies. Prior to founding Polaris, he founded, was CEO and led the IPO of a global provider of information technology solutions to government and business. Earlier, Mr. Webb was an owner and executive officer for 18 years in several major staff augmentation and outsourcing companies. Mr. Webb is also a director of two other publicly-traded companies that are listed on the American Stock Exchange and is a certified public accountant. Mr. Webb holds the Certificate of Director Education, a nationally recognized designation for corporate directors.

Mr. Shaw is an attorney and has practiced law continuously since 1959. He was President of Shaw & Associates, a law firm specializing in the practice of real estate, mortgage lending and bankruptcy law, where he represented many national mortgage companies. He also is a former director, major shareholder and legal counsel for a small bank in Texas. For many years, Mr. Shaw also held leadership positions, as mayor, councilman, city attorney and municipal judge, in two small, incorporated cities in the immediate Houston area.
