Smith & Nephew Redenominates Share Capital

23 January 2006

Smith & Nephew plc (LSE: SN, NYSE: SNN) announces today that further to previous announcements the share capital of the company has been redenominated into US dollars by way of a reduction in capital and subsequent issue and allotment of new dollar ordinary shares. The redenomination of the share capital was approved by shareholders on 12 December 2005 and Court approval for the reduction was received on 18 January 2006. The redenomination has been registered at Companies House.

The nominal value of each dollar denominated ordinary share is now 20 cents. Following this redenomination, shareholders receive one new dollar denominated ordinary share for each sterling ordinary share held. The new shares have the same rights and restrictions as the previously issued sterling ordinary shares.

The rights and obligations of the company's American Depositary Shares (ADS), which are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, are not affected by the redenomination and each ADS will continue to represent 5 ordinary shares.

Application has been made to the UK Listing Authority and to the London Stock Exchange for 940,690,200 new dollar ordinary shares, being the issued share capital of the company at the close of business on Friday 20 January 2006, to be
