NEWS RELEASE FROM HARMONY

11 November 2004

South African High Court Rules in Favour of Harmony

The South African High Court today dismissed an application by Gold Fields Limited ( Gold Fields ) to declare Harmony s offers to Gold Fields shareholders unlawful and to interdict their implementation.

Despite Gold Fields legal challenges, Harmony was allowed to submit its bid for Gold Fields to the Competition Commission on 5 November and, on 8 November, the Executive Committee of the SRP ruled that Norilsk and Harmony are not concert parties. With these two delaying tactics out of the way, we are pleased, but not surprised, that this latest time wasting initiative has also been resolved. We are getting closer to the point where shareholders will be allowed to decide based on the relative merits of the two proposed transactions , said CE Bernard Swanepoel.

Edgar Filing: GOLD FIELDS LTD - Form 425

This application was one of a string of legal and regulatory attempts by Gold Fields' directors to divert attention from the value that the Harmony offers to Gold Fields' shareholders will generate. Gold Fields' board and management have been determined to frustrate the ability of Gold Fields' shareholders to assess the merits of the Harmony offers. It is clear to Harmony that all these frustrating legal actions form a strategy by Gold Fields' board and management to prevent our valid and attractive offers being put to their shareholders.

It is crystal clear now that following their defence presentation last week, the Gold Fields' directors are unable to put forth a convincing value proposition to their own shareholders. We have shown that in comparison with Harmony, they run inefficient operations and they intend to sell their international operations to IAMGold on the cheap. On 10 November 2004, IAMGold published a net loss for the third quarter in a row. It is no wonder they are not focusing on the arguments but on legal challenges and other delaying tactics .

Harmony has made premium offers to Gold Fields' shareholders. Harmony believes that the application of the Harmony Way to the assets currently owned by Gold Fields will enhance shareholder value considerably for both Gold Fields and Harmony shareholders.

Harmony continues to have confidence that Gold Fields' shareholders will benefit from the value proposition embedded in its premium offers and remains determined to let the market be the final arbiter and to let the shareholders decide.
