NEWS RELEASE FROM HARMONY

23 November 2004

Harmony wins another battle:

U.S. District Court denies Gold Fields' motion for preliminary injunction

The United States District Court for the Southern District of New York today denied a motion for preliminary injunction by Gold Fields Limited ( Gold Fields ) which sought to block Harmony's offer to Gold Fields' shareholders in the U.S. In addition, the Court ruled that the evidence submitted failed to support Gold Fields' claim that Harmony misled Gold Fields' U.S. shareholders concerning Harmony's disclosure of its gold reserves in the Registration Statement filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

We are pleased but not surprised by this judgment. Gold Fields' management has embarked on frustrating and, in our view, frivolous litigation to divert attention and to frustrate the ability of Gold Fields shareholders to assess the merits of Harmony's offers, said Harmony CE Bernard Swanepoel.

We were disappointed that Gold Fields reverted to litigating in the US, particularly after the South African courts and regulators have ruled against them and confirmed the validity of our offers and rejected numerous legal and regulatory actions by Gold Fields. Despite Gold Fields protestations that they are a champion of the South African cause, they have indicated clearly with this legal challenge in the US, that they have no confidence in South Africa's regulatory regime. We appreciate that the US courts dealt with their claims on an accelerated basis.

Gold Fields has been unsuccessful in their litigation to date and Swanepoel said he hopes that they will reconsider the other delaying tactics they have employed so that their shareholders can assess Harmony's offers for themselves.

Harmony's early settlement offer is scheduled to close on 26 November 2004 and is unconditional in all respects. Harmony urges Gold Fields shareholders to accept the offer.
