Nothing prevents Harmony from applying to interdict the implementation of the proposed IAMGold transaction

Harmony today met with the Judge President of the Supreme Court of Appeal with a view to convening an urgent court to hear the appeal against the Competition Appeal Court order handed down on Friday 26 November 2004.

Following this consultation, the Judge President has taken the view that it is not necessary to convene an urgent court to hear the matter for the following reasons:

the resolutions in respect of the proposed IAMGold transaction at the general meeting of Gold Fields to be held on 7 December 2004 (the Gold Fields general meeting) may or may not be approved, regardless of whether Harmony votes the shares it acquired under the early settlement offer (the Harmony shares);

if the resolutions in respect of the proposed IAMGold transaction are approved at the Gold Fields general meeting, but would not have been approved had Harmony been able to vote the Harmony shares, then there would be nothing to prevent Harmony from applying to the High Court to interdict the implementation of the proposed IAMGold transaction until such time as its appeal in relation to the Competition Appeal Court order has been decided; and the Judge President will consider convening a court in January 2005 to hear the appeal should this still be required.

In addition, Harmony is of the view that, as Harmony has already applied for leave to appeal, the judgement of the Competition Appeal Court has been suspended and accordingly Harmony is entitled to vote the Harmony shares at the Gold Fields general meeting, which it fully intends to do.
