Harmony announces management realignment

Harmony announced today that it would be repositioning key managers to oversee the company's growth strategy.

CE Bernard Swanepoel said that, should the company receive approval from the competition authorities to implement its proposed merger with Gold Fields, the realignment will position Harmony to extract the value promised to shareholders and successfully integrate the Gold Fields assets.

These appointments are in line with our strategic goal to control Gold Fields. Bolstering the team in this manner will ensure that we obtain maximum value from our investment, devote the appropriate and necessary focus and ensure that we have the capacity to run the assets of the combined company, said Swanepoel. I want to free-up my time to be responsible to my employees, my shareholders and my Board to deliver what we know we can.

Executive Directors Ferdi Dippenaar and Ted Grobicki will work along-side Swanepoel. Ferdi's Investor Relations role will be filled by a new senior appointment in due course. Graham Briggs, currently Harmony's country manager in Papua New Guinea, will assume responsibility for the Australasian portfolio, becoming Chief Executive of Harmony Australia.

Nomfundo Qangule will remain responsible for her duties as Financial Director.

Philip Kotze, Peter Steenkamp and Bob Atkinson will be appointed as Operations Directors for the Long-life, Leveraged and Growth Asset Portfolios respectively.

Swanepoel said the new Senior Management appointments demonstrate the calibre and depth of the Harmony management team: I have every confidence that they will take our company forward and will turn our stated vision into a reality.
