PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K,10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 on a timely basis because the Company is in the process of responding to comments by the SEC associated with a periodic review of the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 and Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004. Two principal items remaining in the review relate to the timing of the expense recognition of the Company's foreign source withholding taxes and the ten year amortization period for costs of internally developed patents. The Company is continuing to address these items with the SEC. The Company will be unable to finalize its financial results until these items are resolved which it anticipates will occur after the Company's March 16, 2005 filing deadline. The Company can make no prediction at this time as to the outcome of the review with the SEC, any impact the resolution of the review may have on amounts recorded for foreign source withholding taxes and amortization of patent costs, and whether or not such resolution will result in the Company reporting a material weakness in the Company's internal control over financial reporting as required by Section 404 of The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No
