2005 Stock Incentive Plan

At the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Cisco Systems, Inc. (the Company) held on November 15, 2005, the Company's shareholders approved the 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the Plan). The Plan was adopted by the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) on July 14, 2005, subject to the approval of the Company's shareholders, and became effective with such shareholder approval on November 15, 2005.

The Plan provides for the grant of stock options (both nonstatutory and incentive stock options), stock grants, stock units and stock appreciation rights to employees (including employee directors and executive officers) and consultants of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates, and non-employee directors of the Company. An aggregate of 350,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock have been reserved and are available for issuance under the Plan on a discretionary basis, subject to limitations set forth in the Plan.

The Plan is currently set to terminate at the Company's 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders unless re-adopted or extended by the shareholders prior to or on such date.

A more complete description of the terms of the Plan can be found in Proposal No. 2 Approval of the 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (pages 10 through 15) in the Company's definitive proxy statement dated September 20, 2005 and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 26, 2005, which description is incorporated by reference herein. The foregoing description of the Plan and the description incorporated by reference from the Company's definitive proxy statement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Plan, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.

Lead Independent Director Compensation

On November 15, 2005, the Board formalized the appointment of Carol A. Bartz as the Lead Independent Director of the Board. In addition, the Board approved an annual retainer of $30,000 for the role of Lead Independent Director, which annual retainer will be paid in addition to any other compensation paid for Board and committee service to the person serving in that capacity.
