COMMON STOCK

This prospectus covers 3,430,092 shares of the common stock of UCN, Inc., that may be sold from time to time by the persons listed under the caption Selling Security Holders, beginning on page 3. The 3,430,092 shares consist of

1,956,527 shares issued in private placements that closed in May 2006, up to 1,143,565 shares issuable at a conversion rate of $3.00 per share upon conversion of principal and interest of a convertible term note in the principal amount of $3,379,994.31 issued to our primary secured lender in May 2006, as part of a term note and revolving credit financing; and 330,000 shares issuable at a price of $2.75 per share upon exercise of a warrant issued to our primary secured lender in May 2006. UCN will benefit from a conversion of the convertible term note to equity. UCN will receive the proceeds from exercise of the warrant, if exercised. UCN will not receive any proceeds or benefit from resale of the shares by the selling security holders.

Quotations for our common stock are reported on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol UCNN. On July 10, 2006, the closing bid price for our common stock was $2.54 per share.

The Securities and Exchange Commission allows us to incorporate information into this prospectus by reference to the information presented in reports previously filed with the Commission, which means that we can disclose important information to you by referring you to those reports. In this prospectus we are incorporating information presented in our:

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the information in this prospectus, or incorporated by reference into this prospectus, contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. Any statement in this prospectus that is not a statement of an historical fact constitutes a forward-looking statement. Further, when we use the words may, expect, anticipate, plan, believe, seek, estimate, internal, and similar words, we identify statements and expressions that may be forward-looking statements. We believe it is important to communicate certain of our expectations to our investors. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause our future results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Many factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. You are accordingly cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. We have no obligation or intent to update publicly any forward-looking statements whether in response to new information, future events or otherwise.

Furthermore, the SEC filings are available on our corporate website, free of charge. Our corporate website is <http://www.ucn.net>.

SELLING SECURITY HOLDERS

The following table sets forth as of July 10, 2006 the name of each of the selling security holders, the number of shares of common stock that each selling security holder owns, the number of shares of common stock owned by each selling security holder that may be offered for sale from time to time by this prospectus, and the percent of our outstanding common stock each selling security holder will continue to hold assuming the sale of all the common stock offered.

Edgar Filing: UCN INC - Form 424B3

Some of the selling security holders may distribute their shares, from time to time, to their limited and/or general partners and members, who may sell shares pursuant to this prospectus. Each selling security holder may also transfer shares owned by him by gift, and upon any such transfer the donee would have the same right of sale as the selling security holder. Except as described in the notes to the table, none of the selling security holders has had a material relationship with us within the past three years other than as a result of the ownership of our common stock. We may amend or supplement this prospectus from time to time to update the disclosure set forth herein.

ComVest Capital, LLC (4)(5)	1,473,565	1,473,565	-0-

- (1) The number and percentage of shares beneficially owned is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under such rule, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which the individual has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares that the individual has the right to acquire within 60 days of the date of this prospectus through the exercise of any stock option or other right. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes, each person has sole voting and investment power (or shares such powers with his or her spouse) with respect to the shares shown as beneficially owned. Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 25,141,984 shares of common stock outstanding as of July 10, 2006.
- (2) Coghill Capital Management, L.C.C., is the investment manager for CCM Master Qualified Fund, Ltd. Clint D. Coghill is the managing member of Coghill Capital Management. As a result of these relationships, CCM Master Qualified Fund, Coghill Capital Management, and Mr. Coghill may be deemed to have a beneficial interest in shares held by CCM Master Qualified Fund.
- (3) Crestview Capital Partners, LLC is the manager of Crestview Capital Master. Robert Hoyt, Stewart R. Fink, and Daniel I. Warsh are the managing members of Crestview Capital Partners. As a result of these relationships, Crestview Capital Master, Crestview Capital Partners, and Messrs. Hoyt, Fink, and Warsh may be deemed to have a beneficial interest in shares held by Crestview Capital Master.
- (4) In May 2006, UCN entered into a revolving credit and term loan agreement with ComVest Capital LLC. Under the terms of the agreement ComVest loaned $4.5 million to UCN under a convertible term note and established a revolving credit line for UCN up to $7.5 million. The initial borrowings under the convertible term note was $4.5 million, which was paid down by UCN to $3.38 million under the terms of the agreement. The initial advance by ComVest Capital to UCN on May 23, 2006, under the revolving credit line was $5.6 million. The debt obligations are secured by substantially all the assets of UCN. In connection with providing the loans, UCN issued to ComVest Capital a warrant to purchase 330,000 shares at an exercise price of $2.75 per share that expires May 23, 2011. The figure for the number of shares offered by ComVest Capital includes up to 1,143,565 shares issuable on conversion of principal and interest of the convertible term note, and 330,000 shares issuable under the warrant.
- (5) The managing member of ComVest Capital, LLC is ComVest Capital Management LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. The managing member of ComVest Capital Management is ComVest Group Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Michael S. Falk is the Chairman and principal member of ComVest Group Holdings. As a result of these relationships, ComVest Capital, ComVest Capital Management, ComVest Group Holdings, and Mr. Falk may be deemed to have a beneficial interest in shares acquired by ComVest Capital under the convertible term note and the warrant. Commonwealth Associates, a member firm of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., holds approximately 6.8% of the member equity in ComVest Capital and, therefore, is for purposes of filing with the National Association of Securities Dealers and compliance with its corporate financing rule is deemed an affiliate of ComVest Capital. ComVest Capital originally acquired the securities of UCN in the ordinary course of business for investment purposes and not with a view to distribution, and Commonwealth Associates is not participating, directly or indirectly, as an underwriter or otherwise in the sale or placement of any of the securities covered by this prospectus.

The registration agreement we made with CCM Master Qualified Fund and Crestview Capital Master at the time of their investment provides that no later than 45 days following the closing we will file a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 to enable the resale of the shares purchased by them, and that we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing. In the event the registration statement is not declared effective within 90 days following the closing of the private placement, then we may be required to pay a fee to CCM Master Qualified Fund and Crestview Capital Master equal to one percent of the total purchase price of the shares purchased in the private placement on the expiration of the 90-day period plus two percent of that amount per month for each subsequent 30 day period that the registration statement has not been declared effective.

Table of Contents

The registration agreement we made with ComVest Capital at the time of closing the revolving credit and term loan agreement provides that no later than 45 days following the closing we will file a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 to enable the resale of the shares underlying the convertible term note and warrant issued to ComVest Capital, and that we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing. In the event the registration statement is not declared effective within 120 days following the closing, then we may be required to pay a fee to ComVest Capital equal to $1,000 for each day after the expiration of the 120-day period that the registration statement is not effective.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling security holders and any of their pledgees, donees, transferees, assignees and successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The selling security holders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits Investors; block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

to cover short sales made after the date that the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is declared effective by the Commission;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling security holders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling security holders may also sell shares under Rule 144 adopted under the Securities Act of 1933, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling security holders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling security holders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling security holders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved, but in any event the maximum commission or discount that may be paid or received by any broker-dealer for sale or placement of the common stock for the selling security holders cannot exceed eight percent.

Edgar Filing: UCN INC - Form 424B3

The selling security holders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933 amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling security holders under this prospectus.

Upon UCN being notified in writing by a selling security holder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of common stock through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, disclosing (i) the name of each such selling security holder and of the participating broker-dealer(s), (ii) the number of shares involved, (iii) the price at which such the shares of common stock were sold, (iv) the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable, (v) that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and (vi) other facts material to the transaction. In addition, upon UCN being notified in writing by a selling security holder that a donee or pledgee intends to sell more than 500 shares of common stock, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed if then required in accordance with applicable securities law.

The selling security holders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling security holders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act of 1933. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, that can be attributed to the sale of securities will be paid by the selling security holder and/or the purchasers. Each selling security holder has represented and warranted to UCN that it acquired the securities subject to this registration statement in the ordinary course of such selling security holder's business and, at the time of its purchase of such securities such selling security holder had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute any such securities.

UCN has advised each selling security holder that it may not use shares registered on the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part to cover short sales of common stock made prior to the date on which the registration statement shall have been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If a selling security holder uses this prospectus for any sale of the common stock, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. The selling security holders will be responsible to comply with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M, as applicable to such selling security holders in connection with resales of their respective shares under this prospectus.

UCN is required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares, but it will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock. UCN has agreed to indemnify the selling security holders against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

UCN's charter authorizes it to issue up to: (i) 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share; and (ii) 15,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value per share. As of the date of this prospectus, there are 25,141,984 shares of common stock outstanding, and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. In addition, there are outstanding options and warrants to acquire up to an additional 4,577,381 shares of common stock.

Common stock

Holders of the common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to the stockholders for a vote. There are no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The shares of common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared and paid by the board of directors out of funds legally available therefor and to share, ratably, in the net assets, if any, of UCN upon liquidation. The stockholders have no preemptive rights to purchase any shares of our capital stock.

Preferred stock

The board of directors, without further action by the holders of the common stock, is authorized to classify any shares of our authorized but unissued preferred stock as preferred stock in one or more series. With respect to each series, the board of directors may determine:

The number of shares which shall constitute such series;

Table of Contents

The rate of dividend, if any, payable on shares of such series;

Whether the shares of such series shall be cumulative, non-cumulative or partially cumulative as to dividends, and the dates from which any cumulative dividends are to accumulate;

Whether the shares of such series may be redeemed, and, if so, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions on which shares of such series may be redeemed;

The amount payable upon shares of such series in the event of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of UCN;

The sinking fund provisions, if any, for the redemption of shares of such series;

The voting rights, if any, of the shares of such series;

The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of such series may be converted into shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series;

Whether the shares of such series are to be preferred over shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series as to dividends, or upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the affairs of UCN, or otherwise; and

Any other characteristics, preferences, limitations, rights, privileges, immunities or terms not inconsistent with the provisions of the Charter.

The availability of preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could have the effect of discouraging takeover proposals, and the issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of UCN not approved by the board of directors.

Statutory business combinations provision

UCN is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Section 203 provides, with certain exceptions, that a Delaware corporation may not engage in any of a broad range of business combinations with a person or an affiliate, or associate of such person, who is an interested stockholder for a period of three years from the date that such person becomes an interested stockholder unless: (i) the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested stockholder, or the business combination, is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the person becomes an interested stockholder; (ii) the interested stockholder acquired 85 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation in the same transaction that makes such person an interested stockholder (excluding shares owned by persons who are both officers and directors of the corporation, and shares held by certain employee stock ownership plans); or (iii) on or after the date the person becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved at an annual or special meeting by the corporation's board of directors and by the holders of at least 66 2/3 percent of the corporation's outstanding voting stock, excluding shares owned by the interested stockholder. Under Section 203, an interested stockholder is defined as any person who is: (i) the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation; or (ii) an affiliate or associate of the corporation and who was the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether such person is an interested stockholder.

A corporation may, at its option, exclude itself from the coverage of Section 203 by amending its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, through action of its stockholders, to exempt itself from coverage, provided that such bylaw or certificate of incorporation amendment shall not become effective until 12 months after the date it is adopted. UCN has not adopted such an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Limitation on directors' liabilities

Pursuant to the certificate of incorporation and under Delaware law, directors and executive officers are not liable to UCN or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, except liability in connection with a breach of duty of loyalty, acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, dividend payments or stock repurchases illegal under Delaware law, or any transaction in which a director has derived an improper personal benefit.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which these persons may be involved because of their offices with us if they acted in good faith or in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. However, nothing in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee, or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director or officer has been successful in defense of any proceeding, our bylaws provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Transfer agent

The transfer agent for the common stock is Atlas Stock Transfer Company, Salt Lake City, Utah.

INDEMNIFICATION

Under the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of UCN the board of directors has the authority to indemnify officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Further, UCN has separate indemnification agreements with certain of its officers and directors. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers, and controlling persons, or to the extent any of the selling security holders are entitled to indemnification under their agreements with us, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters relating to the validity of the securities offered by this prospectus will be passed upon for UCN by Parsons Behle & Latimer, Salt Lake City, Utah.

EXPERTS

The consolidated financial statements and related financial statement schedule for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, incorporated in this registration statement by reference from UCN's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, have been audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report, which is incorporated herein by reference, and have been so incorporated in reliance upon the report of such firm given upon their authority as experts in accounting and auditing.
