Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 13, 2007, New York Community Bancorp, Inc. (NYCB) and Synergy Financial Group, Inc. (Synergy) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (Merger Agreement) under which Synergy will be merged with and into NYCB. Synergy is the parent company of Synergy Bank. Concurrent with or immediately following the merger, Synergy Bank will be merged with and into New York Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of NYCB.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Synergy common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.80 shares of NYCB s common stock, with cash paid in lieu of fractional NYCB shares. Based on the closing price of NYCB s common stock on May 11, 2007 of $17.73 per share, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $168.4 million. Synergy has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if (1) the average closing price of NYCB s common stock for the ten consecutive trading days ending the day before the date on which the last regulatory approval is received is less than $14.63 and (2) from May 13, 2007 through such date, NYCB s common stock has underperformed the Index Group, as defined in the Merger Agreement, by more than 17.5%, unless NYCB elects to increase the merger consideration per share pursuant to a formula specified in the Merger Agreement.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals and approval by the stockholders of Synergy. The Merger is currently expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2007.

All of the directors and certain executive officers of Synergy have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement at the Synergy stockholders meeting to be held for the purpose of voting on the proposed transaction. Synergy s president and chief executive officer has also entered into agreements with Synergy and NYCB relating to the termination of his existing employment agreements and his transitional role with NYCB following the Merger. In the event the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Synergy has agreed to pay NYCB a termination fee of $6,000,000.

The Merger Agreement also contains customary representations and warranties that NYCB and Synergy made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the Merger Agreement, and are subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to stockholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between NYCB and Synergy rather than establishing matters as facts.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.
