FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Glass Lewis and Proxy Governance Recommend CME Group Shareholders Vote FOR the Acquisition of NYMEX Holdings Inc.

CHICAGO, July 31, 2008 CME Group, the world's largest and most diverse derivatives exchange, announced that Glass Lewis & Co. and Proxy Governance, two leading proxy advisory firms, have recommended that CME Group shareholders vote FOR the acquisition of NYMEX Holdings at the Special Shareholders Meeting scheduled for August 18, 2008.

In making its recommendation, Glass Lewis stated the following:

Consolidation among exchange operators continues to be a viable growth strategy. The transaction will result in a more competitive exchange, offers NYMEX Holdings shareholders a financially fair consideration and is expected to be accretive to earnings for the surviving shareholders of CME Group.

The Glass Lewis report concluded: we recommend that shareholders of each company vote FOR this proposal.

The Board of Directors of CME Group recommends that shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the agreement and plan of merger.

CME Group (www.cmegroup.com) is the world's largest and most diverse derivatives exchange. Formed by the 2007 merger of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME) and the Chicago Board of Trade (CBOT), CME Group serves the risk management needs of customers around the globe. As an international marketplace, CME Group brings buyers and sellers together on the CME Globex electronic trading platform and on its trading floors. CME Group offers the widest range of benchmark products available across all major asset classes, including futures and options based on interest rates, equity indexes, foreign exchange, agricultural commodities, and alternative investment products such as weather and real estate. CME Group is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol CME.
