Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 29, 2008, Consumers National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Consumers Bancorp, Inc. (the Company), and Ralph J. Lober, II, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, entered into a salary continuation agreement effective August 29, 2008 (the Agreement).

The Agreement was made under the Company's salary continuation program; a plan that exists to encourage the long-term retention of executives and avoid the cost of executive turnover. Under the Agreement, upon a retirement from the Company at the age of 65, Mr. Lober will receive 180 months of salary continuation payments in an amount equal to 53% of his average compensation during the three years preceding his retirement. Vesting under the Agreement commences at age 50 allowing Mr. Lober to be eligible to receive a reduced benefit if he retires between the age of 50 and 65. If Mr. Lober dies during active service, his beneficiary is entitled to receive the retirement benefit. Upon termination of employment following a disability or a change in control of the Bank, Mr. Lober will be fully vested under the plan and eligible to receive a payment equal to the greater of (1) amount accrued by the Company at the time of that termination or disability or (2) the amount specified in the separate Change of Control agreement dated May 7, 2007.
