Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 11, 2008, Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (the Company) and RBC Bank (USA) (the Bank) entered into a modification (the Modification) of the Company's revolving credit facility (the Credit Facility). The Modification temporarily increases the Credit Facility from $7.0 million to $8.0 million, and increases availability by increasing the amount of inventory includable in the Credit Facility's borrowing base from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. These changes are effective for the period beginning September 11, 2008 through November 15, 2008. The Modification is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The most significant portion of the Company's revenues are generated from the kindergarten through 1st grade market (K-12). School activities are reduced during summer months and many of these K-12 customers' budgets run from July to June. Traditionally, these customers have increased technology implementations in the summer months, and as the regular school season commences. The Credit Facility was temporarily increased to support the seasonal peak and working capital needs of the Company related to the schools' technology buying and implementation patterns.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The disclosure contained in Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference. The Modification has the effect of increasing the Company's potential direct financial obligations under the Credit Facility from $7.0 million to $8.0 million.

The Credit Facility is a facility under which we may borrow, repay and then re-borrow. Advances and repayments occur daily under the Credit Facility, reflecting cash receipts and the Company's working capital needs. Set forth below is the outstanding balance as of specific dates through September 11, 2008. The balances presented reflect aggregate advances and pay downs which the Company deems material, or significant. Such information through August 11, 2008 was previously disclosed in our Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on August 14, 2008.
