Visa Inc. affirms its financial outlook for the following metrics through fiscal 2011:

Annual net revenue growth in the range of 11% to 15%; and Annual diluted class A common stock earnings per share growth of greater than 20%.

Visa Inc. provides its financial outlook for the following metrics for fiscal 2012:

Annual net revenue growth in the high single-digit to low double-digits range; and Annual diluted class A common stock earnings per share growth in the middle-to-high teens.

Additionally, the Company reported that it had completed its $1 billion share repurchase program authorized in April 2011. This resulted in the repurchase of approximately 13 million shares at an average price of approximately $77 per share.

Today at 4:30 p.m. Eastern Time (1:30 p.m. Pacific Time) the Company will host a brief conference call to discuss its financial outlook. All interested parties are invited to listen to the live webcast at <http://investor.visa.com>.

The information in this Form 8-K shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Forward-Looking Statements

This submission contains forward looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements can be identified by the terms affirm, outlook and similar references to the future. Examples of such forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements we make about net revenue, earnings per share and the growth of those items.

By their nature, forward-looking statements: (i) speak only as of the date they are made, (ii) are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees of future performance and (iii) are subject to risks, uncertainties, assumptions and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict or quantify. Therefore, actual results could differ materially and adversely from those forward-looking statements because of a variety of factors, including the following:

the impact and timing of new laws, regulations and marketplace barriers, particularly the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, including those affecting:

issuers and retailers choice among debit payment networks;

debit interchange rates;

Edgar Filing: VISA INC. - Form 8-K

the spread of regulation of debit payments to credit and other product categories;

the spread of U.S. regulations to other countries; consumer privacy and data use and security; and designation as a systemically important payment system;

developments in current or future disputes and our ability to absorb their impact, including interchange, currency conversion and tax;

macroeconomic factors, such as:

global economic, political, health, environmental and other conditions;

cross-border activity and currency exchange rates; and changes in our clients' performance compared to our estimates; industry and systemic developments, such as:

competitive pressure on client pricing and in the payments industry generally;

bank and merchant consolidation and their increased focus on payment card costs; disintermediation from the payments value stream through government actions or bilateral agreements; adverse changes in our relationships or reputation;

our clients' failure to fund settlement obligations we have guaranteed; disruption of our transaction processing systems or the inability to process transactions efficiently;

rapid technological developments; account data breaches and increased fraudulent and other illegal activity involving our cards; and

Edgar Filing: VISA INC. - Form 8-K

issues arising at Visa Europe, including failure to maintain interoperability between our systems;

costs arising if Visa Europe were to exercise its right to require us to acquire all of its outstanding stock;

loss of organizational effectiveness or key employees;

failure to integrate successfully CyberSource, PlaySpan, Fundamo or other acquisitions; changes in accounting principles or treatment; and the other factors discussed in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. You should not place undue reliance on such statements. Unless required to do so by law, we do not intend to update or revise any forward looking statement, because of new information or future developments or otherwise.
