Amendments to Employment Arrangements with Executive Chairman of the Board

On December 13, 2011, FTI Consulting, Inc. ("FTI Consulting") entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to its employment agreement dated September 20, 2004, as previously amended from time to time (the "Employment Agreement"), with Dennis J. Shaughnessy, the Company's Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Amendment generally implements the following modifications to the Employment Agreement:

Extension of Mr. Shaughnessy's full-time employment with FTI Consulting to and including December 31, 2013;

Elimination of the tax gross-up obligation requiring FTI Consulting to indemnify Mr. Shaughnessy for any excise taxes that may be imposed on Mr. Shaughnessy by reason of the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code for payments and benefits that he may receive in connection with a change of control of FTI Consulting;

Elimination of Mr. Shaughnessy's voluntary walk-away right during the 12-month period following a change of control of FTI Consulting, which would have allowed Mr. Shaughnessy to voluntarily resign his employment during the foregoing protection period and collect the enhanced change of control severance benefits under the Employment Agreement; and Enhancement of the definition of "good reason" under the Employment Agreement generally to include (i) the assignment of duties materially and adversely inconsistent with Mr. Shaughnessy's position as Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors and (ii) the material diminution in Mr. Shaughnessy's titles, duties, responsibilities or status, in each case, which will expressly include diminutions resulting from FTI Consulting ceasing to be a publicly traded company.

The Amendment also provides for the payment of a lump-sum cash payment of $1.5 million to Mr. Shaughnessy, payable within ten (10) business days following the date of the Amendment (the "Retention Award"). The Retention Award is subject to Mr. Shaughnessy's obligation to repay a pro rata portion of the Retention Award upon termination of Mr. Shaughnessy's employment (i) by the Company for "cause" or (ii) by Mr. Shaughnessy without "good reason" (each, as defined in the Employment Agreement), in each case prior to December 31, 2013.

Finally, the Amendment provides for the grant of a restricted stock award to Mr. Shaughnessy with a grant date value equal to $2.0 million. Such award will vest in equal annual installments over seven (7) years beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date, subject to Mr. Shaughnessy's continued service with FTI Consulting on each applicable vesting date, and will continue to vest in accordance with such vesting schedule during the transition period (as defined in the Employment Agreement) and through any period during which Mr. Shaughnessy is serving as a member of the Board of Directors of FTI Consulting. The award is subject to full accelerated vesting upon the termination of Mr. Shaughnessy's employment (i) by FTI Consulting without "cause," (ii) by Mr. Shaughnessy with "good reason," or (iii) due to Mr. Shaughnessy's death or disability (each, as defined in the Employment Agreement).

Following the expiration of the extended term, Mr. Shaughnessy intends to serve out his term as a director of FTI Consulting and has informed the Board of Directors that he is currently willing to stand for reelection as a director of FTI Consulting, if nominated by the Board of Directors, at the 2014 annual meeting and future annual meetings of stockholders of FTI Consulting.

The foregoing description contained herein is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Amendment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
