On May 2, 2012, News America Incorporated ( News America ), a subsidiary of News Corporation (the Company and together with News America, the Loan Party ), terminated its existing $2.25 billion revolving credit agreement (the Prior Credit Agreement ) and entered into a new credit agreement (the New Credit Agreement ), among News America as Borrower, the Company as Parent Guarantor, the initial lenders named therein (the Lenders ), the initial issuing banks named therein, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ( JPMorgan Chase ) and Citibank, N.A. ( Citibank ) as Co-Administrative Agents, JPMorgan Chase as Designated Agent and Bank of America, N.A. ( Bank of America ) as Syndication Agent. The New Credit Agreement consists of a $2.0 billion five-year unsecured revolving credit facility with a sublimit of $400,000,000 (or its equivalent in Euros) available for the issuance of letters of credit. Under the New Credit Agreement, News America may request an increase in the amount of the credit facility up to a maximum amount of $2.5 billion. The New Credit Agreement is available for the general corporate purposes of News America, the Company and the Company s subsidiaries. The maturity date is May 2, 2017, however, News America may request that the commitments be renewed, under certain circumstances as set forth in the New Credit Agreement for up to two additional one-year periods.

Any advance by the Lenders to News America as part of a borrowing may be available, at News America s option, at either (1) the Base Rate (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) which is a fluctuating rate equal to the sum of (a) the highest of (i) JPMorgan Chase s prime rate, (ii) the Federal Funds Rate (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) plus 0.50% or (iii) one month LIBOR plus 1.00% plus (b) the applicable margin, or (2) at the Eurodollar Rate (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) which is a periodic fixed rate equal to LIBOR plus the applicable margin.

News America may terminate, in whole or in part, the unused portion of the credit facility amount under the New Credit Agreement at any time during the term of the New Credit Agreement. Once terminated, a commitment may not be reinstated.

The New Credit Agreement contains certain customary affirmative and negative covenants each with customary exceptions, including limitations to the Loan Party s ability to engage in transactions with affiliates, incur liens, merge into or consolidate with any other entity or incur subsidiary debt. In addition, the New Credit Agreement requires the Company to maintain a leverage ratio of 4.5.

In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, one or more of the Lenders, or their affiliates, have or may have various relationships with News America, the Company and the Company s subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including cash management, commercial banking, investment banking, advisory or other financial services, for which they received, or will receive, customary fees and expenses. In addition, News America, the Company and the Company s subsidiaries may have entered into or may enter into in the future certain engagements with one or more Lenders or their affiliates relating to specific endeavors.
