ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers

On June 29, 2012, First Financial Bankshares, Inc. (the Company) renewed, effective July 1, 2012, its Executive Recognition Agreement (each, an Agreement) with each of the named executive officers of the Company (each, an Employee):

| Name                | Title                                |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------|
| F. Scott Dueser     | President & CEO                      |
| J. Bruce Hildebrand | Executive Vice President & CFO       |
| Gary L. Webb        | Executive Vice President, Operations |
| Gary S. Gragg       | Executive Vice President, Lending    |
| Marna Yerigan       | Executive Vice President, Lending    |

A copy of the form of Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference, and the following summary of the Agreement is qualified entirely by reference to the text of the Agreement.

Each Employee's prior Executive Recognition Agreement were set to expire on July 1, 2012, and were renewed and replaced by the Agreement. There were no substantive changes between the Executive's prior Executive Recognition Agreement and the Agreement.

The term of the Agreement commences on July 1, 2012, and continues until the earliest to occur of (a) the Employee's death, disability or retirement, (b) the termination of the Employee's employment with the Company prior to a change in control (as defined in the Agreement) of the Company, or (c) July 1, 2014. The foregoing notwithstanding, if a change in control of the Company occurs during the term of the Agreement, the Agreement shall continue in effect for a period of two years from the date of any such change in control of the Company; and further, if a second change in control occurs within a period of two years from the date of the first change in control, the Agreement shall continue in effect for a period of two years from the date of the second change in control of the Company. If any benefit accrues and remains unpaid at the time the Agreement would otherwise have terminated, the Agreement will remain in effect until such benefit is paid in full solely for the purpose of permitting the Employee to enforce the full payment of such benefit.

The Agreement provides that if a change in control of the Company occurs, the Employee shall be entitled to benefits (described below) upon the subsequent termination of the Employee's employment during the term of the Agreement, unless such termination is (a) because of the Employee's death, disability or retirement, (b) by the Company for cause (as defined in the Agreement), or (c) by the Employee other than for good reason (as defined in the Agreement).

The Agreement also provides that if, within twenty-four months following a change in control of the Company, the Company terminates the Employee for any reason other than for cause, death, disability or retirement, or the Employee terminates his employment for good reason, then the Company shall pay or provide to the Employee, no later than the 15th day of the third month following the Employee's date of termination, without regard to any contrary provisions of any applicable employee benefit plan, the following: (a) two-hundred-eight percent (208%) of the Employee's annual base salary payable by the Company immediately preceding the Date of Termination; and (b) a lump sum payment of Employee's accrued vacation pay.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an employee is a key employee within the meaning of Section 416(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and he terminates employment with the Company for good reason, then the distribution to such key employee upon termination of employment shall not commence earlier than six months following the date of termination.
