The Third Amendment also contains revised covenants with which the Company must comply, including its consolidated leverage ratio, the consolidated fixed charge coverage ratio, and the senior leverage ratio, as well as other covenants and certain restrictions relating to limitations on the ability of the Company or its subsidiaries to incur additional indebtedness, on the ability of the Company or its subsidiaries to make investments (including restrictions on the ability of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries to make loans to or investments in the Company's foreign subsidiaries) and acquisitions, on the ability of the Company to accumulate cash, declare or pay cash dividends to its stockholders, and on the ability of the Company's subsidiaries to declare or pay certain cash dividends.

The Third Amendment is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein in response to this Item. The description of the Third Amendment in response to this Item is qualified by reference to Exhibit 10.1 to this report.

In connection with the Third Amendment, the Company agreed to pay: (i) an amendment fee of 1.00% of the Lenders' aggregate commitments as of October 18, 2012, payable in two parts: 0.5%, or $325,000, on October 18, 2012 and 0.5%, or $325,000, on March 31, 2014, however the March 31, 2014 payment will be waived in the event that prior to March 31, 2014 the Company has paid in full all Obligations (as defined in the Credit Agreement) under the Credit Agreement (other than certain contingent obligations) and all commitments have been terminated under the Credit Agreement; (ii) deferred fees of $1,215,000; (iii) an arrangement fee of $100,000; and (iv) accrued default interest of $1,059,000. The Company also paid approximately $1,150,000 to the Agent as reimbursement for its out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with the Third Amendment.

Simultaneously with its entry into the Third Amendment, the Company entered into a Credit Agreement (the "Term Loan Agreement") dated as of October 18, 2012 among the Company, Special Value Opportunities Fund, LLC, Special Value Expansion Fund, LLC, Tennenbaum Opportunities Partners V, LP, Tennenbaum Opportunities Fund VI, LLC (the "Term Loan Lenders"), and Obsidian Agency Services, Inc. (the "Term Loan Agent"). The Term Loan Lenders made term loans (collectively, the "Term Loan") to the Company in the aggregate amount of $100,000,000 from which the Company received net proceeds of approximately $71,500,000 on October 18, 2012 (the "Closing Date"). The proceeds of the Term Loan were used for the partial prepayment of Working Capital Obligations (as defined in Term Loan Agreement) under the Credit Agreement (together with a concurrent permanent reduction to the commitment to make Working Capital Loans (as defined in the Term Loan Agreement) under the Credit Agreement from $100,000,000 to $65,000,000, as referenced above), and the payment of fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Term Loan Agreement and the Third Amendment. Obligations (as defined in the Term Loan Agreement) under the Term Loan Agreement are collateralized by a second lien (subject to the first/prior lien of the Agent (for the ratable benefit of the Lenders) under the Credit Agreement and to other Permitted Liens (as defined in the Term Loan Agreement)) on substantially all of our assets, including, without limitation, accounts receivable, equipment, securities, financial assets and the proceeds of the foregoing, as well as by a pledge (subject to the first/prior lien of the Agent (for the ratable benefit of the Lenders) under the Credit Agreement and to other Permitted Liens) of 65% of the outstanding capital stock of our wholly-owned subsidiary, Hill International N.V. and of certain of our other foreign subsidiaries. The maturity date of the Term Loan is October 18, 2016.

Among other things, the Term Loan Agreement:

Limits the indebtedness which the Company and its subsidiaries may incur (including certain intercompany indebtedness, such as indebtedness from foreign subsidiaries to the Company);

Limits the investments, acquisitions and dividends which the Company and its subsidiaries may make (including investments by the Company in its foreign subsidiaries);

Limits the amount of cash the Company and its subsidiaries may accumulate;

Requires the Company to take certain actions, including providing monthly reporting to the Term Loan Lenders; and Contains representations, warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default which are substantially similar to those contained in the Credit Agreement (except in respect of financial covenants) and the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Credit Agreement).

In connection with the Term Loan Agreement, the Company agreed to, in certain situations, allow certain Term Loan Lenders to appoint two non-voting board observers to the Company's board of directors.

The amounts outstanding from time to time under the Term Loan will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to 7.50%; provided, however, such rate may be increased to 9.50% per annum if the Fixed Price Contracts (as defined under the Term Loan Agreement) or certain accounts receivable of the Company and its subsidiaries exceed a percentage specified in the Term Loan Agreement.

The Term Loan Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this report and is incorporated herein in response to this Item. The description of the Term Loan Agreement in response to this Item is qualified by reference to Exhibit 10.3 to this report.

Also, contemporaneous with its entry into the Term Loan Agreement, the Company entered into a Fee Letter. The Fee Letter requires the Company to pay to the Lenders an exit fee (the Exit Fee) in an amount equal to the Exit Fee Amount (as hereinafter defined), which fee shall be earned in full on the Closing Date and due and payable on the date the Term Loan is paid in full (the Exit Date). Exit Fee Amount means the amount, if any, when paid to the Term Loan Lenders on the Exit Date, that will result in the internal annual rate of return to the Term Loan Lenders with respect to the Term Loan (the IRR) on the Exit Date, as reasonably determined by the Term Loan Agent pursuant to the IRR Calculation (as hereinafter defined), being equal to, but no greater than 20% (the Target IRR); provided, that in no event shall the Exit Fee Amount be less than zero or greater than $11,790,000. IRR Calculation means that the IRR is to be calculated as the rate of return earned by the Term Loan Lenders on their initial investment in the Term Loan (to be calculated as the principal amount of the Term Loan less the Closing Fee (as defined in the Fee Letter)) through the Exit Date taking into account the payment by the Company to the Term Loan Lenders of all principal, interest and other payments to the Term Loan Lenders pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement.

The Fee Letter is filed as Exhibit 10.11 to this report and is incorporated herein in response to this Item. The description of the Fee Letter in response to this Item is qualified by reference to Exhibits 10.11 to this report.

Additionally, under the Third Amendment and the Term Loan Agreement, the Company is required to make the following mandatory prepayments/payments and/or commitment reductions in respect of the Company's Indebtedness (as defined in the Credit Agreement and in the Term Loan Agreement) under the Credit Agreement and under the Term Loan Agreement:

100% of the net proceeds received by the Company or any of its subsidiaries from certain sales of assets (subject to certain reinvestment rights), certain condemnation awards (subject to certain reinvestment rights) and insurance payments (subject to certain reinvestment rights) and from the issuance or incurrence of certain indebtedness with respect to borrowed monies of the Company (Specified Proceeds), and 50% of the net proceeds received by the Company or any of its subsidiaries from the issuance or sale of any equity interests in the Company (subject to certain exceptions), will be applied:

- i first, to satisfy the Minimum Liquidity Requirement (as defined in the Third Amendment), and
- i second, up to 50% of the remaining net proceeds to repay the loans under the Credit Agreement and the remaining net proceeds to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan under the Term Loan Agreement; and

100% of the net proceeds received by the Company or any of its subsidiaries from any payment on the Net Libya Receivable (as defined in the Third Amendment) and any payments or distributions from the HillStone International LLC joint venture will be applied:

- i first, to satisfy the Minimum Liquidity Requirement, and

- i second, 50% of the remaining net proceeds to repay the loans under the Credit Agreement and the other 50% to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan under the Term Loan Agreement.

All Excess Cash Flow (as defined in the Third Amendment) will be applied as follows:

- i if the consolidated leverage ratio as of the last day of the relevant fiscal year is 3.25 to 1.00 or greater,
  - j first, to satisfy the Minimum Liquidity Requirement, and
  - j second, 50% of the remaining Excess Cash Flow to repay the loans under the Credit Agreement and the other 50% to prepay the principal amount of the Term Loan under the Term Loan Agreement; and
- i if the consolidated leverage ratio as of the last day of the relevant fiscal year is less than 3.25 to 1.00,
  - j first, 50% of such Excess Cash Flow will be retained by the Company for working capital,
  - j second, the remaining Excess Cash Flow to satisfy the Minimum Liquidity Requirement, and
  - j third, 50% of the remaining Excess Cash Flow to repay the loans under the Credit Agreement and the other 50% to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan under the Term Loan Agreement.

If an Event of Default (as defined in the Credit Agreement) exists, each prepayment pursuant to the forgoing will not be applied to satisfy the Minimum Liquidity Requirement and will be applied as follows:

- i up to 50% of the remaining net proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, as applicable, first, to repay the loans under the Credit Agreement, and second, to cash collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit (and in the case of Specified Proceeds, but without regard to reinvestment rights otherwise available to the Company and/or its subsidiaries pursuant thereto, together with a concurrent permanent reduction to the commitment under the Credit Agreement equal to the sum of such repayment and cash collateral); and
- i (b) the remaining net proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, as applicable, to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan under the Term Loan Agreement.
