Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 6, 2013, the Company received an informal request from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for information related to Easton Hunt Capital Partners, L.P. (Easton), John Friedman, a director of the Company and a principal of Easton, and the Company's Rule 10b5-1 trading plans and policies. The request follows the Company's receipt on April 25, 2013 of two Grand Jury subpoenas from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York seeking the same information. The Company has already responded to the subpoenas from the U.S. Attorney and will promptly comply with the request from the SEC. The U.S. Attorney's office has confirmed that the Company is not a target of its investigation and the Company does not believe that it is a target of the investigation by the SEC. The Company does not believe that these investigations will have any material adverse effect on the Company's operations or financial condition.

The government investigations appear to be related to sales of Company common stock in early 2012 by Easton pursuant to a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan that were described in an April 25, 2013 article in the Wall Street Journal. The Company has corporate governance procedures in place regarding Rule 10b5-1 trading plans and the Company believes Easton was in compliance with those procedures. The Company is not aware of any facts constituting a violation of law or corporate policy.
