Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Merger Agreement

On July 21, 2013, Spartan Stores, Inc., a Michigan corporation (Spartan Stores or the Company), SS Delaware, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Spartan Stores (Merger Sub), and Nash-Finch Company, a Delaware corporation (Nash-Finch), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), providing for a business combination of Spartan Stores and Nash-Finch. The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Nash-Finch (the Merger), with Nash-Finch as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Spartan Stores. The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of Spartan Stores and Nash-Finch.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of Nash-Finch common stock (other than shares held by Nash-Finch, Spartan Stores, Merger Sub or any other Spartan Stores subsidiary) will be automatically canceled and converted into the right to receive 1.20 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of Spartan Stores common stock (the Common Stock). Nash-Finch's stock options and other equity awards will be generally converted into stock options and equity awards with respect to Spartan Stores common stock, after giving effect to the Exchange Ratio. It is expected that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, without limitation, (a) approval by the Company's shareholders and Nash-Finch's stockholders, (b) expiration or termination, as the case may be, of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable competition or similar laws, (c) the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting the Merger, (d) the declaration of the effectiveness by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 to be filed by the Company, and (e) [the lenders providing the Company with financing in connection with the Merger shall not have failed to enter into the credit facility and make the initial loans pursuant to the financing due to the failure of any of the conditions set forth in the Commitment Letter (defined below) relating to (i) the occurrence of a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) with respect to the Company or Nash-Finch, or (ii) minimum excess availability of the credit facility. Moreover, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other customary conditions, including, without limitation, (i) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), (ii) the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers) and (iii) the absence, since the date of the Merger Agreement, of any change, state of facts, event, development or effect that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the other party.

Each of the Company and Nash-Finch has (a) made customary representations and warranties and (b) agreed to customary covenants including, without limitation, (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger, (ii) to use commercially reasonable efforts to file a joint proxy statement and to promptly call a shareholder meeting as soon as practicable after the joint proxy statement is declared effective by the SEC, (iii) to cause its board of directors to recommend the approval of the merger to its shareholders (subject to certain exceptions described below) and (iv) to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals for the Merger.

From the date of the Merger Agreement, the Company and Nash-Finch are subject to customary no-shop restrictions on their ability to solicit alternative takeover proposals from third parties, furnish information to and engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative takeover proposals, recommend an alternative takeover proposal or enter into an agreement with respect to an alternative takeover proposal. Notwithstanding the no shop restrictions, prior to the time the applicable shareholder approval is obtained, each of the Company's and Nash-Finch's board of directors may change its recommendation to the shareholders or enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a takeover proposal, if and only if, prior to taking such action, the applicable board of directors has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that a takeover proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that prior to taking any such action, the party receiving such Superior Proposal is required to provide the other party the opportunity to match such Superior Proposal or to revise its proposal such that it would cause such Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal. A Superior Proposal means any bona fide written takeover proposal that the applicable board of directors has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms and that is reasonably likely to result in the consummation of a transaction more favorable to the stockholders from a financial point of view than the Merger, taking into account (A) all relevant legal, regulatory and financial aspects of the proposal (including availability of financing and certainty of closing) and the third party making the proposal; and (B) any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by the Company or Nash-Finch, as applicable, in response to such proposal or otherwise.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Nash-Finch, including the right of the Company and Nash-Finch under certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including termination of the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal, the Company or Nash-Finch, as applicable, is required to pay the other party a termination fee of $12 million. If the Merger Agreement is terminated under specified circumstances, including certain breaches of the Agreement, the Company or Nash-Finch, as applicable, is required to reimburse the other party for its transaction-related expenses up to $10 million.

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon consummation of the Merger, the board of directors of Spartan Stores will consist of twelve directors, which will include all five of the current Nash-Finch directors who are independent for purposes of the rules of NASDAQ, and seven directors chosen by the current Spartan Stores directors (at least five of whom will be independent for purposes of the rules of NASDAQ). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon consummation of the Merger, Craig C. Sturken, will continue to serve as Chairman of the Board of Spartan Stores, and Dennis Eidson will continue to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Spartan Stores.

The representations, warranties and covenants made in the Merger Agreement (a) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (b) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to Nash-Finch in connection with the Merger Agreement, (c) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement and (e) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or its business. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q, Forms 8-K and other documents that the Company files with the SEC.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is not a complete description of all of the parties' rights and obligations under the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Commitment Letter

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Spartan Stores entered into a commitment letter (the Commitment Letter), dated as of July 21, 2013, with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and Bank of America Merrill Lynch (the Commitment Parties), pursuant to which the Commitment Parties have committed to provide up to $1 billion in loans at the effective time of the Merger for the purposes of (a) payment in full of the outstanding obligations of Spartan Stores and Nash-Finch under their respective existing credit facilities and certain other debt; (b) payment of expenses and fees in connection with the Merger, and (c) working capital of Spartan Stores and its subsidiaries and other general corporate purposes including funding permitted acquisitions.

a senior secured first-in-last-out revolving credit facility of up to $40 million; and a senior secured term loan facility in the amount of $60 million.

Borrowings under the credit facilities are expected to bear interest at a rate per annum equal to an applicable margin, plus, at the Company's option, either (a) a base rate determined by reference to the highest of (1) the prime rate of Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and (2) a LIBOR rate determined by reference to an index page based on the applicable interest period selected by the Company, or (b) a LIBOR rate determined by reference to an index page based on the applicable interest period selected by the Company. The applicable margin for borrowings under the credit facilities is expected to vary for each tranche and is expected to be adjusted based on the Company's monthly average excess availability. The expected interest rates are subject to flex provisions.

The financing commitments of the Commitment Parties are subject to various conditions set forth in the Commitment Letter. A copy of the Commitment Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is here incorporated by reference.
