Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 24, 2013, Life Time Fitness, Inc. (the "Company") agreed to amend and extend effective July 31, 2013 the Company's Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with U.S. Bank National Association, as administrative agent and lender, and other lenders from time to time a party thereto. The material amendments to the Credit Agreement are (i) an increase to the amount of the facility from $660.0 million to $860.0 million, which may be increased by an additional $240.0 million upon the exercise of an accordion feature if one or more lenders commit the additional $240.0 million; and (ii) an extension of the term of the facility to July 31, 2018. Of the increase in the facility, $100.0 million comes in the form of a term loan on July 31, 2013 that amortizes at the rate of 5.0% of the original term loan amount on an annual basis. The Amendment No. 2 to Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, Amendment No. 1 to Guaranty, and Omnibus Amendment to Collateral Documents, dated as of July 24, 2013 is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K.

Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On July 25, 2013, the Company reported its financial results for its fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2013. See the Company's press release dated July 25, 2013, which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The press release furnished as Exhibit 99.1 and certain information the Company intends to disclose on the conference call scheduled for 10:00 a.m. eastern time on July 25, 2013 include certain non-GAAP financial measures. The reconciliations of these measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures are included in the press release. In addition to the information in the press release under the heading "Non-GAAP Financial Measures," the Company provides the following additional information about the Company's use of the non-GAAP financial measures presented in the press release and on the conference call.

EBITDA. The Company believes EBITDA is useful to an investor in evaluating the Company's operating performance and liquidity because:

it is a widely accepted financial indicator of a company's ability to service its debt and the Company is required to comply with certain covenants and borrowing limitations that are based on variations of EBITDA in certain of the Company's financing documents; and it is widely used to measure a company's operating performance without regard to items such as depreciation and amortization, which can vary depending upon accounting methods and the book value of assets, and to present a meaningful measure of corporate performance exclusive of the Company's capital structure and the method by which assets were acquired.

The Company's management uses EBITDA:

as a measurement of operating performance because it assists the Company in comparing its performance on a consistent basis;

in presentations to the members of the Company's board of directors to enable the board to have the same consistent measurement basis of operating performance used by management; and as the basis for incentive bonuses paid to selected members of senior and center-level management.

Free Cash Flow. The Company believes free cash flow is useful to an investor in understanding the Company's cash flow generation because:

free cash flow allows the Company to evaluate the cash generated by operations and the ability of its operations to fund investment items related to purchases of property and equipment, repay indebtedness, add to the Company's cash balance, or to use in other discretionary activities; and if negative, free cash flow reflects the need for incremental financing activities or use of existing cash balances.

The Company's management uses free cash flow:

to monitor cash available for repayment of indebtedness; and in discussion with the investment community.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
