Item 1.01 Entry into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 22, 2014, Motorola Solutions, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Definitive Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) by and among the Company, The Prudential Insurance Company of America (PICA), Prudential Financial, Inc., and State Street Bank and Trust Company, as Independent Fiduciary of the Motorola Solutions Pension Plan (the Plan), pursuant to which the Plan will purchase from PICA a group annuity contract that requires PICA to pay and administer certain future annuity payments to certain of the Company s retirees. Upon issuance of the group annuity contract by PICA, PICA will irrevocably assume the obligation to make future annuity payments to approximately 30,000 Company retirees who have been receiving pension payments from the Plan. In connection with the proposed transaction, the Company has established a new pension plan with substantially the same terms as the Plan (the New Plan and together with the Plan, the Pension Plans), and it is expected that the Plan will ultimately be terminated.

The Agreement contains a closing condition and termination right in favor of the Company regarding the funded status of the Pension Plans, along with other customary conditions to closing the transaction. In addition, certain aspects of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement regarding the Plan are subject to review by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, and closing will not occur until that review is complete. Assuming all of the closing conditions are satisfied, the Company expects the purchase of the group annuity contract to occur in December 2014.

In addition, the Company intends to contribute $1.1 billion to improve the funded status of the Pension Plans. Upon completion of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and the payment of lump-sum distributions referenced below in Item 8.01, the Company expects to account for the transactions as a settlement of approximately $4.2 billion of obligations under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Agreement, which will be filed with the Company s quarterly report for the quarter ended September 27, 2014.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 25, 2014, the Company announced that the New Plan is offering lump-sum distributions to New Plan participants who have accrued a pension benefit, have left the Company prior to June 30, 2014, and have not yet started receiving pension benefit payments. The maximum dollar amount of all lump-sum distributions to be paid under the offer is $1.0 billion, and lump-sum payments will be made to those who accept the lump-sum offer starting with the smallest amount of lump sums first and continuing in ascending order until the $1.0 billion threshold is met.
