Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Agreement and Plan of Merger

On December 10, 2014, Renasant Corporation, a Mississippi corporation (Renasant), Renasant Bank, a Mississippi banking association (Renasant Bank), Heritage Financial Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Heritage), and HeritageBank of the South, a Georgia savings bank (HeritageBank), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Heritage will merge with and into Renasant (the Merger), with Renasant continuing as the surviving corporation. Immediately following the Merger, HeritageBank will merge with and into Renasant Bank, with Renasant Bank continuing as the surviving banking association. The Merger Agreement has been approved by the Boards of Directors of each of Renasant and Heritage.

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of Heritage s common stock, par value $0.01 per share (other than any shares of Heritage common stock owned by Heritage, Renasant, or any of their respective subsidiaries, except for shares held in trust accounts, managed accounts, mutual funds and the like or otherwise in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted), will be converted into the right to receive 0.9266 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Renasant common stock, par value $5.00 per share. Each in-the-money stock option granted under Heritage s equity incentive plans will vest in full and be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to (a) the total number of shares subject to such stock option multiplied by (ii) the difference between $27.00 and the exercise price of the option, less applicable tax withholdings. Out-of-the-money Heritage stock options and stock appreciation rights granted under Heritage s equity incentive plans outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled for no consideration. Shares of Heritage common stock with respect to restricted stock awards made under Heritage s equity incentive plans outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will fully vest and be converted into shares of Renasant common stock, adjusted to reflect the Exchange Ratio. The Merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Renasant and Renasant Bank will take all appropriate actions to (a) increase the number of directors constituting Renasant s and Renasant Bank s respective board of directors by one and (b) appoint a current director of Heritage and HeritageBank, respectively, mutually agreed upon by Renasant and Heritage, to Renasant s and Renasant Bank s respective board of directors.

Renasant and Heritage each have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement including, among others, representations regarding organization, power and authority, capitalization, financial statements, employee benefit matters and tax matters. Heritage and Heritage Bank have agreed to customary covenants, including, among other things, to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice and prudent banking practice or as required under the Merger Agreement and to comply with certain other operating covenants through the consummation of the Merger. The parties have agreed to prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), as promptly as reasonably practicable, the registration statement on Form S-4, which will include a joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The Merger Agreement restricts the ability of Heritage and Heritage Bank to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, and, subject to certain exceptions, to enter into discussions or negotiations or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. However, if Heritage receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal, Heritage may participate in discussions regarding an acquisition proposal solely to clarify the terms of such acquisition proposal. Additionally, Heritage may provide information to (after it receives a confidentiality agreement from such person) and may engage in negotiations or discussions with the party who made the unsolicited acquisition proposal, if Heritage s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that (a) failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors fiduciary duties under applicable law and (b) based on the information then available, such acquisition proposal is more favorable to the Seller s stockholders from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and is reasonably likely to be consummated.

Prior to obtaining the approval of the stockholders of Heritage regarding the Merger and the Merger Agreement, Heritage's board of directors may make a change of recommendation or terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its legal counsel and financial advisors, that (a) failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law and (b) if such action relates to any acquisition proposal, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal. Prior to taking such actions, Heritage must give Renasant an opportunity to match such offer.

Subject to applicable fiduciary duties, each of Renasant and Heritage has agreed to convene a special meeting of its stockholders to consider the approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and their respective board of directors have agreed to recommend that Renasant or Heritage stockholders, as applicable, approve the Merger and adopt the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to the approval of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of each of Renasant and Heritage, as well as other customary conditions, such as (a) receipt of all regulatory approvals from, among others, various banking regulators, (b) effectiveness of the registration statement for the shares of Renasant common stock to be issued to holders of Heritage common stock in the Merger, and (c) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including (a) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, except (subject to limited exceptions) where the inaccuracy would not have a material adverse effect, (b) compliance by the other party with its covenants in all material respects, (c) the delivery of opinions from counsel to each of Renasant and Heritage relating to the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Merger, and (d) the approval for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to notice of issuance, of the shares of Renasant common stock to be issued to holders of Heritage common stock in the Merger. Subject to the receipt of all required approvals and the satisfaction of all other conditions, the Merger is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2015.

The Merger Agreement also provides for termination rights of both Renasant and Heritage, under specified circumstances. Further, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under particular circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement and depending on the circumstances, including the acceptance of a superior proposal, Heritage may be required to pay Renasant a termination fee in the amount of $10,300,000 and reimburse Renasant for its costs and expenses in the amount of up to $750,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Lock-Up Agreements

As a condition to Renasant's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, each of the directors of Heritage and HeritageBank are required to enter into lock-up agreements with Renasant no later than 10 days after the execution of Merger Agreement. Under these agreements, the director agrees to vote his or her shares of Heritage common stock in favor of the Merger and to refrain from transferring his or her shares of Heritage common stock prior to the vote on the Merger by Heritage stockholders. Under the lock-up agreements, the non-employee directors of Heritage and HeritageBank will also agree to certain non-competition covenants covering the two-year period following the consummation of the Merger. A copy of the form of such lock-up agreements are included as part of the Merger Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K.

Employment Agreements

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of O. Leonard Dorminey, Heritage's president and chief executive officer, and Carol W. Slappey, Heritage's Albany market president, amended and restated their employment agreements with Heritage, which agreements will be assumed by Renasant upon the closing of the Merger. In addition, it is a condition to the consummation of the Merger that T. Heath Fountain, Heritage's chief financial officer, and O. Mitchell Smith, Heritage's chief credit officer, enter into amendments to their employment agreements. Copies of the forms of these agreements are included as part of the Merger Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 11, 2014, 2014 Renasant and Heritage held a joint conference call with interested investors and financial analysts (the Conference Call) to discuss the Merger Agreement. A transcript of the Conference Call is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

Additional factors that could cause Renasant's and Heritage's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in Renasant's and Heritage's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the SEC and available at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov).
