On April 15, 2015, Christopher R. Christensen resigned from the Board of Directors of CareTrust REIT, Inc. ( CareTrust ). He noted that the primary objective of his board service was to help, as the CEO of The Ensign Group, Inc., the company from which CareTrust was spun off in June 2014, transition the new company smoothly through the spin-off and start-up processes. With the legal and operational separation of the two companies substantially complete, he concluded that his work on the CareTrust Board of Directors was done. His resignation was effective immediately.
